Georgette Fashions the Summer Wrap

By Marie Belmont

Double layers of georgette crepe are lined with pale pink georgette and the effect is that of a Summer cloud just about twilight time. Shadows are deepened by the addition of soft grey fox fur used in a band at the throat, and again in a ruffling band at the lower edge of the "trouser" flanges. To form the new slender silhouette were slenderness is desired, three rows of double shirring are used.

A bow of silver ribbon ties the wrap closed at the neckline and falls into pretty, gleaming streamers at the front.

Y. P. C. U. Has Picnic.
Members of the Y. P. C. U. of the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church enjoyed an outing Thursday evening at Rocky River Church.

Games and contests were played for some time after which refreshments were served. The occasion proved one of interest to those present.

Leave for California.
Miss Sudella Frick and Mrs. John A. Patterson, of Concord, and Miss Julia Willett, of Kannapolis, will leave tonight on a trip to California. They were winners in the recent campaign conducted here and in Kannapolis by a number of merchants.

In the party also will be Mr. and Mrs. A. H. White, of the Rocky Ridge community.

Mrs. Burns' Mother Worse.
Mrs. W. L. Burns was called to Scotland Neck Thursday morning on account of the condition of her mother being worse. Mrs. Burns was joined in Raleigh by Mr. Burns, who was there on business.

A message this morning stated that "Mrs. Tilley is critically ill. Little hope is held for any material improvement."

Rocky River Missionary Society to Meet.
The Young People's Missionary Society of Rocky River Church will meet Saturday, June 19th, at 8:30 p. m., at the manse.

All members are urged to attend, as the annual election of officers will take place. The young people who represented the society at the Young People's Conference at Davidson, will make their report at this time.

Last year the Columbia River produces the greatest catch of salmon on record.

QUAY-HARRIS

Pretty and Simple Wedding in the Harrisburg Presbyterian Church.

The Presbyterian Church at Harrisburg was the scene of a pretty and simple wedding Tuesday, June 15th, at 7:30 o'clock when Miss Margaret Ada Harris was wedded to Henry Coram Quay, Rev. T. H. Spence, pastor of the church, officiating, using the ring ceremony. The vows were spoken before a background of massive cedars and a trellis with climbing ivy. On either side tall floor baskets held larkspur and white candlesticks held lighted tapers.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Mattie Blume, of Concord, who played prior to the entry to the wedding party "A Venetian Love Song" and Schubert's "Serenade." "To a Wild Rose" was rendered. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was used as a processional and at the conclusion Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was lovely in an afternoon dress of blonde georgette trimmed lace. She wore a rose colored hat and carried an arm bouquet of Premier roses and lilies of the valley and was given in marriage by her father, William F. Harris. She was attended by her two sisters, Miss Mary Harris, of Charlotte, as maid of honor, and Mrs. M. E. Woody, of Concord, as dame of honor. They wore dresses of rose and poudre blue georgette with hats to match and carried arm bouquets of Premier and butterfly roses with ferns. The flower girls were Misses Sarah Harris and Dorothy Alexander, the former a niece of the bride, and the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Alexander, of Sharon. Master William Lewis Woody, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Woody, was ring bearer and carried the ring in a rose. F. P. Quay, brother of the groom was his best man, and Dr. N. N. Lubchenko and F. L. Quay were ushers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Harris, of Harrisburg. She was graduated from Mount Amona Seminary, Mt. Pleasant, in 1924, and since that time has been a teacher in the Cabarrus county schools. Several parties and showers have recently been given in her honor. The groom is the youngest son of the late L. H. Quay and Mrs. Cora Query Quay. After a wedding trip in the mountains of western North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Quay will be at home at Harrisburg, where they will begin housekeeping in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Corl Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks Corl entertained a large number of young people Wednesday evening, June 16, at their home on Bell Avenue, for their attractive house guest, Miss Valera Gregory, of Jefferson, South Carolina.

The young people entertained themselves with music, dancing, cards, and progressive conversation.

As the guests assembled, each was given a number card, later the numbers were drawn from a hat and the two guests holding the lucky numbers were presented with a delicious box of Norris' chocolates and a carton of cigarettes. The guest of honor was also presented with a box of Norris' chocolates.

The living room, dining room and hall were thrown open for the occasion, together with the porch and lawn. Cut flowers of various colors were used in simplicity about the house in baskets and jars.

Throughout the evening delicious fruit punch was served on the lawn by Misses Walena Crooks and Willard Goodman. Then Mrs. Corl, assisted by Miss Nash, served an ice course with wafers.

Those attending were Luther Barnhardt, Ray Cline, Charlie Griffin, Paul Barnhardt, Bill Kestler, Sam Weddington, Olin Shinn, "Spec" Simpson, George Praetner, Mr. and Mrs. "Pete" Miller, Misses Martha Bost, Marie Barnhardt, Lee Goodman, Dorothy Norman, Elizabeth Hahn, Misses Nash, Widenhouse and Leller, of the city hospital. The out of town guests were A. M. Fairley, Jr., of Charlotte, and Misses Edith Moose and Virginia Robinson, of Mt. Pleasant. XX.

LEGION MEETING

Ninth District Legionnaires Move Toward Added Legislative Power.

Concentrating activities on plans for increased membership, members of the Hornet's Nest post of the American Legion and its auxiliary, in joint meeting here yesterday, moved toward strengthened legislation for ex-service men.

