

SOCIETY

For Formal Wear

Here is a very smart piece in the slip-on style for formal afternoon wear. White kid is used. The top-down cuff is trimmed with the new chain mail trimming in gold. Gold buttons and trimmings.

EASTERN STAR CHAPTER IS INAUGURATED HERE

The Wright G. Campbell Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was instituted in the Masonic lodge rooms on April 6th, with the following grand officers present: Mrs. Elizabeth G. Bergman, of Winston-Salem, worthy grand matron of North Carolina; Mrs. A. L. Smoot, district deputy grand matron; Mrs. Mabel Tate, grand marshal of the grand chapter. Other officers appointed to serve protocol were: Mrs. George A. Bryant, grand secretary; Mrs. Edna Ewan, grand warder; Mrs. Helen Walton, grand sentinel, all of Marietta Winslow chapter, Kannapolis.

The order being the woman's auxiliary of the Masonic bodies was named the Wright G. Campbell chapter in honor of Rev. Wright G. Campbell, one of the leading spirits of Masonry in Stokes lodge. It was due to the untiring efforts of Rev. Mr. Campbell immediately after his arrival in Concord in 1886 that Stokes Lodge was revived and put on a firm basis which has made it one of the most active lodges in the States. Mr. Campbell personally trained its members in the secret work and aroused the lagging interest of the scattered members of his time, and from this foundation Stokes Lodge is still building a better and stronger organization. The local lodge elected him to its highest offices, and in recent years they conferred the honor of a life membership upon him, presenting him with a gold life membership card in token of its appreciation.

After the institution the following officers were appointed and installed: Mrs. Julius Fisher, worthy matron; Dr. J. W. Pike, worthy patron; Miss Janie Klutz, associate worthy matron; Mrs. James M. Culeleasure, secretary; Mrs. T. B. Sturgis, treasurer; Miss Cora Lee Buchanan, conductress; Miss Sudella Erik, associated conductress; Mrs. Jessie Howard, chaplain; Mrs. Gilbert Hendrix, marshal; Mrs. Frank Pounds, Adah; Mrs. E. S. Towery, Ruth; Mrs. Bessie Hartsell, Esther; Miss Helen Patterson, Martha, and Mrs. Ray Hoover, Electa.

The evening ceremonies were conducted by the Miriam Winslow chapter of Kannapolis, with a number of the Salisbury chapter members present. During the social hour which followed, refreshments were served by the Concord chapter.

Hyman-Herrin.
Miss Ruth Herrin and Marion Hyman, of Mt. Pleasant, were married at the St. John's Lutheran parsonage, on Wednesday evening, April 7th, Rev. L. D. Miller officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyman left immediately after the ceremony for South Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will be at home in Mt. Pleasant.

Parents of Daughter.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Tucker, April 8th, a daughter.

SORE THROAT

S tonsillitis or hoarseness, gargle with warm salt water. Rub Vicks over throat and cover with a hot flannel cloth. Swallow slowly small pieces.

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

H. S. FIRESTONE SAYS

"A truly great product is one that gives the buyer more than he has a right to expect. I have found the ELGIN watch to be that kind of a product."

Let us show you our line of ELGINS. Easy Terms.

S. W. Preslar
JEWELER

PERSONAL

Revs. W. L. Sherrill and A. R. Surratt, of Charlotte, were in Concord Thursday.

Rev. C. M. Short, of Waynesville, was in Concord Thursday. Mr. Short was a former pastor of Forest Hill Methodist Church here.

Mrs. Harry Titsworth and Dewey Rinehart, of West Frankford, Illinois, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. George Klutz. Mrs. Titsworth and Mr. Rinehart plan to stay in North Carolina for several months.

Miss Nannie Klutz has returned to Lenoir-Rhyne College, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Klutz, for several days.

Miss Mary Klutz has resumed her studies at North Carolina College for women, after spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Klutz.

Adam Klutz has returned to Tabor, after spending several days in Concord.

Miss Margie Troutman has returned to her home, after visiting friends in Charlotte for several days.

Miss Mary Moore Alston, of Chaneby, is visiting Mrs. T. L. Chaneby.

Boyd Biggers spent Thursday afternoon in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Means have returned from a motor trip to Charleston Magnolia Gardens and Summerville, S. C.

J. A. Cannon, A. G. Odell and A. S. Webb returned Thursday from Asheville, where they attended the district Rotary meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Gilbert and two children left Thursday for Newton, where they will make their home in the future.

