The bride wore a royal blue suit dress with black accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. Attorney and Mrs. McDuffie will be at home in Wilkesboro.

Rev. Luke Spoke To Rotary Club

There Will Be No Meeting Of The Club Tonight Due To Thanksgiving

Rev. J. W. Luke, pastor of the Glendale Springs Presbyterian church, spoke to the Jeffersons Rotary club last Thursday night on Rotary fellowship and what it means to a community.

Mr. Luke pointed out to the Rotarians what fellowship meant to the world, the community and to the individual. He stated that each individual was dependent upon another person, thus there should be closer fellowship in the world today than we have. In illustrating the meaning of fellowship, he used illustrations from the Bible.

L. B. Tyson, who had charge of the program, introduced Mr. Luke to the group. Visitors of the club at the meeting were Archie Holmes, Sterling, Calif.; Henry Furchas, Winston-Salem; Lem Hafer, Newton and Bruce Houck, West Jefferson.

Dean McMillan, Rotary president, stated that the club would not meet this week due to Thanksgiving Day.

THANKSGIVING IS QUIETLY OBSERVED

shortened this year. The season opened today and will close December 6.

The game protector also pointed out that the open season on grouse is the same as originally announced but that there is no open season on ring-neck pheasants.

Hunters are again warned that they must have hunting licenses.

BENEFIT PROGRAM AT COURTHOUSE SUNDAY

It was announced this week that a benefit program would be held at the courthouse in Jefferson, Sunday afternoon, to raise funds for the new colored school at Bristol.

Oddie J. Cox, who is in charge of the arrangements, has secured an outstanding colored quartet from Bristol, Va., to play. There

Farm costs in 1949 probably will be about as high as they are this year.
