LOCAL MENTION

Cold weather caused the cancellation of the junior and ladies' swimming classes that were to be held in the "Y" pool this morning.

Miss Margaret Ford, county tuberculosis nurse, left yesterday for the State Sanatorium, in charge of several patients who will be given an X-ray examination.

Through special arrangements with the steamship company the Concord "Y" tours to Europe, under the direction of H. W. Blanks, has secured room for two more people.

Marriage licenses were issued here Friday to the following couples, both of Kannapolis: Bonnie Yow and Miss Emma Petrea, and Reuben W. Harrington and Miss Jennie Brookshire.

The Loyal Order of Moose will have an important meeting in the auditorium of the Concord High School Monday night, Supreme Officer E. A. Mifka, of Mooseheart, Illinois, will speak.

The county board of education is meeting this afternoon to consider matters pertaining to the reorganization of the schools made necessary by erection of larger central high schools in the county.

The Redpath Chautauqua which closed a five-day engagement here Friday night, left this morning at 5 o'clock for Tennessee. Later the troupe will move to Indiana and then to Canada. The season will close about the middle of August.

A wire from Henry Scott, trainer of the race horses in the stables of J. F. Cannon, stated that he had arrived safely at Batavia, N. Y., and that the horses were in good shape. Excellent time was made on the trip by virtue of catching the Crescent Limited at Danville, Va.

Fourteen defendants tried in recorder's court Friday paid $280.55 in costs and fines. It was reported this morning. In addition several other defendants were given until this afternoon to raise their fines. A number of cases scheduled for trial were continued.

Friday evening at the Methodist Protestant Church a large and attentive congregation heard Rev. J. D. Williams discuss the words of the Psalmist "I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies." Mr. Williams will preach again this evening at 7:30 and tomorrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Two strong amateur baseball teams will clash this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when Manager Basinger's charges meet the fast nine representing Belmont at the Gibson Mill park. Both teams have strengthened considerably during the past week and a great is in store for the fans who brave the wintry weather.

D. A. McLaurin has sold two tracts of land in No. 4 township to E. L. Lewis, each for $150, according to deeds filed here Friday. Another records the sale of land in No. 4 township by B. L. Umberger and C. P. Lippard to Mrs. Minnie Lefler and another records the sale of land in Ward 1 by R. G. Helms by J. C. P. McDonald for $5,000.

Wells in the county are already going dry, according to reports received here. Several farmers have found it necessary to dig from 20 to 30 feet deeper in their wells to get water, it is said, while others are faced now with the task of hauling water as they had to do last year. The situation is expected to become more serious unless there is plenty of rain soon.

The Chamber of Commerce is making overtures to have Concord selected as the site for the annual mid-winter meeting of the North Carolina Theatre Owners' Association to be held in January. A number of business and civic organizations in town are co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce in extending invitations. The town in which they will hold their mid-winter meeting will be selected by the theatre owners when they meet at Wrightsville on June 13th.

Death of Robt. L. Keesler. A message was received in the city early this afternoon announcing the death of Prof. Robert L. Keesler, which occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. T. P. Johnson, at Salisbury, this morning after an illness of about three months.

Mr. Keesler was a brother of Mrs. John M. Young, of Concord, who was at his bedside when the end came. Mr. Keesler was reared in Concord, but had been a resident of Charlotte for many years.

The funeral service will be held at Salisbury tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and the interment will be made there.

Lack of Clothes Kept Man in Jail. (By International News Service) West Palm Beach, Fla., June 5.—After serving a long sentence in the city jail, N. McPherson, white, was again a free man. The last ten days of his sentence were suspended.

Yet he lingered on, and wouldn't— or couldn't leave the drab prison walls behind him.

For when he was given his freedom it was found that the prisoner could not leave jail until the following day. His clothes were in the wash.
