PROF. W. FURMAN BETTS.

of Raleigh, who will direct the music in the revival meetings, starting in the First Baptist Church, Sunday.

Mr. Betts has an enviable reputation as a musician. He has had a most successful career as an evangelistic singer, having been associated with some of the leading ministers of the country of different denominations, in revival work. He has a way of getting music out of a crowd, and his solo work is most pleasing.

W. Furman Betts assisted me for more than a year in evangelistic meetings. He did faithfully and efficient service as a soloist and song leader and stimulating the people to more diligent searching of the Scriptures. I gladly recommend him.—Dr. W. H. Miley, 2014 East 9th St., Charlotte, N. C., Evangelist South Carolina Synod.

I have had no man to labor with me in meetings who gave me greater satisfaction. In every way gave encouragement and noble co-operation. His solo work was admirable. He has unusual ability in enlisting and training a choir. He has a remarkable insight in knowing how to adapt the music to the sermon and to the need of each particular service.—Dr. S. J. Porter, Pastor First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.

For years I have known Mr. W. Furman Betts. It affords me great pleasure to commend him as a man and as a Christian brother. He is a very successful Gospel singer and will help any pastor who secures him. He is sound in faith, but not a 'fadist'.—Livingston Johnson, Editor Biblical Recorder.

A special program has been prepared for the Sunday School, to be rendered at the Sunday School hour this Sunday. The departmental Superintendents, and teachers, are all striving to have a 100 per cent. attendance of the enrollment. The day promises to be a red letter day; every member of the school is urged to be present.

Sunday has also been designated as "Visitation Day." At 2 p. m. the Men's Brotherhood, 60 men strong, will meet at the church, and then go out in teams of two, to visit the entire membership of the church. Their visits will be primarily for the purpose of carrying a special message of encouragement to each home, and the enlistment of each member in a "United Spring Drive" for the enlargement and development of every phase and department of the church work. Special invitations and announcements pertaining to the revival meetings, starting in the church Sunday, will be left at each home.

A wonderful spirit of unity and earnestness now characterizes the church, and all phases of the church work are experiencing a healthy growth. The membership of the church is also steadily growing, new members having been received into the church every Sunday this year, save two.

The revival meetings starting in the Church Sunday, have been anticipated with eagerness; and great joy, increased interest along all lines, and divine blessings are confidently expected.

PASTOR.

Henry Brown lives alone on an isolated farm in Massachusetts. His niece, Ida, who lives in town, had her uncle put in a telephone so she could speak to him in case of an emergency. But the old man doesn't take to new-fangled things and refuses to use the contraption on the wall. Whenever he hears the phone ring he mumbles "Ida wants me" and hitches up his old horse and drives to town to see what Ida wants.

E. E. LADY RE-ELECTED

President of Kannapolis Club—Whitley Elected Secretary—Treasurer—28 Form Directorate.

(BY JAZZY MOORE) Kannapolis, March 26.—Edward E. Lady was re-elected a member of the board of arbitration and president of the Kannapolis baseball organization at a dinner given by John S. Carpenter last evening in the salon parlor of the Cabarrus Y. M. C. A. in honor of the directorate and few especially invited guests, who came from every nook and cranny of the city to partake of his hospitality.

Henry W. Whitley was elected secretary-treasurer and Jazy Moore was chosen publicity manager, succeeding Chal Torrence, who was promoted to the post of finance director. C. D. Morris and W. A. Castor will assist Mr. Torrence in his work. John S. Carpenter was elected permanent chairman, a position vacated by Dr. Frank Flowe. Castor of the finance committee, was appointed supervisor of the Cabarrus Park, home of the Kannapolisians.

The following members were selected to serve on the governing board: Powell, Dellinger, Funderburke, J. T. Nance, McGuire, Dr. Correll, Ingraham, Armstrong, Patterson, Elsher, Dr. Leon Smith, Hatterson, Allison, Dr. Frank Flowe, Lady, Whitley, Carpenter, Moore, Browne, Castor, W. A. Castor, Yarborough, Lee, Alexander, Torrence, Morris, Jolley and Wiseman.

