IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

CLEAN-UP WEEK IN CITY SUCCESS, OFFICIALS SAY

City Now Ready to Enforce Ordinance 136 Which Was Recently Passed by Aldermen.

Now that Clean-Up Week is a thing of the past for the season, city officials are getting ready to vigorously enforce ordinance 136 which was recently passed by the aldermen. This ordinance says people in Concord shall not collect trash of any kind and place it on the streets unless it is placed there in garbage cans.

"We gave every one an opportunity to get rid of their trash during the last fifteen days of April," one official said, "and hereafter this law is going to be enforced. People have been warned to get garbage cans and unless they do so they cannot place garbage and trash on the streets. During Clean-Up Week, which in reality was two weeks, we allowed the public to place trash in the street gutters, but this practice must be stopped and those who do not stop it will be indicted."

Trash wagons provided by the city visit every street of the city at least once each week, this official pointed out, and these wagons will collect all garbage placed in the garbage cans, which should be set on the sidewalks the day the trucks are expected. Trash and garbage not placed in cans will not be collected and in addition persons who place such stuff in the gutters will be arrested.

ARREST OF JUDGMENT IN BRINKLEY CASE

Supreme Court Rules on the Case Brought Up From Cabarrus Superior Court.

Arrest of judgment because of defective indictment was the decision of the Supreme Court of the State in the case of Thomas Brinkley, of Concord, convicted of seduction.

The judgment of the lower court was arrested by the Supreme Court because the word "feloniously" was omitted from the indictment. The decision of the court was made known yesterday.

Brinkley was tried at the January term of Cabarrus Superior Court and sentenced to serve four years in the State prison by Judge T. D. Bryson, who was presiding. Notice of appeal was given by counsel for the defense.

The Brinkley case was first aired in the recorder's court here, Judge Caldwell, who presiding as recorder then, failing to find probable cause. The case was then presented to the grand jury, a true bill being found. Brinkley was sentenced on January 7th.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. JOEL REED THIS AFTERNOON

Services Will Be Held at Home at 4 O'clock With Interment at Oakwood Cemetery.

Funeral services for Mrs. Joel Reed, who died suddenly yesterday morning at her home here following a stroke of apoplexy, will be held this afternoon at the home at 4 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Dr. J. C. Rowan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of which Mrs. Reed had been a member for many years. Interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

A number of relatives and friends from out-of-town arrived in Concord yesterday and this morning to attend the funeral.

The pall bearers will be Dr. W. C. Houston, C. F. Ritchie, William Bingham, of Concord, B. M. McNewly, David Creswell and William Creswell, of Mooreville.

SEWER WORK PROGRESSES; NEW STREET IS OPENED

Sewer Line For Ashe Street Is Being Laid Now—Lipe Street Being Developed.

Street department forces of Concord are engaged now on several important pieces of work.

Part of the force at present is engaged in laying a sewer line on Ashe street, this line being needed to complete the city-wide system planned now by city officials.

Another section of hands is busy opening up Lipe street. At a recent meeting the board of aldermen voted to condemn certain property for this street and the necessary steps having been taken, the work of opening the street has begun.

New Officers For Rotary Club.

Installation of new officers featured the weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club yesterday.

Prof. A. S. Webb took over the reins of the presidency and Dr. R. B. Rankin began his work as secretary.

A. G. Odell, the retiring president, thanked members of the club for their co-operation during the year. He stated that such co-operation had made his work easier and more pleasant.

President Webb expressed the belief that the club will continue its fine service in the future and pledged determined effort to make the year a successful one under his leadership.

To Lay Out Another Circle at Oakwood.

The 24 lots in the new circle recently laid out at Oakwood cemetery have been sold, it is said, and the cemetery commission has ordered another circle laid out.

The work of improving the rear part of the cemetery was begun several months ago and so many desirable lots have been provided in the new circles that the commission deems it necessary to have another laid out at once.

The new circle will contain 24 lots which will be similar to those in the circle just completed.

J. A. STROUD DIES AT HOME FROM INJURIES

Was Fatally Hurt When He Stepped From Moving Automobile Here Yesterday Morning.

J. A. Stroud, well to do and prominent farmer of this county, died yesterday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock at his home two miles north of Concord from injuries he received yesterday morning when he stepped from a moving automobile. He fell as he stepped from the car, his head striking the asphalt street with such force that it caused a fracture of his skull.

The accident occurred in the Forest Hill community after Mr. Stroud had been given a lift to Concord by a stranger. While en route to Concord from his home at Cook's Crossing, Mr. Stroud's car became disarranged, so he asked a stranger passing to bring him to Concord.

When near a filling station at Forest Hill Mr. Stroud asked the stranger to slow up so he could get out. It is said that he stepped from the car before it came to a halt, being thrown with such force that he was rendered unconscious. The name of the driver of the car is not known.

A physician was summoned immediately and Mr. Stroud was taken to his home. He never regained consciousness.

Mr. Stroud moved to Cabarrus county from Iredell county and was successful as a farmer. He owns valuable land in the county. Several years ago the deceased operated a jitney in Concord, being one of the first men in the city to operate a car for hire. He gave up this business about a year ago.

Mr. Stroud was 58 years of age. He is survived by his wife, mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Stroud, two sister, Mrs. Cora Harstel, of Statesville, and Mrs. Laura Saffit, of Florida; one brother, James Stroud, of Statesville, and the following children: Mrs. Ollie M. Lubacke, of Harrisboro; Mrs. Gertrude Cowsey and Claude Stroud, of Wytville, Va.; Ralph Stroud, of Florida; Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, of Asheville; Miss Jeanette Stroud and Brad Stroud, of this county.

DEATH OF PRICE A. DRY

Former Concord Man Fatally Injured When Struck by Automobile in Petersburg.

The following account of the accident which resulted in the death of Price A. Dry, son of Mrs. G. B. Dry, of this city, is taken from the Petersburg, Va., Progress-Index:

"Price Dry, about 45 years old, of Main street, Ettrick, died last night at 8 o'clock at the Petersburg Hospital from injuries received Saturday night when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile, driven by Milton Epperson, of Oakdale Avenue, on the hill leading from Ettrick.

A warrant with a technical charge of manslaughter, is expected by local authorities to be served today on Mr. Epperson pending the findings of a coroner's inquest, which probably will be held tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock at J. T. Morris & Son undertaking establishment here. The inquest will be conducted by Coroner McGill and Magistrate Pleasant and will be held tomorrow night providing all witnesses to the accident can be gotten together at that time.

The accident occurred shortly before 8 o'clock Saturday night, it is

DAIRY MEETING HERE ON NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT

Cosy Sketch Will Take Place of Lecture at Court House.

"We are assured of the dairy meeting we have been expecting for some weeks," said W. T. Wall this morning. "The meeting is being billed for the 6th."

The correspondence which Mr. Wall has had with W. T. Magruder, of St. Louis, informs him that in place of the contemplated lecture there will be substituted a play, "Joe Guess Wins $1,000." The purpose of the play is identical with that of a lecture, namely, to arouse an interest in better feeding methods among the farmers and dairymen and to show each dairyman how he can produce milk at a lower rate per gallon. But the facts are dressed into an in-