C. W. Ryrd and T. H. Webb were visitors in Charlotte Thursday.

Rev. R. S. Arrowood spent Thursday afternoon in Charlotte.

Mrs. M. L. Marsh and Miss Helen Marsh will leave tomorrow morning for Charleston, where they will spend the week end.

Mrs. C. H. Barrier and Miss Ida May King are spending several days in Greensboro with relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. A. Rudisill, of Cherryville, is spending several days here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Tucker.

MISS MARY O'NEAL WEDS KING TOLLES, OF NORWALK

Beautiful Ceremony at First Presbyterian Church, of Rock Hill, Unites Prominent Families.

Rock Hill, April 8.—Centering the interest of a wide circle of friends throughout the Carolinas and Connecticut, the home-state of the groom, was the wedding Wednesday evening of Miss Mary O'Neal, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Neal, of this city, and King C. Tolles, of Norwalk, Conn., now a popular resident here.

The nuptials, characterized by brilliancy and beauty, was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, where the bride's pastor, Dr. F. W. Gregg, officiated, assisted by Rev. Walter R. Alexander, of the First Baptist Church, the pastor of the groom and were witnessed by an immense assemblage of relatives and interested friends.

The attendants were: Bridesmaids, Misses Marguerite and Dorothy Ruff, of Ridgeway, cousins of the bride; Maids of Honor, Miss Aletha Fennell, of this city, and Miss Margaret Virginia Erwin, of Concord, N. C. The Dame of Honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. A. L. Humphries, of this city, and the Matron of Honor was her mother, Mrs. J. W. O'Neal. The bride was attended by her father, who gave her in marriage.

SWING-DENNY WEDDING

A Marriage of Much Interest to Friends in Concord and Elsewhere.

A marriage centering the interest of many friends in Concord, Kannapolis and other cities, was that of Miss Fay Denny to Ed. Swing, of Kannapolis, solemnized Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the McKinnon Presbyterian Church. Rev. Robt. S. Arrowood, pastor of the bride, officiating.

The altar was grouped with statelily ferns and a towering screen of palms formed an effective background for the impressive vows.

The bridal music was rendered by Miss Nell Utley, who was beautifully gowned in white lace over rose satin, with rhinestone trimmings. Miss Utley's corsage was of sunset roses.

At the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Miss Margie Miller, maid of honor, entered, followed by her sister, Mrs. Smoot Blackweider, of Salisbury, who was dame of honor. Miss Miller was handsome in a cream satin gown with gold and lace trimmings. Mrs. Blackweider was beautiful in a gown of beige georgette with touches of lace and rhinestones. Miss Miller and Mrs. Blackweider both wore blonde slippers and hose and carried lovely arm bouquets of carnations.

Little Sarah Crooks daughter of Mrs. Louise Peck, Ellen Punct, Kate Swing, sister of the groom, and Jessie McCombs, of Kannapolis, who were bridesmaids. Miss Peck and Swing wore attractive pastel shaded dresses of green, while Misses Punct and McCombs wore dresses of delicately shaded pink. All four bridesmaids used blonde accessories and carried arm bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crooks, was the dainty little ring bearer. She was dressed in flesh-colored organdie trimmed with lace, and carried a large lily in which rested the ring.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Sam Denny, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Everet Denny, of Winston-Salem, cousin of the bride. The bride was unusually beautiful in a lovely gown of white satin and veil of tulle, caught with orange blossoms. Her corsage was of bride's roses and valley lilies.

The ushers included: John Flake McInnis, Roy Sapp, Tom and Guy Johnson.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Denny, of this city. She is a very striking brunette of unusual beauty, with a winning personality, and has been admired by many friends in this city and elsewhere. Since the announcement of her engagement, she has been accorded a round of delightful parties and showers.

Mr. Swing is a young man of sterling qualities and holds a very responsible position with the Cannon Mills of Kannapolis. He commands many friends here and elsewhere in the State.

The many beautiful presents, which Mr. and Mrs. Swing received, attested the popularity and esteem in which they are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Swing are at present residing at the home of the latter's parents on the Kannapolis Highway, but upon the completion of their handsome little bungalow, which is now under construction, they will be at home to their friends in Kannapolis.