While a field manager was not elected it was intimated that H. B. "Jobie" Hawn, assistant coach of Lenoir-Rhyne College, would be asked to serve in this capacity.

The chief talk of the program was made by Edward Lady, explaining the purposes of the meeting and sponsoring a motion, long before the board, providing for the officers to have authority on the field in "case of emergency," such as a manager's personal difference. This was approved. It was also decided that the manager must confer with President Lady and Secretary Whitley in employing players. The organization deferred action on Chal Torrence's bill of contracting players.

Preceding the business program an excellent musical piece was given by the members of the Cabarrus Orchestra.

Henry Warren Poor to Lecture Here. Henry Warren Poor, artist, traveler and orator, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. here on the night of April 16th.

Mr. Poor's lecture will be illustrated with moving pictures made in many historic spots in the United States, including the Grand Canyon, California, Trails and Utebos of the southwest and scenic America.

There will be no admission price to the lecture. Mr. Poor has lectured in many cities in the United States and has staged returned engagements as many as twelve times in some of the cities.

James H. Welch Dies Near Badin. James H. Welch, formerly a resident of this city, died Friday afternoon at his home near Badin. Death was caused by a stroke of apoplexy which Mr. Welch suffered some time ago.

Mr. Welch is survived by several sons and daughters, one of whom is Mrs. Hiram Beaver, of the Gibson Mill community. He was a brother of John Welch, of Concord, and had made his home here until about five years ago when he moved to Badin.

Funeral services were held this afternoon and interment was made in Oakwood cemetery here.

May Day Plans Being Made Now. Rehearsals for the annual May day fete at the Y. M. C. A. will begin immediately after Easter, it was stated at the Y this morning.

Miss Hersperger, expression teacher, will be in charge of the rehearsals, under present plans, and she expects to make the program more elaborate than any yet given here.

Due to the fact that the weather often is cold on May first it has been decided to hold the fete at a later date, which will be announced later.

NOON-DAY SERVICES AT THEATRE HERE NEXT WEEK

Pre-Easter Services Will Be Held For Business Men and Others at New Concord Theatre.

Beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday, noon-day co-operative religious services will be held at the New Concord Theatre here, plans calling for a service each day at noon, to continue thirty minutes.

The services are to be held primarily as a pre-Easter meeting and all clubs, civic organizations, adult Bible classes (men and women), business men and city officials are especially urged to be present. While the services are arranged primarily for business men, women of the city are invited to attend.

One of the features of the service each day will be a song service under the direction of Prof. W. Furman Betts, of Raleigh. Many famous old songs will be sung at the services.

The program for the week follows: Monday—Rev. C. Herman Trueblood presiding with Rev. M. C. Hansel as speaker.

Tuesday—Rev. T. F. Higgins presiding with Dr. J. R. Pentuff as speaker.

Wednesday—Dr. J. C. Cowan presiding with Rev. R. M. Courtney as speaker.

Thursday—Rev. H. B. Thomas presiding with Rev. M. R. Gibson as speaker.

Friday—Rev. H. F. Fogleman presiding with Rev. M. L. Kester as speaker.

Saturday—Rev. L. A. Thomas presiding with Rev. W. C. Lyerly as speaker.

The Late John S. Turner.

Speaking of the passing of John S. Turner, the Stanly News-Herald says: "John S. Turner, 86 years of age, died Tuesday night at 11 o'clock at the home of his son, John, Jr., in Cabarrus county, just across the line from Stanly. Mr. Turner had been ill for a few days and his death came as a shock to his family and friends.

He was a Confederate veteran and served his native county, Cabarrus, as commissioner for several terms. He was a man of keen judgment and one of the best informed men of his county. He was often sought for his judgment and advice by his friends and neighbors. He was well known in both Cabarrus and Stanly counties.

"Mr. Turner was of the Methodist faith and lived a consistent Christian life."

From remotest times fire has played a prominent part in Easter celebrations in many different countries. Especially in the East do the people believe in what is called "The Miracle of the Easter Fire"—a ceremony of elaborate character. It is confined to the Greek and other eastern churches, and takes place each Easter in Jerusalem.

Highs Represented at Track Meet.
