FEDERATION MEETING IN CITY WAS BIG SUCCESS

Large Audience Enjoyed Program Offered Saturday Afternoon at Y. M. C. A.

Many farm women of Cabarrus county met here Saturday for the regular meeting of the Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, the meeting being described as one of the most interesting in the history of the organization.

Practically every club in the county was represented and the program was wide in scope and interesting in make-up.

The Winesoff Club provided the musical part of the program, presenting a string band which rendered several numbers and a group of children who were heard with keen appreciation.

The chief address was made by John Chants, of Charlotte, interior decorator with Ivey's store. Mr. Chants in his talk pictured a bare room, and starting with the floor instructed the women as to how such a room should be fitted out. He had with him materials for draperies and other room furnishings and in a very attractive manner he showed how these materials can be used most effectively.

New officers were not chosen at the meeting due to the fact that several members of the nominating committee are ill with influenza and could not be present. This business will be transacted at the next meeting.

Committees appointed at the meeting were:

Refreshments—Mrs. E. S. Erwin, Mrs. John Price and Mr. A. H. White.

Program—Mrs. Tom White, Mrs. R. A. Sappenfield and Miss Cooley.

At the conclusion of the business session sandwiches, cake and hot cocoa were served.

Bridge Party.

A lovely compliment to Miss Frances Burroughs, the guest of Mrs. A. Jones York, and Mrs. William A. Ritchie, a recent bride, was the bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Miss Elizabeth Smith, at her home on Marsh street.

Miss Smith's home was attractively decorated in quantities of jonquils and other spring flowers.

At the conclusion of the game Mrs. W. L. Burns held top score and was presented a dainty box of powder. Mrs. Ritchie and Miss Burroughs were given attractive guest prizes.

A salad course was served the following guests: Mesdames Gales Pickard, J. A. Cannon, G. L. Patterson, R. S. Young, L. T. Hartsell, Sr., L. T. Hartsell, Jr., W. H. Wadsworth, A. Jones York, W. L. Burns, Ernest Robinson, S. J. Ervin, Stanton Northrup, B. E. Harris, Jr., E. Savaun, and Misses Ruth Crowell, Ruth Cannon, Maybelle Cannon, Kathryn Haynes Carpenter, Lucy Richmond Bentz, Adelade Harris, Margaret Virginia Ervin, Annie Smoot, Berin V. Young, Willford, Mary Phifer, Pemberton, Adele Pemberton, Margaret Ritchie, and Helen Marsh.

Christian Reid Book Club.

Mrs. T. L. Ross entertained the Christian Reid Book Club at her home on West Depot street Saturday afternoon.

The lovely rooms were profusely decorated with jonquils.

The subject of the program for the afternoon was "American Music During Revolutionary Period." Very little is known of the music of this period, and the papers read by Mrs. R. A. Brower, Mrs. P. B. Fetzer, Jr., and Mrs. T. L. Ross were most interesting.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Ross served delightful refreshments to the following club members: Mesdames R. A. Brower, P. B. Fetzer, Jr., H. I. Woodhouse, Leslie Bell, V. A. Means, P. B. Fetzer, Sr., and Miss Bettie Leslie.

Discuss Lamp Shade Making.

A number of women from White Hall and the Jackson Training School met with Miss Mattie Lee Cooley, on last Friday, at the home of Mrs. Gus Groover, to learn the art of lamp shade making. At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Groover served delicious refreshments to the following ladies: Mesdames George Lee Simpson, R. A. Sappenfield, A. H. White, Owen Joyner, John Russell, Broadus Talbirt, Roland Harris and J. Hobby.

Forty-Two Persons at Orthopaedic Clinic

Every One Present Given Attention By Dr. Myers at Clinic Here Saturday.

Forty-two persons were present for the orthopaedic clinic held here Saturday afternoon and each one was given attention by Dr. Alonso Myers, in charge of the clinic.

The attendance was the largest in the history of local orthopaedic clinics and the work moved along with such precision that no one was overlooked because of lack of time. As each person reported he was given a ticket and the examinations were made in numerical rotation.

Casts were fitted on 24 of the present, nine others were given treatment, five were measured for braces and braces were fitted on two.

Of those present 12 were examined for the first time, it was reported, this indicating that new interest is being aroused from time to time in the clinic.

Dr. Myers reported fine progress in the condition of many of the children, some of whom have been under his treatment for several months.

Where marked improvement was reported new casts were prepared while in some other cases it was necessary to use again the same cast that had been in use, although slight improvement were noted in practically all of the cases.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, stated after the clinic that he was more than delighted with the progress being made.

The officers elected for the year are as follows: President—Minnie Hill Davis. First Vice President—Ellen White. Second Vice President—Sara Frances Fisher. Secretary—Claudia Moore. Treasurer—Billy Luiker. Historian—George Richmond, Jr.

Ralph Caton Wins in Kite Flying Contest

Thirty Members of "Sunday Gang" Took Part in Contest Held Saturday Morning.

Ralph Caton is the best kite maker and fier in "Our Sunday Gang."

The youngster showed his superiority Saturday morning in a contest staged for members of the organization on a big hill near the White Parks Mill, with 29 other members of the gang offering competition.

Young Caton managed to get his kite in the air without difficulty, it being so perfectly made that it took to the air with the ease and grace of a bird. Once in the air the kite showed fine flying qualities, outdistancing the others which were being flown by other boys.

The fact that Caton's kite flew the longest and highest was evidence that it was the best constructed, the judges decided in awarding him the prize.

The contest was staged under the direction of Harry Lee Johnson and J. W. Denny, of the Y staff.
