FORMER RESIDENT OF CITY DIES AT HOME

C. W. Earnhardt Died Suddenly May Third at His Home in Keyville, Virginia.

Friends and relatives here have been advised of the death of C. W. Earnhardt, a newspaper editor at Keyville, Virginia. A newspaper of that town had the following to say of Mr. Earnhardt's life and death:

Mr. C. W. Earnhardt, of Keyville, dropped dead from heart disease on Tuesday afternoon, at his blacksmith shop.

No one was present at the time of the sudden attack which resulted in his death. Just previous to the discovery of his body lying in his place of business, he had been on the outside doing some repair work. A boy, in passing, saw his prostrate form, and immediately reported to a physician, who went to the place and found life extinct.

Mr. Earnhardt was 73 years of age and had been a resident of Keyville for about twenty years, engaged in the blacksmith business. He came in contact with many people who learned to admire and esteem him. He was held in high esteem not only by the entire community in which he lived, but by a large circle of outside acquaintances.

Mr. Earnhardt leaves his wife, one son and one daughter. He was a native of North Carolina, having been born and raised in Concord.

The remains were interred in Ash Camp Baptist church cemetery. He was a member of the Presbyterian church.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

At Scotia Seminary—Unique Class Play.

BY H. WILSON

Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. the members of the Class of 1926 rendered their Class Day program before a large audience in the Seminary Chapel. While the usual Class Day "pep" was evident throughout the program and every number showed originality of production that was commendable to the class and delightful to the audience, perhaps the most interesting was the Class Prophecy, arranged and directed by Miss Mary Wade, a member of the Class of '26. In the play each member of the class was seen in a well arranged plot as she would appear ten years hence.

As a recessional the class sang "Good-bye" to the "Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, Faculty, and Scotia" as they marched out.

As a token of their love and appreciation a beautiful vase was presented to Miss Mary E. Foreman, the class teacher. Amanda Brown, president of the class, made the presentation speech which was beautifully responded to by Miss Foreman.

The annual address was delivered Tuesday evening by Rev. Charles A. McCrea, D. D., of Oakland, Pa., further notice of which will appear tomorrow.

The Commencement exercises took place this morning at 10 o'clock, and this completed the exercises. The following program was rendered:

March: Hongroise (Jackson)—Martha Smith-Lucille Dockery.

Invo-cation.

Pilgrim's Chorus (Tannhauser).

Essay: All in the Day's Work—Jessie Washington.

Essay: The Trend of Modern Education—Amanda Brown.

Piano Solo: Prelude in C minor (Sergia Rachmaninoff)—Sarah Elizabeth Hogue.

Essay: Home Training For Citizenship—Mabel Harrison.

Essay: American Ideals—Ida Mae Griffin.

Chorus: Almond Blossoms (Pestalozza).

Essay: Some Rural Problems—Maggie Brewer.

Essay: Education by Play—Emma Tooley.

Chorus: When Life Is Brightest (Pinsuit).

Presentation of Diplomas.

