sponsor a mammoth celebration at Lake Lure Inn, July 30, in honor of the completion of the paving of Highway No. 20, often called, "The Main Street of North Carolina."

The date was suggested by Frank Page, of Raleigh, chairman of the State Highway Commission. Mr. Page and other members of the commission have promised to attend. Senator F. M. Simmons, Governor McLean and other notables of the State will be invited, and the mayors of all cities and towns between Charlotte and Asheville and county officials of the same section will be asked to attend. It will be a gala event. Paying of Highway No. 20 into Rutherfordton is almost completed. Only about one mile remains to be paved. If the weather is good the paved, if the weather is good the paved, if the weather is good the paved if the weather is good the paved. If the weather is good the paved in the main highway is open from Green Hill to Chinney Rock now. The short detour out of Rutherfordton is only about four miles longer than the main highway and is in excellent condition.

of sanitation and disease prevention of sanitation and disease prevention which has about been solved.

It is the document when he found he could not return, as he had expected, but attorneys for the Southern Railway protested that they would have no chance to cross examine.

The examiner later, however, admitted as part of the evidence, testimony taken by the Interstate Commerce Committee, when the Georgia & Florida last December was permitted to build a connecting link from Augusta, Ga., to Greenwood, S. C.

Several witnesses discussed the "great need" they said was felt at Concord and in Cabarrus County for other railway facilities than those now available at Concord.

State Senator F. J. Haywood, of Concord, was among those appearing in favor of the extension of the line to Concord.

The proposed routing of the line at present does not touch Concord, which is served only by the Southern Railway. The Southern, it was said, because of topographical difficulties,
