No. 44

W. W. KITCHIN FOR UNITED STATES SENATE.

Major Yancey, One of Person's Oldest and Most Prominent Citizens writes About Him.

Editors Courier:—

Seldom have I ever had anything to say through the newspapers, but at this time when the democrats of the State are to cast their vote to choose a U. S. Senator and our beloved and honored countyman Hon. W. W. Kitchin is in the contest, and from all indications will win, I want to see every democratic voter in Person County stand squarely by him on election day.

It has been said that some influences have been at work for his opponents in the race and that they will get some few votes in Person. With a clean record both in public and private life which every citizen of the County knows he has, and with his great record as a genuine and straight Democrat standing squarely on very democratic platform and fighting fearlessly and honestly for democracy since he was a mere boy, I cannot see why any democrat in Person County can fail to support him, or vote against him.

He has always been a plain man whose heart is in sympathy with the masses of the people and their best interests, and men who believe in democratic principles cannot say that Kitchin ever cast a vote against their interest.

Fellow democrats, let's go to the polls and give our countyman a solid vote. Person County would be honored by having a United States Senator and it is an honor that any County in the State would be very proud of.

J. T. YANCEY.

Mr. Bradsher Will Move to Oxford.

We learn that Mr. J. S. Bradsher, one of our most substantial and best citizens has decided to move to Oxford, where he is interested in the organization of a new bank. He was for long years connected with the Peoples Bank here, and doubtless no man was more responsible for the great success of this institution than Mr. Bradsher. Of course we regret to see him leave, but we commend him to the good people of Oxford, for they have secured a prize in inducing him to locate in their midst. As a bank man he is among the best.

PERSON UNANIMOUS FOR KITCHIN

To Person County Democrats:

The eyes of North Carolina are looking more intently upon the action of Person County next Tuesday than upon any other County in the State. It is looking to see whether a man of the type of W. W. Kitchin shall be heartily endorsed. The whole State recognizes the splendid character of Governor Kitchin. People of Person County have known him intimately since he came to manhood and they know that his private life is without a blemish. They know better than all the world his integrity, his fairness in dealing, and his frankness of manner, and they have long since learned to love him as well as admire him for his splendid traits.

Politically, Governor Kitchin has reflected as great honor upon Person County as any man who ever lived in it and no Democrat in Person County can have grounds for complaining at any political action of his and, to me at least, it seems that he has always stood for fairness and justice to all the people, for the greatest good to the greatest number. Person County has produced more than one Congressman and many men prominent in statesmanship and business but none except him has ever risen to claim the office of Governor of the great State of North Carolina and in statesmanship he has been the peer of any.

Apart from political conviction there is every reason in the world why every Democrat in Person County should exert himself in every way to see that Mr. Kitchin is nominated for the United States Senate. It will reflect further honor upon the County and will show that a man of upright character, of great ability, is appreciated by his fellow countymen. If the Democrats of Person County believe in progressive Democracy if they believe in a lowering of the tariff to the basis merely for the revenue of government, if they do not believe in protection, they could certainly not go wrong in voting for Governor Kitchin. No man who knows him doubts the sincerity of his convictions as a progressive Democrat and must believe that he will exert himself to the utmost of his great ability to bring about a bettering of the conditions for the average man.

As to his chief opponent, Mr. Simmons, there has been cast about his standing as a Democrat so much doubt that the Democrats who believe in the carrying out of the principles of the Democratic platform ought to hesitate to vote for him. Mr. Simmons insists that he is a tariff reformer but he has cast more votes for tariff higher than the one recommended by the majority of Democratic Congressman and more often than any other Senator except Senator Bailey of Texas, who has fallen into utter disrepute among the Democrats of the nation. Mr. Simmons was on the platform committee at the Democratic convention at Denver and helped write the plank for free lumber; but a few months later he voted for the tariff at 11 per cent on lumber. Further doubt is cast about his disinterested position as to lumber by his strange action in respect to Senator Lorimer, a convicted tool of the Lumber Trust, whom he first declared to be the peer of any United States Senator and voted to retain as a Senator, and then later voted to exclude him from the Senate as having corruptedly and by bribery bought his election. Mr. Simmons has been very hard put to it to prove in the face of many of his votes on lumber and other things that he believes at heart in tariff reform; and so great and splendid a Democrat as Mr. Bryan wonders why the Democrats of North Carolina have tolerated him so long. Nobody blames the men who believe in high tariff for voting for Mr. Simmons and I know many such who don't deny that is why they are for him. They ought to do so; but most people, like Mr. Bryan, wonder how progressive Democrats who believe in destroying the evils of tariff can, as between Mr. Kitchin and Mr. Simmons vote for Mr. Simmons.

As to Judge Clark, nobody doubts that Judge Clark has gone very far in accepting every modern theory of government and that he believes thoroughly in low tariff; but Judge Clark has not the remotest chance of being nominated for the Senate and that a vote cast for him, good man as he is, is a vote thrown away or it may be regarded as a half vote against Mr. Kitchin. Under these circumstances even those who believe in all the far reaching and often excessive reforms advocated by Judge Clark should hesitate before casting a vote that will not count.

When I remember what Governor Kitchin has done for my native County, how as high official he has always delighted to put honors upon men of Person County as when he appointed Mr. J. A. Long to the important and honorable position as Commissioner to build the great new state building at Raleigh and when he appointed Mr. H. A. Foushee, a son of one of Person County's oldest citizens, to hold the office of Judge in the Ninth Judicial District of North Carolina; and when I remember what a superb governor of our whole state he has made and what good name he has added to our County, and most of all when I remember what an example of uprightness and excellence of character and of industry and diligence it seems to me that no Democrat admiring as all do purity of character and force and intelligence, who believes in the great principles which are advocated by our party in this election, particularly every Democrat who lives in Person County, could think of doing anything else than voting for W. W. Kitchin for Senator. All the Person County Democrats who live in Durham County are looking with earnest expectation to see all the Democrats of Person stand with them in casting their votes for this great and good man for the high position to which he aspires and of which he is so worthy.

W. L. FOUSHEE.
