BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
THE GOD OF PEACE.—Now the God of peace, make you perfect in every good work to do his will.—Hebrews 13:20, 21.

BROOKHART DEFEATED.
There was a switch in administration plans for voting on the Brookhart-Steck contest.

That means the deposed Senator has another grudge against President Coolidge. Perhaps the last minute change was due to Brookhart's attitude in the last campaign.

Sixteen Republicans and twenty-nine Democrats voted to seat Steck and several Democrats voted against him.

Senator Brookhart is not through, however. He is going to be a candidate in the Republican primary in Iowa against Senator Cummins.

The Democrats for the first time since the Civil War can boast of a Senator from Iowa. They hope to have two after the fall election.

Senator Steck may prove the man able to give the Democrats the majority in the next Congress.

SUPPORT THE Y. M. C. A.
The Young Men's Christian Association of Concord is preparing now for its yearly financial campaign.

The Y. M. C. A. does not go begging when it asks the people of Concord to support it from year to year.

Concord's Y. M. C. A. is really a

X. W. C. A. also, for while its major program deals with the boy and young-man life of the city, its minor program, which is devoted to girls and young women, is an ambitious one.

When the canvassers ask you for a sum to carry on the work of the association remember you are investing in not a material proposition, but in an undertaking that means for happier, healthier and better satisfied youngsters.

REBUILDING THE STATE HOSPITAL.

It will not be necessary for the General Assembly of the State to meet in extra session to provide funds with which to rebuild the main building of the State hospital for the insane that was destroyed by fire last week.

The last session of the Legislature made provision for just such an emergency and preliminary steps looking to the rebuilding of the structure already have been made.

W. B. COOPER IS GIVEN NEW TRIAL
The Circuit Court Holds That Judge Errel in Charging Jury.

Cooper was convicted at Wilmington on four counts of an indictment and sentenced to serve 18 months on each in Atlanta penitentiary, the sentence to run concurrent.

1, 2, 3 and 7. The first three counts arose out of a single transaction, to wit: the discounting on April 27, 1922, of a note of E. L. Sanderson, endorsed by Thomas E. Cooper, for $13,500, and the entry of that amount on the books of the bank as credit to Thomas E. Cooper.

Post and Flag's Cotton Letter.
New York, April 13.—A somewhat better run of weather news was reflected in a slightly easier tone to new crops and this might become more marked if the favorable conditions persist.

"Oh, no, you mustn't do that," began Clifford roughly.

"Oh, I see," gasped Marie. "How mean! I—I won't tell, of course. But you mean it? You'll send for me? You love me?"

"I guess so." She brightened and looked with trust in his face.

"We'll have tonight, anyway, and all day tomorrow won't we—talk about it? And you're not sorry

Turning alone, with few of the wrong words of his vocabulary left unsaid, into the hotel, Clifford was encompassed in an arc of irritation.
