Bitten by Poisonous Spider. Stanly News-Herald. F. C. Ehrd, of Oakboro, suffered the misfortune to be bitten by a poisonous spider Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock which caused him excruciating pain and suffering until far into the night. He is not fully recovered yet, but all imminent danger has passed. Just how the spider came to bite Mr. Ehrd is not known, but immediately after the bite he was overcome with sickness. His physician was summoned, but nothing seemed to ease or relieve him until late in the night. The kind of spider was not learned, but evidently was of a very poisonous species.

Young Man to Teach Latin at China Grove. Stanly News-Herald. Henry L. Smuggs, who graduated from Wake Forest College this year, where he made for himself a rather enviable reputation in all parts of his studies, especially that of Latin, has accepted a position with the China Grove Farm Life School. Mr. Smuggs will be Latin professor in that school, and judging from the reputation he made at Wake Forest, the China Grove school is to be congratulated on securing his services.
