Neal and children were there later in the afternoon and spent a short while.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion to the fullest extent. About mid-afternoon the crowd began leaving for their respective homes, bidding Mr. McEachern good-bye and wishing for him many more happy birthdays. One warm friend of his hoped that "he would live to see fifty more birthday anniversaries."

Bridge For Mrs. Oglesby.

Mrs. John M. Oglesby will be the honoree at the bridge party given by Mrs. C. W. Byrd Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

Brooks-Smith.

A wedding which came as a surprise to their many friends was that of Miss Anniebell Smith and Eugene Brooks, which was very quietly solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Rev. R. D. Carol, pastor of the Allen Street Baptist Church of Charlotte.

Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present. The bride was lovely in dress of blonde georgette with accessories to match, and corsage bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Brooks is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Smith, of Pageland, S. C., and for some time has held a position as supervisor for the Southern Bell Telephone Company, of Charlotte.

Mr. Brooks is a son of Mrs. M. J. Brooks, of Kannapolis. He holds a responsible position with the Garret Electric Service Company. After a wedding trip to Asheville Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will be at home to their friends, 1324 Plaza, Charlotte.

Miss Helen Powell, Charleston Dancer, at Concord Theatre.

Miss Helen Powell, the dainty 17-year-old dancer, of Charlotte, will be here at the Concord Theatre this week for three days, beginning Thursday.

Miss Powell has many new steps and dances which are to be shown.

Bridge Club to Meet.

The Wednesday afternoon Bridge Club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. T. Yates.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Potts and Miss Mollie Sides spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Rosemary.

Dr. C. R. Harding, professor of Greek in Davidson College, was in Concord Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Cochran, who entered the Mercy General Hospital at Charlotte, and submitted to an operation, is doing nicely and expects to return home some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cannon are spending several days at Blowing Rock.

Miss Emily Winn, a missionary to Korea, who is in the United States on a furlough, is the guest of Miss Maggie Barnhardt. Miss Winn will speak at the First Presbyterian Church this evening at 7:30.

Cyrus W. Moore, of Reynolds, Ga., is expected to arrive in the city Thursday to visit his niece, Mrs. J. C. Cook. Mr. Moore has been living in Georgia for twenty-four years and this will be his first visit back to North Carolina. He is a brother of the late M. L. Moore.

R. R. Pendleton and daughter left Tuesday for Bunnell, Fla., to visit Mr. Pendleton's daughter, Mrs. Paul Watson.

NO CONCORD BOY HAS BEEN REPORTED MISSING

Police Officers Know Nothing About Benjamin Hill, Reported Missing From City.

Police officers here this morning stated that they know nothing about Benjamin Hill, being missing.

The matter was called to their attention by a reporter who showed them the following article:

"Belhaven, May 11.—Benjamin Hill, missing Concord boy, was seen here Thursday night with a companion. The pair left Wednesday morning with a traveling salesman and they have not been seen since."

Chief of Police Talbirt was of the opinion that the Belhaven reporter must have made a mistake in the name of the town from which Hill is missing.

"The matter has never been reported to me," he said, "and my department has not been asked to look for any missing boys."

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION MEETS FOR LAST TIME THIS YEAR

The Corbin Street School Parent-Teacher Association held its last meeting for this school year on Tuesday afternoon at 8:15 o'clock.

A report of the work done by the organization the past year was read by Mrs. J. C. Pounds, secretary. This report showed that the association had bought a set of Compton's Picture Encyclopedia and also Nature's Library for the school. About fifty books were also added to the grade libraries. Shrubs and trees for shade were planted on the grounds. Two saws and five swings were provided for use of the children. A volley ball court is now in course of construction at the school.

It was decided by the members present to hold a "Summer Round-Up Party" in July. The purpose of this party is to have the children who will enter this school next term, and their mothers, assemble at the school and become acquainted with the teacher and also that the children may become familiar with the building and grounds. This party will be held in late July.

New officers for the coming year were chosen as follows: Mrs. Jesse Howard, president; Miss Clara Harris, vice-president; Mrs. D. W. Moore, secretary; and Miss Bonti Loftin, treasurer.

The teachers invited the parents present to inspect the work of the children of each grade. This proved an interesting and enjoyable feature of the meeting.

This association has been very active during the past year and much good work has been accomplished under the splendid guidance of Mrs. B. M. King, the retiring president.

