LOCAL MENTION

Marriage licenses were issued here Thursday to George L. Stackleather and Miss Violet Faggart, both of Kannapolis.

Mrs. Fred Lowder underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils here Thursday. Her condition today is reported as satisfactory.

R. D. Goodman went to Charlotte this morning to hear the address of Hon. Frank O. Lowden on "The Farm Problem," and other business.

All contestants who won second prizes in the local Bible Story Contests which were recently held here, are asked to confer with Secretary Blanks at the Y. M. C. A. sometime before Sunday.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the North Carolina diocese of the Episcopal Church, meeting in Durham, has voted to hold its next meeting in Salisbury. The dates will be announced later.

The Hartsell Mill school is one of the many county schools closing the year's work today. It is stated by teachers in the school that the closing term has been a very successful one, with more than the usual amount of work being completed.

C. H. Castor has sold to Charles B. Castor for $300 property in Center-view, according to a deed filed here Thursday. Another deed records the sale of property in Wadsworth addition of Concord by D. M. Walker to S. M. and J. F. Barr for $250.

Every Democrat in the county is expected to attend the county convention here tomorrow afternoon. The convention will be called to order at 2:30 by Miss Rosa Mund, vice chairman, and business of importance is to be transacted.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kiser died this morning at their home on St. James street. Funeral services were held this afternoon and interment made in the cemetery at Roger's Chapel. The child was one of twins born to Mr. and Mrs. Kiser Thursday.

Friends here of Rev. W. A. Jenkins have been much interested in the announcement of his selection as president of Davenport College. Mr. Jenkins served here as pastor of Central Methodist Church for four years, the Church enjoying a fine era under his leadership.

Under an ordinance recently passed by the aldermen, all dogs in the city must be vaccinated against rabies. Before a dog license can be secured in the future the owner must show the certificate of vaccination for his dog. Quite a number of mad dogs have been seen in Concord recently.

The Concord high school baseball team, accompanied by the band and many rooters, left at noon for Gastonia, where it will play its first championship game this afternoon. This will be one of the first games in the State high school championship series.

One hundred and fifty more persons Thursday signed up for parts in the Ringing Cedars to be staged at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday May first. A big parade, to be composed of vehicles entered by local business houses, will be one of the features, every business concern in the city being asked to take part in the parade.

Contestants in the Bible story contest have worked hard and they deserve moral backing from the grown-ups. The first of the contests in the finals will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at St. James Lutheran Church, and the second will be held Sunday night at 7:30 in Forest Hill Methodist Church. A silver offering to defray expenses will be taken.

The working of testing all cows of dairies which sell milk to Concord will be started next week. The cows are tested annually under the direction of city and county health officials. The tests this year will be made under provisions of the milk ordinance recently passed by the aldermen. It will require about sixty days to complete the tests.

Dusty Roads and Danger. Albemarle Press. Sooner or later the country will find out that dusty roads are such a menace to life that all highways of importance will be either hard surfaced or given treatment with tar or other approved dressing. Those who have had to go upon the roads leading out of Albemarle in the past few days have found that on some of the roads traveling is positively dangerous, to say nothing of the discomfort of dust. The road to Badin has been comparatively free from accidents since the oil coating was applied, and it is practically satisfactory as if it were hard-surfaced. Money invested in treating the roads between Albemarle and the Cabarrus and Anson county lines would be to a good advantage. It is no longer a question of economy, but one of safety and necessity. In addition to these road improvements, a rural traffic officer is needed. People of the county are violating traffic laws beyond reason, and there are too many roads here allowed to go unchallenged. Albemarle is directing oil treatment to some of her unpaid streets, and the county road board should not hesitate in bringing all of our important public roads to a point of safety from dust.

AGRICULTURAL COLUMN

Conducted by R. D. Goodman, County Agent

American Forest Week is an annual call to all citizens, young and old, to take part in bringing about better forest conditions.

The American forest week committee, of which Hon. Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, is general chairman, is composed of nearly 100 organizations representing about every conceivable form of interest—Federal government, State governments, outdoor, wild life, and recreational interests, foresters and forestry associations, the lumber industry, large consumers of forest products, the industrial world in general, labor, groups interested in water resources, scientific and civic organizations, and a host of others.

American Forest Week is all inclusive, for its purpose is to give opportunity for every form of interest in trees and forests to find expression, each in its own way. The end it aims at is that the general welfare may be promoted through the taking of common counsel, the formation of intelligent public opinion, and the stimulating of action, individual and collective, under the impulse thus given.

American Forest Week is not a tool for advancing the views of serving the purposes of any special group or organization. It does not identify itself with any particular measures or program, but seeks to make known facts and to promote discussion from every angle. It has no goal other than that which a rightly informed public opinion may of itself set up and seek. It is strictly and wholly educational in plan and purpose.

TODAY'S EVENTS

At the 156th annual dinner of the St. George's Society in New York City tonight a bronze tablet will be presented to Captain George Fried, of the Roosevelt in commemoration of the heroic rescue of the British freighter Antinoe.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

F. H. Seelye, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Charlotte Hotel, and will remain in Charlotte Saturday and Sunday only, April 24-25. Mr. Seelye says: "This Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in ten days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects—immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions.

CAUTION—All cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seelye has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

N. B.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. Seelye, Home Office, 117 N. Dearborn St., Chicago.

P. S.—Fraud warning—Many complaints have reached me from dissatisfied purchasers that certain parties have been traveling about under misrepresentations—imitating my ads, and claiming to be associated with me or my establishment. Substituting an inferior imitation for my goods and improperly fitted, all of which is false and fraudulent and an imposition on the purchaser.

GOT SURPRISE OF LIFE WHEN HE TOOK KARNAK

Has Heard Lot Of Claims For This Medicine But Can't Enough Be Said For It, Declares Spartanburg Man.

I had tried lots of medicines for this condition, but I failed to get relief until I finally started taking Karnak. "I am on my second bottle of the medicine now, and my stomach is in condition to where I can eat anything I want, and all that gas and awful smothering sensation have left me. My appetite is good, and I am beginning to feel in every way like I did before my troubles ever started. I have heard a lot of claims made for Karnak, but I tell you can't enough be said for this medicine."

"I tell you, I have never been so surprised in my life than I am at the results I have gotten since I started taking this Karnak," declares P. I. Elms of 695 S. Center St., Spartanburg, S. C.

"I was suffering from an inactive liver, biliousness and stomach trouble, and I just felt out of sorts all over," continues Mr. Elms. "Everything I ate just seemed to stop right in the pit of my stomach, and I would bloat with gas till I could hardly get my breaths."

"This gas would press around my heart so bad I thought I had heart trouble, and my nerves got to be such a wreck I couldn't rest night or day."
