CRESCENT LIMITED MAKES A WONDERFUL RECORD

Reaches Atlanta on Time 355 Times Out of 365 or 97.2 Per Cent. on Time.

The Crescent Limited, The Southern Railway's pullman de luxe train, running between New York, Washington, Atlanta and New Orleans, which was inaugurated on April 26, 1926, made a wonderful on time record during the first year of its operation.

Southbound, the Crescent Limited reached Atlanta on time 355 times out of the 365 days and Northbound it reached Washington on time 348 times or 97.2 per cent. on time Southbound or 95.3 per cent. on time Northbound.

And only four occasions in each direction was the train as much as an hour late the delay being due to truck obstructions or waiting on connections, the remaining delays ranging from 14 to 25 minutes were occasioned by minor difficulties either on the Southern or connecting lines.

The actual running performance on the Southern was even better than shown by the schedule figures since time was made up on schedule in both directions a number of times.

The record made is extremely creditable when it is considered that the train was operated daily in each direction over a distance of 1,358 miles, 968 over the Southern between Washington and Atlanta, 227 over the PRR between New York and Washington and 498 over the West Point route and E. & N. between Atlanta and New Orleans.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Helms.

Mrs. Elizabeth Helms, aged 72 years, widow of J. H. Helms, died Saturday afternoon, April 24th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Hyman, 811 North Broad street, Charlotte.

Mrs. Helms was well known in Concord and has a daughter, Mrs. Zeb Parrall, living here.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Hyman residence, by her pastor, Rev. W. L. Griggs, of the Ninth Avenue Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. S. B. Lyster, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in Elmwood Cemetery.

A number of relatives survive the deceased. Among them, three daughters, Mrs. Zeb Parrall, of Concord; Mrs. J. R. Hyman, and Mrs. Edward Pendleton, of Charlotte; one son, J. W. Helms, Cincinnati, Ohio; one brother, David Miller Lemor, and one half-sister, Mrs. Wm. Stafford, of Lowell, N. C., besides eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Helms was an earnest Christian and a charter member of Ninth Avenue Baptist Church. She had been in bad health for two years, but had been confined to her bed since last Christmas. The immediate cause of her death was apoplexy, which she suffered on last Friday evening; but for more than a week previous she was aware of approaching death and expressed her willingness to depart and be with Christ. She will be greatly missed by her many devoted relatives and friends.

A Poor Married Man.

Last Saturday night I saw a very fine play at Roberta school entitled "A Poor Married Man." It carried with it two very fine love stories and a very fine sense of humor which was brought out chiefly by the negro servant character.

The Poor Married Man was a professor in college, about 27 years of age. His trials are very characteristic of modern life.

This play was one of the best that I have seen. In fact it was just a clean, up-to-date entertaining play. It is well worth your time to see it.

The evening was made more pleasant by a good string band. I have heard many others who saw the play remark that it was very fine.

MEETING SATURDAY TO ATTRACT POULTRY MEN

Hundreds Expected to Hear Dr. B. F. Kaupp and Others at Meeting Here.

Poultry fanciers from this and adjoining counties are expected here Saturday to hear an address by Dr. B. F. Kaupp, poultry expert at State College.

Dr. Kaupp's address has been arranged by R. D. Goodman, county farm agent, as part of a program in celebration of "National Egg Day" on May 1st.

The meeting will be the first of its kind in this county and is expected to result in the organization of a county-wide poultry club.

In addition to the address by Dr. Kaupp there will be others by well known poultry raisers of this and adjoining counties. Farm agents from the five adjoining counties also have been invited to address the meeting.

Dr. Kaupp is one of the best known poultry men in the United States. He is an authority on poultry diseases as well as an expert on the care and feeding of poultry. In his address he is expected to discuss various questions that have a vital bearing on the poultry business.

County Agent Goodman finds poultry raising on the increase in Cabarrus county and he has arranged the meeting Saturday with the view to giving impetus to the movement to make the industry one of the major ones of the county. Mr. Goodman is not only interested in poultry; he wants pure-bred poultry, pointing out that it costs no more to feed a heavy layer than a chicken that lays about three months in the year.

"National Egg Day" will be generally observed throughout the country. The federal government has given its approval to the idea of setting aside one day for special study of poultry and its products, and throughout North Carolina and other states special programs have been arranged for the day.

Every person in this part of the state interested in the subject is invited to attend the meeting at the court house here Saturday. The program will begin at 2:30.

SNOW KING BAKING POWDER

Blushing, she hid her face on her father's shoulder. "He loves me," she said.

"Then I suppose he wants to marry you?" the old man grunted.

"Yes, dad."

"What's his income?"

She started. "I don't know," she murmured, "but the coincidence is very strange."

"What coincidence?" asked her father.

"Archibald," she answered, "asked the very same question about your income."

Little Rex was taken to a theater and went up in the balcony. The play was so exciting that they leaned over the railing and fell down into the orchestra. His father got excited and shouted: "Key, for goodness sake come back. It costs more down here."

"Has your brother any bad habits?" "None that he's conscious of," answered Miss Cayenne. "But for things so well of himself that he regards what the family call bad habits merely as his own cute little ways."

Captain (angrily)—Bastion up that coast!

Married Recruit (cabinets-minutely)—Yes, my dear.
