No. 48

ISSIDOR RAYNER DIED MONDAY.

Was United States Senator from Maryland. Will Probably Be Succeeded by a Republican.

Senator Rayner died at his Washington residence at 1320 Eighteenth street Northwest at 6.23 o'clock Monday morning.

Death was due to septic poisoning which followed an illness from neuritis of two years duration.

He had a long public career. He served one term in the legislature of Maryland.

After one term in the state senate he was elected to congress. In all he served Maryland three terms in the house of representatives.

In 1899 he was elected attorney general of Maryland.

His elevation to the United States senate came in 1904 and he was re-elected in 1910 to serve until 1917.

His successor probably will be a republican. The appointment will be made by Governor Gold borough.

William T. Jackson, of Salisbury, the republican national committeeman for Maryland, is expected to receive the honor.

Senator Rayner's death changes the complexion of the senate from democratic control to a tie.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Funeral services for Senator Isidor Rayner will be held at the Rayner home here on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in Rock Creek cemetery, Rev. U. G. B. Pierce, chaplain of the senate and pastor of All Souls Unitarian church President Taft attends, and Rev. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, will conduct the services. Many public men will attend the funeral President Taft has indicated his intention of being present.

A Delightful Entertainment.

Mrs. R. J. Teague gave a beautiful reception last Friday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. James A. Long, Jr. The Teague home was beautiful with its many lovely carnations, roses and potted plants, and the electric lights added color and brightness to the decorations, and the handsome gowns of the ladies.

At the door little Misses Louise Thompson and Elizabeth Noell received the cards, while the guests were greeted by Mrs. W. F. Long and Mrs. E. E. Bradsher.

In the parlor in the receiving line were Mesdames R. J. Teague, J. A. Long Jr., Z. E. Gwyn and J. A. Long.

In the library Mesdames A. S. deVlaming and Mamie Merritt poured tea and Misses Sue Long, Evie Long and Maud Satterfield served sandwiches.

Mesdames A. M. Burns and A. R. Foushee directed the guests to the dining room where Misses Kate Long, Rosa Newell and Edna Bradsher served delightful cream, cake, mints and crystallized ginger.

Many ladies called during the afternoon, and every one was delighted with Mrs. Long, the guest of honor.

The Next Four Years.

The Denver News hits the nail on the head when it says: It can not be denied that the coming four years will largely decide the fate of the democratic party. An effective and efficient administration in behalf of the people will continue it in power—an administration marred by turmoil and unmarked by progress will doom it to disintegration and defeat.

In 1916 either the democratic party will sweep the country, or the fight will be between the aligned forces of reaction and radicalism. Never did partisanship rest so lightly upon the people—it is no longer a cast of voting for names and symbols, but for principles. It is up to President Wilson and the democratic party to make good, and we believe that they will.

Four Gangsters Found Guilty of Murder.

New York, Nov. 19.—"Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louie," "Dago Frank," and "Whitey Lewis," killed Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, at the instigation of Charles Becker, and must pay the penalty of death in the electric chair. The jury which has been hearing the evidence against the four gunmen, so decided today when it returned a verdict of murder in the first degree after but 20 minutes deliberation.

Former Magistrate Charles C. F. Wahle, counsel for the gunmen, announced that he would appeal from the verdict and as the case of Becker, months, may elapse before their ultimate fate is determined. Mean-while they will occupy cells near that of the former police lieutenant in the death house at Sing Sing.

THOSE DEAD IN WRECK.

Eight Persons Were Killed in the Seaboard Wreck.

The following are the names of those who were killed in the Seaboard Air Line wreck at Granite yesterday morning:

Charles W. Beckham, engineer Raleigh.

Will A. Faison, engineer, Raleigh.

Dick Gray, colored fireman for Mr. Beckham, Raleigh.

Jim Ruffin, colored fireman for Mr. Faison, Raleigh.

J. V. Preddy, express messenger, Boykins, Va., running dead-end, learning the road.

Henry King, express messenger, Vaughn.

J. R. Rountree, express messenger, Jacksonville.

Tom Bogan, colored Porter, Richmond.

Several others, including the two conductors, were injured.

Drawn by the Union Pacific type of the mightiest passenger engines, they charged each other a few yards this side the Virginia line, upon the high fill about half a mile below Granite. Each with a weight of 216,000 pounds, pulling a string of ten cars, bore down upon the grade and met where the train was heaviest. Railroad men estimate a million and a half pounds behind each engine when they came hurrying to the center of the fill. There is no piece of mechanism, however small, left on these beauties of iron and steel. The very numbers of which the machines are identified, have been effaced.

Dr. N. Rosenstein, at Roxboro Tuesday Dec. 2rd.

Don't fail to see Dr. Rosenstein about your eyes and glasses, he will make his regular monthly call to Roxboro, next Tuesday for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses. He designs each pair of glasses for each individual case. Call and inspect his new eye-glasses without incurring any obligation.

Moving.

Mr. J. R. Moss, who has been a resident of Roxboro for a number of years, has decided to move and will locate in Surry or Alleghany county, where he owns some valuable lands. While living here Mr. Moss has done some splendid work in his line, and leaves behind as a monument some splendid work. He has been a good citizen and we wish him well in his new home.

OUR ORPHAN HOMES.

The Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President, which has just been published to the people of this great country, calling upon us to stop our usual vocations long enough to consider from whence comes the unprecedented prosperity which we as a nation have been enjoying, comes with a voice of authority. Truly every heart can find genuine gratitude to the Great Giver of all good.

While your minds are directed to the consideration of the Source from whence these blessings come, and a feeling of thanksgiving is thereby engendered for the goodness of our Heavenly Father, we feel that this is the best time to bring to the attention of our readers the needs of the various orphan homes in our state, where the little ones who have lost their earthly protectors are being cared for and trained.

These children receive the great blessing of these homes through your generosity. They are dependent upon you. Their numbers are increasing, as are the advantages they receive, which necessitate larger contributions from the people. God has blessed our people and he expects us in turn to help bless our homeless little ones.

Nobly have the people of North Carolina measured up to their duty in this regard in the past, and we believe they will not be any less mindful of the needs of our orphan children this thanksgiving season than they have been in the past.

One Word.

It is reported that when Uncle Joe Cannon was informed of his defeat he he used just one word and that was "Damn." The people, having a warm personal affection for Uncle Joe, greeted the news of his defeat with one word, "Glory."—The Commoner.

We have men and boys overcoats and suits. Ladies Dress suits and Cloaks and a complete line of Shoes and Hats in fact we think our stock in better shape in every way than in many years. Come in and see for yourself. Yours truly, Reade Bros. Co.

BLANKETS.

Great big, downy, warm blankets in the prettiest plaid and plain patterns that you ever saw. This is a belated shipment of high grade blankets which were bought last February direct from the mill when they were much cheaper than they now are. They are strictly perfect, no imperfections. You haven't seen any blankets in a long time as good as these at the prices. They are great. The prices are only $5.00 and $6.00 per pair.

This is a fine opportunity to buy some extra good, extra large, extra nice and extra pretty strictly all wool blankets at a most reasonable price.