BIRTHDAY DINNER GIVEN MRS. T. M. YOST OF SOUTH ROWAN

On last Sunday several hundred relatives and friends of Mrs. Yost met at her home and gave her a treat with a loaded table of good things to eat. Also many nice and useful gifts which she thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated, were presented to her.

Among those present were her children, Mrs. McCulloch, and Ernest, of Raleigh; Elmer, of Greensboro; Victor, of Salisbury. Also Mr. McCulloch, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Elmer Yost, of Greensboro. Lee Yost, her oldest son, was not able to get home as he had just arrived in New York on Friday from India.

Mrs. J. C. Trexler, a sister of Mrs. Yost, was also present. This day was also Mrs. Trexler's birthday anniversary.

Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Cook and children, of Concord and Charlotte; Mrs. F. V. Barrier, Mr. Chas. Brown and others, of Salisbury; Misses Sarah and Bessie Jackson and mother, of Rock Hill, S. C., and a host of others from far and near. All will long remember this occasion, which was enjoyed by everyone present, most especially by Mrs. Yost.

CENTRAL GRAMMAR SCHOOL TO PRESENT OPERETTA

A real treat is in store for the people of Concord next Tuesday night, May 18th, when they will have the opportunity of seeing Central Grammar school present the operetta, "Snow-white and the Seven Dwarfs."

The libretto of this operetta is founded upon Grimm's well-known fairy story of "Snow-white." In addition to the main characters, approximately one hundred and fifty children will take part in the different dances and choruses.

The High School auditorium will be used for the presentation of the operetta and an admission price of 15 cents for school children and 25 cents for adults will be charged. The net proceeds will be used for the work of the Central Grammar school.

ANOTHER CONTROVERSY IS NARROWLY AVERTED

Fundamentalist and Modernist Questions Come Up—Is Sent to Committee.

Memphis, Tenn., May 11.—The twentieth general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, lingered for a moment on the edge of another fundamentalist-modernist fight here today when a resolution introduced by Rev. R. P. Shuler, Los Angeles, was hurried out of the conference into committee with an argument already starting.

Mr. Shuler asked the conference to ask the bishops to appoint a special committee to draw up a statement of Methodist beliefs and present it to the general conference four years hence. An effort was made to send the resolution to the committee on constitution, another was made to table it and several delegates attempted to discuss the paper and the need of such a committee before it was sent to the committee on the spiritual state of the church. Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, presiding, with unusual firmness squelch any attempt to discuss the subject matter of the resolution.

Trying to Dismiss God.

Dr. S. P. Cadman, head of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, told the conference that the work of the church was to combat "this neo-paganism which is creeping inland causing the country to try to dismiss God with a vote of thanks for past services."

Dr. Cadman referred to a resolution passed by the conference just before he spoke which called upon Congress to strengthen the prohibition law and to enforcement department, declaring "protestantism will have to lower her banner if the prohibition law is defeated. Prohibition is the result of the efforts of protestantism and its defeat would be a defeat for the church of Christ."

Along with the resolution demanding that Congress strengthen the prohibition law the conference voted an appropriation of $240,000 for the establishment of a board of temperance with headquarters in Washington. This move met with stiff opposition from different parts of the conference. One member wanted to know if the church was going to establish "a lobbying bureau" in Washington.

Christ's Stronghold

Dr. Cadman in bringing the greetings of the Federal Council of Churches said that Methodism was the "fort of Christ in America." He said that while churches are and forever will be separated, he felt that in the schools of the country there should be "some sort of religious teachings."

"There is a neo-paganism arising in this country which would dismiss God with a vote of thanks for past services. The only way to combat this move is through a militant Christianity, solidified by the mutual worship of the same Christ" said Dr. Cadman.

"I stand here today with you and look across the sea at our mother country and the stands face to face with evil war. England is reaping what her fathers sowed. The English never applied the laws of Christ to industrialism and she is paying for the omission."

"The south is standing on the brink of an industrial development which will more than equal that of England. I plead with you of the south to remember that the laws of Christ must be applied to your new industrialism or you will come some day face to face with the same situation that England is called upon to deal with today. You were great when you were poor, I hope and trust, I might say that I know you will keep that greatness as you grow richer and richer," Dr. Cadman declared.

Cotton Letter.

New Orleans, May 11.—Prospects of good weather for the next few days offset unfavorable weekly overnight and prospects of settling the strike and the market ruled easy most of the day.

Much of the selling apparently came from satisfied longs. The market steadied soon as the selling from this quarter let up but failed to rally more than a few points on press and private cables, indicating the strike may be settled overnight.

