A car in which three young ladies and two young men were riding was wrecked near here on the highway. One of the young ladies was badly hurt. The rest of the occupants of the car and only minor injuries. A passing car picked them up and rushed the injured lady to the Concord Hospital.

C. B. Suther and family, of Kannapolis, spent the week-end with relatives here.

B. F. Dry, of Florida, who is spending a while with his family on South

Union street in Concord, spent last Sunday afternoon with D. G. Bost. Mr. Dry speaks well of Florida. He has spent six months there doing electrical work. After a short stay with his family he will return to his work there.

D. G. Bost is on the sick list.

S. L. Bost and family visited friends here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Platt and G. F. Platt spent Sunday in Spencer.

GEORGEVILLE.

Commencement exercises are being held tonight and tomorrow night, Tuesday night, April 13th. The play, "Poor Father," will be rendered on Tuesday night.

Miss Ollie Teeter is spending some time in Albemarle visiting the Misses Lipes.

Miss Elma Eudy entertained a number of her friends at her home Saturday evening.

Miss Marie Barnhardt and Olin Shinn, of Concord, were the guests of Miss Inez and Miss Laura Mae Shinn at their home here on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Teeter and James Teeter spent Saturday in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eudy and daughter, Mary Louise, of Concord, spent Sunday here with relatives.

We were sorry to learn of the destruction of the Bank of Midland by fire on last Thursday morning. It seems as if people are getting so they don't mind holding up a cashier of a bank, or doing other mean tricks. We hope the guilty parties will be punished.

J. C. Shinn, Misses Alma and Estelle Shinn and Lee Shinn spent Saturday evening in Concord.

Miss Lucile Shinn spent the week-end with Miss Bertie Hartsell, of Oakboro.

FAITH.

D. P. Yates has opened up a little store and gasoline station between the Mt. Pleasant road and Crescent on his own land.

We saw a big truck load of county fairs in Salisbury today selling at 38 cents per pound.

A little six weeks old black pig has strayed off and is now at the home of C. H. Earhart. The owner can get it if he writes to Venus.

We met F. W. Wecker, a fine clever young man, manager of the Newark store. He has the prettiest young girl for his wife you ever saw. E. O. Whitley is his assistant.

We met Louis Clements, Jr., who is running for county solicitor, a fine young lawyer.

Mrs. J. A. Peeler has got well, but Mr. J. A. Peeler is right weebie.

Ten people were taking dinner today at the Dutch lunch No. 2 when we went in for dinner. Who can beat that?

Venus met four pretty girls and one boy but the girls were the best looking and said they read Venus' items. Here are their names, do you know them? Max Thomason, Pieta Miller and Cathleen Thomason, of Franklin, and Claudia Harrison and Ollie V. Conrad, of Salisbury.

Alonso Beck married a pretty girl from near Greensboro.

At Saleeby's wholesale house we saw E. F. Waller, L. L. Trexler, and G. C. Waller busy as bees waiting on customers.

Krazy Kid in her items of February 26th in The Concord Daily Tribune says she is with Venus to have a picnic of the correspondents of The Concord Times and Tribune.

Venus wants a grandfather clock for his own use and will give some little boy or girl one dollar if they write and tell him where he can buy one and if he buys it they get the money.

The Ford Hotel has a fine young man as hotel clerk.

You can buy an old-time handloom in Faith and everything that goes with it and a piece of cloth already started.

There is one man living in Salisbury that would not have been there today if it had not been for J. T. Wyatt. They were at town creek, east of Salisbury, when they were boys together and this little boy fell in and was almost drowned when J. T. Wyatt jumped in and pulled him out and saved his life. He now has children married and has grandchildren. J. T. Wyatt is entitled to a medal for saving a life.

Mrs. G. C. Miller has purchased three hundred little biddies and keeps them in a little house, where there is machine kept warm by a lamp that burns day and night to keep them warm and they are getting along fine.

Mrs. J. A. Peeler's little old-time bantam has come off with her biddies and she is so proud she makes the "firt fly" in all directions to beat the band.

J. T. Wyatt is bidding on a lot of good granite work the past few weeks. This is one of the signs of good times when so many inquiries are coming out for prices on granite work.

A merchant at Emporia, Va., sent a check for a jar of eczema salve.

Venus wants to get the address of a Mr. Moyle, who was boss at the Barringer mine when it was shut down several years ago. Good news for him.

We met C. L. Hodge and his pretty young wife in their car in Salisbury today. He is the largest man in the county perhaps, weighs 280 pounds. If you can beat that trot out your man. He takes the Salisbury Post and reads Venus' items. All good farmers take The Post or The Concord Times or Stanly News-Herald or Carolina Watchman to read Venus' items.

We met Rev. J. N. Dill in Salisbury, the fattest minister who lives in Faith and preaches at Dun's Mountain, Rockwell and Gold Hill, and is a mighty good preacher.

Venus will buy all the Confederate money and Indian arrowheads and everything over 100 years old. Write and tell us what you have.

EASTERN NO. ELEVEN.

We are glad to have this nice rain. Easter was spent very pleasantly by our folks.

Beatrice and Herman, little children of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shimlock, gave their little friends an egg hunt Saturday from 2 till 5.

Those who enjoyed the sport were: Juanita and John Litaker, Margaret and Pearl Graeber, Bessie, Lora Bernice and Roy Pless, Juanita Helderman, Anna Belle, Frances, Grover, Farrell and Woodrow Faggart. Little Miss Juanita Litaker was successful in finding the largest number of eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearly Hargett and little daughter, of Concord, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Biggers.

Beulah, Gladys, Shellie and Lela Biggers spent the Easter holidays with home folks.

Messrs. Robert and Archie Bost and Durant Biggers, of Statesville, visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Blanche Platt has purchased a fine Victrola.

O. W. Whitley and family, of No. 8; Lee Whitley and family, of No. 9; and D. W. Hartsell and family, of Kannapolis, spent the week-end at E. F. Whitley's.

Misses Antha and Opha Litaker, of Kannapolis; Virginia Cline, of Mont Amona Seminary, spent the Easter holidays at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Krimminger, of Charlotte, visited relatives here over the week-end.

Mrs. Rose Klutz is home after an extended visit to her daughters, Mrs. L. A. Fisher, of No. 4, and Mrs. Bessie Moore, of No. 7.

Those who visited D. G. Bost Sunday were: Oscar Shimlock and family and little niece, Juanita Helderman, and Miss Nora Hopkins, of Kannapolis, sister of Mrs. Shimlock; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bost, of Spencer; Robert and Archie Bost, of Statesville; Mrs. C. D. Wensil and children, of Charlotte; J. K. Talbirt and family, of Concord; C. A. Myers, of near Raleigh; David Dry, of No. 1, and Miss Lucile Bost, of Concord.

Little Alis and Juanita Bost returned to their home in Concord Tuesday after spending several days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bost.

WHITE HALL.

We all know that spring is here because we are awakened every morning by the singing of the birds.

Mrs. C. A. Harrison and son, of Salisbury, spent the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury, of Route 7.

Archie White, Jr., of Mt Pleasant, spent the holidays with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. White.

Master Bobbie Lee Harrison returned to his home in Salisbury Sunday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury.

Our literary society has stopped for the 1926 season. We all enjoyed the society and we hope that those who visited it enjoyed it so much that they will come back next year.

Hip hip! who law we have won our first game of baseball. Of course you all would like to know what the score was, so here it is, 15 and 1 in favor of White Hall. The game was played on the Training School diamond. St. John used four pitchers but they could not stop the flow of runs. The third baseman for White Hall knocked a clear home run with one man on base. But the shining

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief From Head-Colds! It's Splendid!

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sneezing, sniffing, blowing, headache, dizziness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.

light of the game was First Baseman Lifty Lentz. He got six hits out of six trips to the bat. That boy Lifty is the best first baseman I ever saw perform. He is made for a leaguer's berth. We wish him good luck in the baseball line. We have won a game by the score of 15 to 1. We will have another game before long. Watch for the announcement so you can come and be with us.

We, the high school, have selected our play. The name of it is "Nobody's Darling," and when you see it you will agree that after all she became somebody's darling. Watch for the program.

Venus, I know a family that had twenty-three visitors Easter. Can you beat it for visiting? If so, trot it out.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury and family, of Route 7, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Christenbury, near Poplar Tent Easter Monday.

Easter was a real Easter around White Hall and Route 7. We had an egg hunt Friday evening at the school house.

I believe the flu has departed from our neighborhood. If there are any cases we do not know about them.

Be sure and visit our community day of the land sale.

Writers of The Tribune and Times, have you sent in your names for the correspondents' picnic? If you haven't send your name either to Venus, of Faith Route 3, or Carolina Kid, Route 7, Box 9, Concord. Send in your name and get ready for the picnic at an early date. Be ready. We will have a good time.

And Oh yes! Be sure and go to St. Johns Friday evening—our boys will once more face the St. Johns team, this time on the St. John's diamond. We are going to win, so be there and see us.

Krazy Kid must have gone in under or departed from Harrisburg. Some one in Harrisburg look for him or her).

We have reports around White Hall that the Krazy Kid is a girl. Some one hunt up the Krazy Kid.

We hope that the Gibson Mill representing Concord will soon start the baseball season. Carolina Kid hopes that the Gibson team will conquer Kannapolis this year.

The sixth and seventh grades will take the county examination next Tuesday and Wednesday, also other schools in the county.

After school goes out Route 7 it will once more be represented in the item line by Carolina Kid. Carolina Kid's home is on Route 7.

CAROLINA KID.

Judge Henry Grady, grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, and a Roman Catholic bishop met in a home in Elizabeth City recently, according to W. O. Saunders, and had a good time together smoking their cigars and talking about prohibition.

Luther Burbank had evolved a new corn which bears from eight to fourteen ears on a single stalk.
