This coupon, when neatly clipped out, name and address properly filled in and brought or sent to the Contest Department of the Courier, will count as 100 votes in The Courier Popularity Contest. The first one of these coupons received for any young lady will place her in nomination and will count for 1000 votes. This coupon not good after Dec. 27 1911.

How Votes will be Issued.

There will be two methods of voting. Each issue of The Courier will contain a ballot which, when properly filled out with the name of any regularly nominated candidate will entitle the candidate to the accompanying number of votes. Votes will be issued on paid subscriptions to The Courier in proportion to the length of time such subscriptions are paid, in accordance with the regular vote schedule appearing in this prospectus. Candidates are not restricted to their own territory to secure votes. Votes may be canvassed anywhere in the contest territory or out of it. The coupons are good for 100 votes each, and the candidates may secure as many as possible.

Surl News.

Mr. John Chandler and Miss Minnie May Chandler were married on the 3rd Sunday in Nov.

Mr. Charlie Moore and Miss Kate Lunsford were married on the 3rd Sunday in Nov.

Mess. Sergeant & Clayton of Roxboro certainly has a pretty stock of Santa Claus stock.

Mr. J. Henry Woods of Roxboro says he takes delight in reading Surl news. Mr. Woods is solid wherever you find him.

Mr. John Garrett says it is a pleasure for him to get his farmer friends good prices for their tobacco when they sell with him at the Winstead. J. D. Perkins, who works for the same house, says his friends do not suffer when they sell with him.

Miss Annie Moore was on the sick list some time ago.

Mr. S. E. Peed, who runs a saw and corn mill, makes good time in sawing logs and he can certainly grind a load of corn as quick as any miller in this part of the country.

Mr. Lex Chandler and Miss Verna Lunsford were married on the 4th Sunday in Nov.

Miss Lucy Denny died on the 30th of Nov. Her death resulted from a scald she received back in the summer. Her folks have the sympathy of their friends.

Mr. Sim Vaughn enjoys having a sociable chat with his friends.

Mr. S. S. Frazier has a case of the grip, but is better at this writing.

Mr. Charlie Davis says Surl news suits him all right.

Mess. Bunnie and Jess Lunsford killed 24 birds and 4 rabbits in one day.

Farmers have been very busy in the Surl section grubbing and plowing for the past two weeks.

Next thing on docket, are you ready for Christmas?

Prices on tobacco at the different warehouses in Roxboro today were good.

Mess. Arch Chandler and Bill Frazier loaded on a big load of fodder, the fodder belonged to Arch, they were driving Mr. Haywood Blalock's team of mules, and as they went down the hill near Deep Creek one of the standards broke which caused right much of the fodder to slip off in front. Arch fell down between the mules and Bill fell off on the side and said it knocked him senseless for a minute or two.

This frightened the mules and they ran away. One of the traces wrapped around Arch's ankle, and the mules ran something like 200 yards. It was a cold day and he was drug through Deep Creek. Bill heard him hollering and he went to him and got him loose. It rained very much the day before and they said he was powerful muddy. While he is toting one arm in a sling he is able to go about. He ran a narrow risk and it is doubtful whether he will ever have another such accident.

Thos. Frazier.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Hughes.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Hughes was born January 9th 1836, and quietly fell asleep at her home—near Trilby—about the hour of midnight November 11th 1911. Just two weeks and two days after the death of her husband, Mr. Jno. S. Hughes, a well known and highly esteemed citizen of this community.

Mrs. Hughes' maiden name was Bowen. She was happily married to Mr. James K. Yancey in 1855. From this union there were three children, Mrs. J. M. Slaughter, Trilby, N. C., Mrs. J. M. Pass, Roxboro, N. C., and Mr. E. D. Yancey, of Roxboro.

She joined Aaron's Creek Baptist Church in early life where she remained a consistent member until moving to the above named neighborhood, about twenty years ago, where she united herself heartily with Mill Creek Baptist Church. From this time until death she remained an ardent lover of her Church and Missionsary Society, ever ready to do what she could for the means and prosperity of both.

She was married to Mr. Jno. S. Hughes in 1877. From this marriage there were four children.

Mrs. H. H. Masten, of Roxboro, Mrs. E. B. Foushee, of Woodleaf, N. C., Mr. J. T. Hughes, Allensville, and Mr. W. H. Hughes, of Virginia.

Happy in her family and church life, Mrs. Hughes was a mother in her home and the Israel of God. The fine specimens of manhood and womanhood of her sons and daughters speak louder for the mother and Christians than any words spoken or written, could ever do. Yes, louder than any shaft of marble or bronze that might be raised to her memory.

May our Heavenly Father comfort the sorrowing hearts of the family, the relatives and many friends. May each of us emulate her gentle, quiet virtues, and, like her, be faithful in life and triumphant in death.

Mrs. T. H. Street.

CABBAGE PLANTS
Weather-hardened and gathered, as orders come in, from the open field in middle North Carolina where temperature gets down to 12 or 15 degrees and freezes tops, roots and all. In rich or well-fertilized soil you can get white-head cabbage from our plants by the last of April, if set out in early or mid-winter. Set them deeply and let them take all the winter weather as it comes, without protection, and you need have no fears about results. Get your neighbors to join in with you and make an order. Full count guaranteed. Why order tender plants from further South when you can get our plants, nearer home, already weather-hardened to stand severe winter weather in your climate? Price $1.00 per thousand, 5,000 for $4.50. Write for prices on larger lots. Remit by check or money order.

In 1912, You Will Elect a President
THIS election is of supreme importance to you. The whole country is divided. On one side the progressive insurgents, on the other the conservative standpaters. Both parties will promise many things. You will have to judge their claims and their fitness to carry them out. In these stirring times
THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF REVIEWS
is a necessity to the busy man or woman who values being up to date. In a hundred ways its editorials, its character sketches and its timely articles will help you make your choice. It gives you the best, clearest and most accurate, non-partisan and unprejudiced news that money can buy. It is the great monthly newspaper on which intelligent people everywhere rely for their news, and you get this news almost as promptly as it is given in the great daily newspapers of the country.
Senator LaFollete says: "The most precise, accurate, and impartial review of the age. I long have utilized the magazine in its current issues as a valuable means of information."