Gastonia was named as the seat of the 1927 meeting of the ninth district. "Legislation such as the Reed-Johnson bill might as well be laid aside if we are not going to get behind it and without a large membership we cannot accomplish much for our ex-service men," Harry Blasing, grand chef de gare of the "Forty and Eight" declared.

Mrs. Harry Vass, of Winston-Salem, also urged a larger membership for the auxiliary.

Miss Annie Lee, of Monroe, state president of the auxiliary awarded the membership cup temporarily to Hickory for the greatest percentage of increase, while the Charlotte auxiliary won the cup temporarily for the most new members.

These cups will be awarded permanently at the state convention in Hickory August 23-24.

Reporting the sale of more than 100,000 poppies during the recent poppy sale, Miss Lee declared that it had been the most successful sale ever put over in the state and meant thousands of dollars for rehabilitation and welfare work.

Among reports given was that of Miss Minnie Gwaltney, of Hickory, state chairman of rehabilitation, who told of work among the sick and disabled veterans at Oteen.

Miss Gwaltney said that requests were made at Oteen last month for bedroom slippers, victrolas, mended shirts, socks, pajamas, magazines, records, shoes, toilet articles, cigarettes, stamps and other articles.

She helped veterans with their compensation claims, looked after wives, children and relatives and did other services during the month.

Addresses of welcome were made by Mrs. B. C. Springs and Commandant Robin Kirby. The meeting was presided over by Paul Yonts, state commander, and Mrs. R. J. Miller, ninth district chairman. After the joint meeting, special meetings were held separately.

Miss Dorothy Donnelly entertained with a violin solo and short talks were made by Miss Lee and Mrs. John Love, Lexington, state vice president. Paul Rousseau spoke of the American legion trip to France in September, 1927. The meeting was opened by a prayer by Rev. Herbert Spaugh.

The auxiliary delegates present were: Mrs. W. Y. Albrecht, president, Gastonia unit; Mrs. C. C. Gamble, president, Hickory unit; Mrs. C. E. Neisler, president, Kings Mountain unit; Miss Floy Trollinger, president, Newton unit; Miss Melya Gullick, president, Belmont unit; Mrs. E. C. Springs, president, Charlotte unit.

Visitors present were Miss Maude Brown, Miss Julia McConnell, Mrs. C. D. McDonald, and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill, of Concord; Mrs. Gilliam Craig, Monroe, and Mrs. C. L. Gresham, Mooresville.

Invitation to Jefferson Memorial Service.

A number of Concord persons have received invitations reading as follows:

The Sesqui-Centennial of American Independence and the Thomas Jefferson Centennial Association of the United States and the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation requests the honor of your presence at the National Exercises to be held at Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson at Charlottesville, Virginia on July fourth and fifth, 1926 in celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence and in commemoration of the Centennial of the death of its author

Shower For Bride.

Miss Alberta Shinn entertained on Thursday evening at her home on South Union street, honoring Mrs. Joe B. Kesler, a recent bride. Mrs. Kesler was formerly Miss Pearl Barnhardt.

Summer flowers were attractively arranged throughout the home, forming a bright background for the guests.

An interesting contest was held, in which Miss Elizabeth Hahn won the prize, a dainty compact.

The hostess served delightful refreshments to her guests.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Kesler was showered by her friends with towels—big towels, little towels, towels of all kinds, which were most acceptable to the bride, who has recently started housekeeping.

The guests were: Mrs. Kesler and Misses Marie Barnhardt, Virginia Lechman, Grace Winesoff, Ola Winesoff, Elizabeth Hahn, Mamie Sappenfield, Anita Umberger and Lula Umberger.

When a small bank in southern Texas failed recently some of its check books were found in a rubbish heap by prisoners working in a convict camp nearby. With the worthless checks the convicts succeeded in obtaining much goods from mail order concerns before the fraud was discovered.

The number of murders committed every year in England and Wales has remained almost constant at 150 for the last fifty years, and in 1923 and 1924 the figure was exactly correct.

Paris Style Hints

BY ALICE LANGELIER, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

Paris, June 18.—A real "runner" of the summer style is the two-tone skirt with jacket of one color and skirt of another.

Often plain and checked or mixed fabrics are combined. Fine English or French wooleens in plain tones make smart coats for checked or striped skirts. Dark Blue is always popular but the pastel shades are perhaps more so this spring. A charming mauve tailleur comes with a plain coat and a "pea" pattern for the skirt.

Jerome, who really started the tailleur on its successful career, is showing them cut on slenderizing, graceful lines, a far cry from the severe style that used to make many women shy from this severe garment. Every sort of tweed, covert, Kasha and suiting has been made as soft and workable as suede or elk.

A very charming example comes in navy-corded rep lined in grey. The coat is cut away very slightly and the skirt is one of the fashionable wrap-around models. Another comes in a tiny black and white check bound with black silk braid, which is very chic this summer.

Patou is making a number of tillers in taffeta which has been made as soft and pliable as any other material these days. Nearly all are in black with a blouse or gilet of some soft white stuff, crepe georgette or fine tulle. A smart tailleur made in sand color, is worn with a large red fox collar and a green ribbed material is trimmed with black marten.

The recent trick of the Rochester team in overcoming a 10 to 0 score in the fifth inning of a game with Toronto and winning the contest by 11 to 10 recalls the spectacular rally staged by the Philadelphia Athletics a year ago, when they overcame an eleven-run lead in the eighth inning and scored thirteen runs to win from the Cleveland Indians 17 to 15.
