LOCAL MENTION

The Bible story contest for St. James Lutheran Church will be held tomorrow, Sunday afternoon, at 3:30 in the church.

The banks of the city will be closed on Monday, April 12th, which is observed in North Carolina as "Halifax Independence Day."

It was reported this morning by a city official that conditions which existed at the old Nash store building on Elm street had been corrected.

Commencement exercises at the Harrisburg school will be held on Thursday evening, April 15th, at 7:30. The general public is invited to attend.

G. A. Batts, who recently suffered a stroke of apoplexy, is able to be out again. Mr. Batts was on the streets in the business section today for the first time since he was stricken several weeks ago.

J. F. Harris is confined to his home on North Spring street by illness. He became ill Friday while at work at Harrisburg and was rushed to his home here. His condition this morning was reported as improved.

Plans for observance of "Better Home Week" in Cabarrus county are being perfected now. The week to be observed is from April 26th to May 2nd and plans for the week will be announced after they have been completed.

Howard Untz is confined to his home on Academy street by illness. Mr. Untz became suddenly ill Friday night and his condition at one time was reported as serious. He is improved somewhat this morning, it is said.

Mrs. T. A. Hough died Friday morning at her home in Aberdeen, her death occurring at the same time as the death of her uncle, James Measner. Mrs. Hough was a daughter of J. W. Measner, of Tennessee, and formerly lived in Concord.

"In the Master's Footsteps" will be the subject of Mrs. Trueblood's sermon at the First Baptist Church tomorrow morning. In the evening his subject will be "Buried and Risen With Christ." A baptismal service will follow the evening sermon.

The cemetery commission is having another circle laid out and improved at the rear of the cemetery property and lots in the new part are being sold now. The new circle is similar to the one recently completed in another part of the cemetery.

Miss Beulah Courtney, county nurse, who has been ill for several days is still at the home of relatives at Cabarrus. Miss Courtney was forced to rest several days when she became ill while at work in this county. Her condition is reported as greatly improved.

Primary teachers of the county met here this morning with Prof. J. B. Robertson for their last regular meeting of the scholastic year. Regular work was conducted at the meeting, with some time devoted to a discussion of plans for closing the schools this month.

North Carolina Christian Advocate: "Rev. W. A. Jenkins last Sunday morning received 27-18 on confession of faith and nine by letter—Park Place Church is now having to put chairs into the aisles on Sunday mornings to accommodate the people."

According to a deed filed at the court house Friday the Cabarrus Motor Co. has sold to L. H. Sides for $10 and other valuable considerations property on North Union street adjoining the Concord Hospital. Another deed records the sale of property in Ward 2 by Mrs. Geneva L. Cook to G. P. Hubble for $800.

Proceeds from the vaudeville show at the Y tonight will go to the "Sunday Gang" and to the employed boys of the Y. Gym suits for the latter are to be purchased, as these boys now have one of the largest and most active classes at the Y. The vaudeville will be shown at the Y tonight. Front page ad. gives particulars.

Crawford Aldridge, white man charged with abandonment, was sentenced to serve two years on the chain gang when found guilty in recorder's court Friday. Aldridge, it is said, married a young woman in Virginia after leaving his first wife here, and he probably will be returned to Virginia for trial after serving his sentence here.

The first session of the recorder's court in a week was held Friday afternoon, more than a dozen cases being docketed. In fines and costs $188.35 was collected and in addition one man was sentenced to the chain gang for abandonment and another for operating a car while intoxicated. The latter had a suspended sentence so must serve two terms.

Persons who expect to enter the "Home Garden Contest" this year should send in their names at once to Miss Cooley, county home demonstration agent. Miss Cooley wants to get the names to Raleigh by April 15th, and at present only about a dozen names have been sent to her. This matter is one that demands immediate attention by those persons who expect to compete for the prizes offered.

"IN THE MASTER'S FOOTSTEPS"

Pastor's Sermon Subject Sunday Morning at the First Baptist Church

What is a Christian? If a man follows in the footsteps of Christ where will those steps lead to? Maybe this sermon will help you—Hear it!
At 7:30 P. M. Mr. Trueblood will preach on: "BURIED AND RISEN WITH CHRIST." A Baptismal Service Will Follow the Sermon
"Man is more than animal; feed your soul!"
CORDIAL WELCOME TO ALL!