Shower for Mrs. Otho Ervin. A most charming linen shower was given by Miss Mary Virginia Harris at her home on South Union street on Wednesday night, April 7th, in honor of Mrs. Otho Ervin, who was Miss Lela Bradford before her recent marriage. A color scheme of pink and white was effectively carried out and the reception rooms were resplendent with spring blossoms. Ample pink and white float down by little Elizabeth Krider, carried the many gifts to the bride, and was preceded by little Charles Harris carrying the weather forecast on a huge poster, "Sat's Bear Says Showers Tonight." Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and after many hearty congratulations for the bride, the guests departed for their homes.

Silver Cross Circle Meeting This Afternoon. The Silver Cross Circle is meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Elean White, on Georgia Avenue.

Announces Engagement of Miss Gaither Pearson.

Salisbury, April 2.—Mrs. Burgess Gaither Pearson, of Salisbury, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Gaither, to James Whitaker Ballou, of Richmond, Va., the wedding to take place in June.

Announcement of the engagement of this popular young couple is received with interest throughout North Carolina and Virginia. The wedding will be a beautiful event of June and the ceremony which will be solemnized at the bride's home, will be followed by a large and brilliant reception.

Miss Pearson is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Burgess Gaither Pearson and the late Mr. Pearson, and is one of the most beautiful, attractive and popular young women of Salisbury. She is a vivacious brunette since returning from Salem College of unusually charming personality. She has interested herself in the literary, religious and social life of the city and is a member of the O. Henry Book Club and various other interesting clubs.

Mr. Ballou is the son of Col. William Brantford Ballou and Mrs. Ballou, of Richmond and Clarksville, Virginia. He is an alumnus of the Virginia Military Institute and the University of North Carolina. For several years he has been engaged in the tobacco business in Virginia and North Carolina. He is a young man of most pleasing address and has a wide acquaintance in the state.

Miss Pearson has many friends in Concord, where she has visited Mrs. E. F. White, Jr., on numerous occasions.

Guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Lyerly.

Rev. Sterling W. Whitener, Missionary of the Reformed Church to China, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Lyerly last night. He was returning from the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society at Bear Creek Reformed Church, Mr. Whitener spoke to the pupils of the high school at their chapel services this morning. He is a son of Catawba county, a graduate of Catawba College, and has spent several months in North Carolina before returning to Yenchow City, Hunan Province, China.

Miss McKinley Honors Bride-Elect. Miss Mary McKinley honored Miss Bertie Louise Willeford Thursday morning with a bride party, followed by a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Parks M. Lafferty on North Union street.

The color scheme of pink was carried out in the flowers, roses, hydrangeas, and apple blossoms being used profusely throughout the spacious living room, and dining room.

Miss Willeford, holding high score, was presented a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Penelope Cannon, holding low score, was given a deck of cards.

Little Emily Lou Lafferty came in, with an attractive corsage formed of a dozen linen handkerchiefs, and flowers, which she presented to the honoree for the hostess.

Miss McKinley, assisted by Misses Mary Crowell, and Orchard Lafferty, serving a delightful luncheon to the following guests: Misses Willeford, Helen Marsh, Penelope Cannon, Mary Crowell, Elizabeth Dick, Martha Caldwell, Laura Gillon, Annis Smoot, Annie Auten; Mesdames J. B. Womble, D. G. Caldwell, Aubrey Folkes, Grace Brown Sanders, Neal Pharr, T. N. Spencer, A. C. Cline, T. N. Denton, Stowe Green, R. B. Rankin, J. C. Willeford, W. M. Linker and E. F. White, Jr.

Divorcee in China is effected by the simple expedient of sending the wife back to her mother.

Miss Mary O'Neal, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Neal, of this city, and King C. Tolles, of Norwalk, Conn., now a popular resident here.

The nuptials, characterized by brilliancy and beauty, was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, where the bride's pastor, Dr. F. W. Gregg, officiated, assisted by Rev. Walter R. Alexander, of the First Baptist Church, the pastor of the groom and were witnessed by an immense assemblage of relatives and interested friends.

The attendants were: Bridesmaids, Misses Marguerite and Dorothy Ruff, of Ridgeway, cousins of the bride; Maids of Honor, Miss Aletha Fennell, of this city, and Miss Margaret Virginia Erwin, of Concord, N. C. The Dame of Honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. A. L. Humphries, of this city, and the Matron of Honor was her mother, Mrs. J. W. O'Neal. The bride was attended by her father, who gave her in marriage.

The groom was attended as best man by Raymond Brady, of Auburn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolles left during the evening for a honeymoon trip, their destination unknown. Upon their return they will begin housekeeping at once on Union avenue.

Miss O'Neal is well known in Concord, having visited Miss Margaret Virginia Ervin on several occasions.

