 S. N. Nash has sold to W. T. Miller for $1.00 and other valuable considerations property in Villamont Heights, a Kannapolis suburb, according to a deed filed here Friday.
 The April meeting of the county commissioners will be held at the court house here Monday. So far as is known now no business of unusual importance is to come before the meeting.
 George Cannon brought to Concord this morning a white peach bloom. This is the first bloom of its kind Mr. Cannon has ever found on his farm and many Concord people stated it was the first they had ever seen of its kind.
 Sheriff Caldwell and Deputy Sheriff Honeycutt seized a gallon of liquor on a farm near this city Friday afternoon. The liquor was found buried under a strawberry patch. The owner of the land was lodged in the county jail but was released on bond during the day.
 Eight defendants tried in recorder's court Friday afternoon paid $175 in fines and costs. In addition to these cases another in which the defendant was charged with driving a car while intoxicated was continued at his request. One defendant charged with having liquor paid the heaviest fine, $50.
 Grammar grade teachers of the county met here this morning with Prof. J. B. Robertson, their superintendent. Regular work was taken up at the meeting which was the last of the year for this group of teachers. Plans for the closing of the schools and county commencement also were discussed at the meeting.
 Easter weather, say weather forecasts is going to be excellent in North Carolina. Threats of rain Friday night and this morning made many think their Easter finery could not be worn tomorrow, but clearer skies followed during the day and late weather reports indicate that tomorrow will be clear and warm.
 J. W. Denny, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., and twenty members of his gym classes at the Y, went to Charlotte this morning to take part in the national Hexathlon contest being staged in all parts of the country under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Charlotte is the meeting place for all associations in this section.
 Plans for county commencement are being made now by Prof. J. B. Robertson, superintendent of the county schools. The commencement exercises this year are to be held on the afternoon of April 24th, just three weeks off. Many of the county schools will complete their work between now and commencement date.
 H. W. Blanks, secretary of the Y, wants enough trucks and autos to take 170 boys to Charlotte next Friday afternoon. The boys are to be guests of the Chapin-Sacks corporation and it is planned to send a leader with every 20 boys so they will be safely watched after. Persons with cars and trucks which can be used are asked to notify Mr. Blanks.

TODAY'S EVENTS.
 Saturday, April 3, 1926.
 Today is the fortieth and last day of Lent.
 Centenary of the death of Bishop Heber, famous cleric and hymn writer.
 Five years ago today two feet of snow fell over a large part of Oregon.
 One hundred and twenty-five years ago today saw the execution of the mutineers of the "Bounty," at Portsmouth England.
 Admirers of the late John Burroughs, the great naturalist, will make a pilgrimage to his grave today, on the 80th anniversary of his birth.
 A national welcome awaits Commander Franco, the transatlantic aviator, on his return to Spain today on an Argentine cruiser from Buenos Aires.
 More than thirty-six cities of the United States and Canada will be represented by hotel men and their families among the 250 passengers sailing from New York today to attend the congress of the International Hotel Alliance in Paris.
 Tries Typsetting Innovation.
 The current issue of Linotype News, organ of the Mergenthaler Linotype Company, contains an experiment of interest to publishers—the running of an eight point news body face on seven point body. The result is increased legibility over regular seven point faces, with virtually no line loss, the paper states. The news body matter is 8 Point No. 2 with Gothic No. 3 set on seven point body.

Cut His Own Hair.
 Monroe Enquirer.
 Raymond C. Trull, of East Monroe township, came in Monday and inquired: "How do you like my hair cut?"
 "Looks all right," I told him. "I did it myself, using regular shears," said Mr. Trull.
 It was a good job and no one would believe it possible for a man to cut his own hair, and not make a mess of it.
 "Uncle," asked the bride of his dotting relative, "are you still growing?"
 "No, Johnny, why do you ask?"
 "Cause the top of your head sticks up beyond your hair."