Heavy rains with hail and windstorms and much crop damage were reported from northeast Texas and many parts of Mississippi and Alabama. Rains in the east are beneficial but not in the center and west and many reports of pessimistic nature and little attention to favorable strike news indicating that it may have discounted a settlement. If so, it may sell off tomorrow if weather is good as appears probable.

Birthday Dinner.

As I believe in trying to brighten the life of others, I will try to tell how the life of Mrs. Polly Hill was brightened by the presence of her children and friends at a birthday dinner last Sunday.

Mrs. Hill, known by her friends as "Grandma," is 78 years old, and lives with her son, Charlie, near the Union county line. On May 9 the following children were present to enjoy the saintly mother's hospitality:

Bud Hill, Charlie Hill, Mattie Barlow, Bell Howland, Eliza Simpson, Fannie Mattis, Rena Alman with 38 grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren and about 150 friends.

This is one of the largest families we know of in this section. There is a total of 96 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

After a heavily loaded table was relieved of its burden and the people all had their hunger appeased, there was a few good old time songs sung and a short address delivered by the present. Then we gave "Grandma" a hearty handshake and wished her many more happy birthdays.

A FRIEND.

A fake check signed "U. R. Struck" was accepted by a Dallas, Texas, tradesman, and found its way through the clearing house before it attracted any attention.

COLE BLEASE AGAIN IS ON THE "WAR PATH"

Says He Has Health, Wealth and Glory, and Asks What Else Could a Man Want.

Washington, May 10.—Senator Cole Blease, the fiery democrat from South Carolina, went on the war path tonight and threatened to clog the whole legislative machinery unless the senate paused long enough to adopt an amendment to its rules permitting senators to say how they voted in executive session.

"Unless this amendment is acted upon, so help me God I'll object to every bill on the calendar" he shouted.

"If the senator thinks he will get anywhere that way, he is wrong," declared Senator Grayson, Arkansas, who had objected to consideration of the amendment because of the absence of his colleague, Senator Robinson, the democratic floor leader.

"I'm not looking for anything," retorted Senator Blease. "I have good health, plenty of money and a seat in the United States senate. What is the devil else could a man want?"

A roar of laughter swept the senate and the crowded galleries and senators began to plead with the South Carolinian to recede from his position.

"This matter is vital to me and my colleague who is sick in a hospital," said Senator Blease, referring to Senator Smith, of South Carolina. "I know the kind of fight he is up against and he ought to be allowed to tell his constituents how

HE VOTED ON THE NOMINATION OF THOMAS F. WOODLOCK FOR THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, the republican leader, explained that Senator Robinson had filed a minority report on the rules amendment and that it had been agreed that the subject would not be taken up until he returned to the senate.

"When will he be here?" demanded Blease.

"All I know is that he is the Democratic leader but he is never here," was the answer.

Finally Senator Blease withdrew his objection with the remark: "Oh well, I reckon I will have to do like the rest of the democrats and vote with the republicans."

DR. B. R. LACY NAMED UNION SEMINARY HEAD

Election Follows Resignation of Dr. W. W. Moore after 2 Years' Service.

Richmond, Va., May 11.—Rev. Walter W. Moore, D. D., resigned today as president of Union Theological seminary after 22 years of service in this office. His resignation was accepted with reluctance by the board of trustees and he was elected president emeritus. It was announced that he would continue as lecturer on the Old Testament. Rev. Benjamin R. Lacy, Jr., D. D., pastor of Central Presbyterian church, Atlanta, Ga., and a son of the state treasurer of North Carolina, was elected to succeed as president. Dr. Lacy is expected to accept.

For several months Dr. Moore has been confined to his home taking a rest cure on advice of his physicians. It was announced he was born in Charlotte, N. C., June 14, 1857, and was educated at Davidson college, graduating with the degree of A. B.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF LIQUOR SEIZED

New York, May 11.—With a cargo of whisky, champagne and alcohol valued at $1,420,000, the freighter Donnetta, was brought into the harbor tonight by the coast guard cutter Seneca and anchored near the statue of liberty.

The freighter, seized last night 60 miles southeast of Atlantic City, was flying the American flag, but without ship's papers and with no one aboard with officers' credentials was said by coast guard officials to come technically under the classification of piracy.

Coast guard officials believed the Donnetta to be connected with the operations of an alleged bootleg ring of Port Chester, Long Island. Emil Wormser and five other men were indicted yesterday in connection with the ring which is estimated to have assets of $10,000,000.