The following announcements have been received here: Mrs. W. C. Parnell announces the marriage of her daughter Mary Esther to Mr. Jasper C. Cook on Thursday, April the eighth. Nineteen hundred and twenty-six. Charlotte, North Carolina. At Home After April fifteenth. One hundred East Depot Street. Concord, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook left after the ceremony for a motor trip to Columbia, South Carolina, where they will visit relatives.

Children of the Confederacy to Meet. The John Phifer Young chapter of the Children of the Confederacy will hold its meeting Saturday afternoon at 3:30, with Adelaide and Billy Linker at their home on White street. All members are urged to be present and prospective members are cordially invited to meet with the chapter.

Mrs. George Richmond is leader of the children's chapter.

Miss McKinley Honors Bride-Elect. Miss Mary McKinley honored Miss Bertie Louise Willeford Thursday morning with a bride party, followed by a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Parks M. Lafferty on North Union street. The color scheme of pink was carried out in the flowers, roses, hydrangeas, and apple blossoms being used profusely throughout the spacious living room, and dining room. Miss Willeford, holding high score, was presented a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Penelope Cannon, holding low score, was given a deck of cards. Little Emily Lou Lafferty came in, with an attractive corsage formed of a dozen linen handkerchiefs, and flowers, which she presented to the honoree for the hostess. Miss McKinley, assisted by Misses Mary Crowell, and Orchard Lafferty, serving a delightful luncheon to the following guests: Misses Willeford, Helen Marsh, Penelope Cannon, Mary Crowell, Elizabeth Dick, Martha Caldwell, Laura Gillon, Annis Smoot, Annie Auten; Mesdames J. B. Womble, D. G. Caldwell, Aubrey Folkes, Grace Brown Sanders, Neal Pharr, T. N. Spencer, A. C. Cline, T. N. Denton, Stowe Green, R. B. Rankin, J. C. Willeford, W. M. Linker and E. F. White, Jr. Divorcee in China is effected by the simple expedient of sending the wife back to her mother.

3 handy packs for 5¢

WRIGLEYS P.K.

NEW HANDY PACK

Fits hand ~ pocket and purse

Always ready, in your pocket, to give you long lasting beneficial refreshment. BEST Chewing Sweet for any money.

Look for Wrigley's P.K. Handy Pack on the Dealer's Counter.

John Barrymore in "The SEA BEAST" with Dolores Costello George O'Hara Last Time Today CONCORD Sat. Wm. S. Hart in "Tumbleweeds"

AUDITORIUM THEATRE CHARLOTTE

Next Monday Two Performances Only

FAREWELL VISIT MESS LEE & J. J. SHUBERT PRESENT GAY GOLDEN GLORIOUS UNFORGETTABLE

BLOSSOM TIME

MAIL ORDERS NOW

Prices: Eve $1.50 to $3.00
Mat. $1.00 to $2.50
Plus Tax

SECURE SEATS EARLY
At the Gordon Music Academy—Telephone 5532

Save the surface and you save all! Paint & Varnish

Special Cash Prices on Rogers' Paint

Do Your Spring Painting Now Use Rogers Paints and Varnishes

Rogers Semi-paste (one gallon makes two)	only $3.25 gal.
Rogers Walltona, only	$3.00 gallon
Pure Linseed Oil	$1.10 gal.
Rogers Pure White Shellac	$4.50 gal.
Rogers Pure Orange Shellac	$4.00 gal.

We have a complete line of Colors, Varnishes and anything to paint with.

Just received a big shipment of Rogers brushing Lacquer—for chairs, porch furniture, flower boxes and pots. Come and inspect our big paint stock and get our prices.

YORKE & WADSWORTH CO.

The Old Reliable Hardware Store

Phone 30 Concord, N. C. Phone 30

J.C. Penney Co.

A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION

DEPARTMENT STORES

50-54 South Union St., Concord, N. C.

Flowered Voile For Dresses

Cool, Dainty Pastel Backgrounds

Feminine, delicate, and cool looking are these lovely flowered voile materials. You can't resist a frock made from one of these. With white or some luscious pastel background. Priced, the yard, at 35c to 79c

New Dress Material

It's Called "Fasheen"

A small and bright figure on a neutral background—with, perhaps, a touch of black, makes this material one of the Spring's most popular fabrics.

Printed Pongee

It's really a printed cotton pongee, but its particular name is "Fasheen." It is reasonably priced, the yard, at

39c