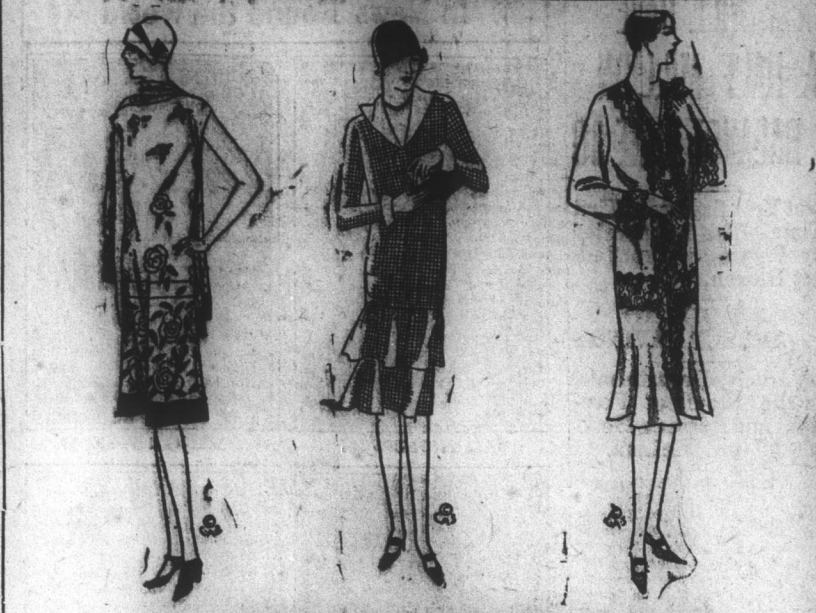

Benediction.

REFORMED MISSIONARY MEETING IS CLOSED

Sweeping Changes Made in Officials of the Society.—Mrs. C. C. Bost Makes Report.

Philadelphia, June 1.—Important business filled the last day of the triennial meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the general synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, convened in Trinity Reformed Church, Broad and Venango streets, May 29th, to June 1st.

On Memorial Day a patriotic service was arranged in connection with the in memoriam service conducted by Mrs. J. W. Dillman, of Philadelphia.

Sweeping changes were made in the officials of the society. The unanimous election of Mrs. Irene Anewalt, of Allentown, Pa., as president was received with enthusiasm. Mrs. Anewalt has been treasurer of the general society for fifteen years. The retiring president, Mrs. B. B. Krammes, of Tiffin, Ohio, having closed a period of two trienniums of unprecedented development in the work of the organization, was elected first vice president. Other officers are: second vice president, Mrs. I. W. Hendricks; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Jory; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. W. Leich; treasurer,

Among items of new work voted was $21,000 to complete the Elizabeth Conrad Zartman thank offering dormitory at Catawba College, Salisbury, North Carolina, and $56,000 to build a dormitory for the Indian girls at the Neillsville, Wisconsin, Indian school.

Mrs. C. C. Bost, of Hickory, N. C., gave a full report as secretary of temperance.

Among the delegates from North Carolina were Mrs. Lee A. Peeler and Mrs. Shuford Peeler, of Salisbury.

Club Pool Rooms Are Closed in Salisbury.

Salisbury, June 1.—Midnight Monday night marked the ending of pool club rooms in Salisbury, the ordinance passed by the board of aldermen on final reading at a recent meeting becoming effective with the advent of the first day of June.

The places closed are the club pool rooms which have been operated several years under charters issued by the secretary of state.

The closing of the pool rooms does not apply to those in established social clubs, such as the Old Hickory, the Pythian and the Elks, where members play on membership cards and where no fee is charged.

The pool club rooms came into being here shortly after the public pool rooms were closed several years ago. The closing of these places does away entirely with the public or semi-public pool rooms in the city.

Babe Herrman, who is about the best hitter on the Brooklyn team at the present time, has a baseball record that is unique in one respect. Since making his professional debut with the Edmonton club of the Western Canada League only five years ago young Herrman has displayed his wares in every minor league, except two, and in both of the major leagues.

JOBIE HAHN CHOSEN TO MANAGE KANNAPOLIS TEAM

Star of The Lenoir-Rhyne Team Signed to Give Kannapolis Another Fast Baseball Outfit.

Kannapolis must have its baseball. After several weeks of uncertainty the fans have won out and announcement is made of the signing of Jobie Hahn as manager of the 1926 team.

Hahn has been a star with the Lenoir-Rhyne team and is recognized as one of the outstanding college baseball men in the State. Judging by the looks of things now, he will have a team superior even to the one that swept most opposition before it last summer.

Announcement was made several days ago that the team is looking for good talent, and that anyone wanting to place on one of the fastest amateur teams in the state must get a tryout by getting in touch with the manager. The big worry right now is a catcher, and a couple of good hurlers.

