To The Voters of Person County

I understand that a report is being circulated all over the County that if I am nominated and elected to the Senate I will have a law passed putting a bond issue in this county. I want to say on the beginning that this is absolutely false, I will do no such thing. I am not challenged as untrue when he started this false report, but if any candidate gives credence to or allows such report to go unchallenged as untrue when he hears it he does not deserve the support of the good honest people of the County, and will not get it. If any individual or set of men started such a report they do not deserve to be believed, and I do not believe the good honest citizens will be persuaded to follow such men. Misrepresentation of men and measures will never win at the polls with the good honest citizens of Person County. I believe in the rule of the people by their expressed will at the polls, and especially in measures involving taxation. I do not believe that a man in this County, who knows me, believes that I would put a bond issue on this county.

No, not even the ones who started this report. Not a one of them believe such a thing of me. Then what was it started for? Only one reason, hope for this to help in trying to defeat me for the nomination. If the people want the present road system changed and the roads put in better condition, they only have to say so and the plan. Any plan the people may adopt, I believe that the township should be the unit. This is Democratic.

Now why all this bond issue up-stir anyway? Who wants a bond issue? I have heard no great cry for a bond issue. Do you know that a State law now gives any township the right to vote bonds for good roads, road improvement, the amount of bond issue not to exceed fifty thousand dollars in any township. This can be done in any township in Person County by a certain number of qualified voters petitioning the County Commissioners to call an election for same. Now, you who have been getting red in the face misrepresenting me by telling the people that I would put a bond issue on the County, tell us where this cry for a bond issue comes from. Has any township by petition asked the Commissioners to call an election under this law? I have heard of none. Then why I ask again, all this great stir-up about bond issue? Here is the why: It was started with the hope of defeating me. I want to say to you, if there shall remain any, devoid of the passion and principle of right as to continue to misrepresent me, that your purpose will be defeated, I confidently believe, for I have an abiding faith in the good honest citizenship of Person County. I do not believe that enough good citizens in this County can be fooled or persuaded in voting against me by misrepresentation to defeat me in the primary on June 3rd.

I told the people of this County in the last election that I would not put a bond issue on the County. I kept that promise. I tell them that now, and no man in this County who knows me believes that I would. So if you who read this hear any one telling or trying to make people believe this about me, I hope you will say for me that they are wrong and doing me a great injustice. And no honest man will after being informed, continue such conduct.

Another report, so I am informed, has just been born (and like the other is growing very fast) in the scheming brain of the political workers against me. Here it is: That I am fighting Mr. C. A. Whitfield. Now this is "one of them things", absolutely false. Mr. Whitfield will tell you that I told him that I would maintain a neutral attitude as between candidates, and Mr. Hall will tell you that I told him the same. And I am maintaining this position.

I have thought of allowing these reports to pass unnoticed but many of my friends think it would be unjust to the people, and also unjust to myself, not to denounce both reports as unfounded and untrue. Now I leave the whole matter with the good people of this County who have so greatly honored me in the past, for which I am sincerely grateful, and if you think I am a suitable man, with some other good men, to look after the affairs and interest of this County in the General Assembly I will be under greater obligations to the good citizens of the County and will greatly appreciate the high honor.

Yours sincerely,
E. J. TUCKER.

Good Rains.

This section has been blessed the past few days with the finest rains imaginable. All who had tobacco plants, and it seems the most of the farmers did have almost enough, have about finished planting. We do not remember to have ever seen a finer May for setting out the plants and with such a good send off there should be a crop of good tobacco this season.

DAUGHTRIDGE TO CARRY STATE BY 24,000 CLAIM MANAGERS.

Raleigh, May 30.—Governor E. L. Daughtridge's campaign managers today claim every congressional district in North Carolina and 71 of the 100 counties which make up the exciting race for the Democratic nomination as governor.

The Claim by Districts.

"The last stage of this interesting contest finds the Daughtridge wave sweeping all before it, and fully confirming the expectations we announced two months ago, when it became apparent to observing people that the voters were fast coming to the support of the Edgecombe county man. We can now with good reason, and based on conservative reports of the actual conditions throughout the state make a definite forecast of the results on June 3rd. The final returns may differ slightly in a few instances but our figures will prove substantially correct. We ask those who are interested to preserve this forecast and compare it with the official returns.

"Governor Daughtridge will certainly carry seventy-one counties at least and will have a majority in the state of not less than 24,000. The counties will be distributed as follows:

"First district, 10 out of 11 counties. Majority in district 1500.
"Second district, 7 out of 8 counties. Majority in district 3500.
"Third district, 7 out of 9 counties. Majority in district 2000.
"Fourth district, 4 out of 6 counties. Majority in district 2500.
"Fifth district, 8 out of 11 counties. Majority in district 2000.
"Sixth district, 6 out of 7 counties. Majority in district 5000.
"Seventh district, 7 out of 13 counties. Majority in district 1200.
"Eighth district, 5 out of 9 counties. Majority in district 1100.
"Ninth district, 7 out of 10 counties. Majority in district 3000.
"Tenth district, 10 out of 13 counties. Majority in district 3000.

"Total number of counties: 71.
Majority in state: 24,800."