The best prospect in view is Key Joyner, star of the fast Wake Forest college nine. Joyner has had a great record at Wake Forest both as a freshman and on the varsity nine. He has been almost unanimous choice of college coaches for the mythical All-State team both years.

As soon as players are signed and uniforms secured the team will start its schedule, probably giving the Fort Mill the first game.

Honor Roll Corbin Street School.

First grade—Edna Harrison, Decie Ledbetter, Margaret Dagoner, A. R. Blackwelder, Jr., Billy Morrison, Eugene Correll, Jesse Moore.

Second grade—Alice Cress, Miriam Long, Hugh Womack, Joe Green, Jr., Arthur Goodman.

Third grade—H. M. Penninger, Franklin Laughlin, Wade H. Spears, Jane Ivey.

Fourth grade—Lillian Miller, Roy Crooks, Jr.

Fifth grade—Margaret King, Smith Barrier, Billy Scott, Adelaide Blunne, Eugenia Brumley.

Evolution Row in Kentucky.

Paducah, Ky., June 1.—Kentucky is going to have its own little evolution row.

Two teachers in the Tillighuan high school here are demanding a trial to defend themselves from charges of having taught "theories of evolution" to pupils in the school.

The teachers are Miss Esther Smith, biology instructor, and Mrs. Alime Bachmann, head of the English department.

The teachers' allegations are that they are not respected by the Paducah board of education on complaints of parents that they had taught the evolution theory.

CHAUTAUQUA DRIVE FOR FUNDS WAS BIG SUCCESS

More Than $1,250 Guarantee Was Secured by Sale of Season Tickets.

Concord again has responded liberally for the Chautauqua.

It is announced that the guarantee of $1,250 was subscribed through the sale of season tickets and financially the Chautauqua season was a success.

Members of the Woman's Club conducted the ticket sale for the most part and while the total sought had not been reached Monday morning the drive was successfully concluded that day.

Practically every one who has attended the various entertainments offered during the week have gained admittance through season tickets, the gate receipts being small so far. Persons in all walks of life purchased tickets this year, the number being the largest perhaps, in history.

The programs being offered have proved interesting and entertaining to large audiences.

Revival at the Methodist Protestant Church.

"A Great Confidence" was the subject from which Dr. Williams spoke to his hearers last night. He took as a text I Sam. 17:37—"David said moreover, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine."

Dr. Williams said in part:

The greatest thing that David had and the greatest thing we can possess is a great, unshakable confidence in God. If we do not have this great confidence we can accomplish nothing that we undertake. If David had not confided wholly in God he could not have won the great victory which he did.

We are not speaking of self-confidence, but confidence in the Supreme God. We should first have confidence in God; then confidence in the thing we represent. Even though we have confidence in the great cause we represent, we cannot have too much confidence in God.

One thing that confidence did for David and will do for us is that it made him natural, not unnatural. God is going to use along our natural lines. He will not call us to do anything for Him that will make us unnatural.

The bases of a Great Confidence like David had are: First, He was true to his trust. David said "The God who has helped me before will help me now." The speaker said that though men will change, God is always the same. Second, which is the fundamental element, you came to me with your sword; I came to you in the name of the Lord. In other words, David knew that he was fighting for the right. In any task, great or small, the wrong will always be defeated, and the right will always gain the victory. David won the victory over Goliath because he stood for the right.

In conclusion, the speaker asked: Do we need a Great Confidence? Yes, the giants of sin are on every hand today trying to defeat us. We need the Great Confidence of David to be brave enough to face these and win the great victory of right.

At the close of the services several young people gave their lives to God. Song service begins each evening at seven-thirty. The public is cordially invited to these services.

REPORTER.

Fire Department Quarters Enlarged.

The quarters of the Concord fire department in the city hall annex have been enlarged during the past week by making a large room out of part of the building formerly used for storage purposes.

A door was cut through the wall connecting the room which houses the trucks and the storage room, and this new room is now used to house the work bench and hose racks of the department.

The new arrangement gives the firemen more space in the first floor room where are kept the trucks.
