TO THE VOTERS OF PERSON COUNTY:

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the nomination for the Legislature on the Democratic ticket. The people of this County have honored me with this high honor in the past. My record is before you and you know how well I served you.

I am a farmer and I think the farmers are entitled to a farmer representative this time as the representative for the past 8 years has come from Roxboro. Being a farmer depending on my living from my farm, it will be impossible for me to leave my work to call on you personally, hence I am depending on my friends to look after my interests in the primary.

Your friend,
W. A. WARREN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I beg to announce to the people of Person County that I am a candidate for the nomination of Sheriff, subject to the Democratic primaries. This is my native County and while I have been living in the adjoining County of Durham, I am back home, and to say, many of you know me personally and to those who do not know me, as almost any of your friends.

In asking for this nomination I feel that my experience of 12 years in this kind of work qualifies me to fill the office with satisfaction to you, and therefore I ask for your support.

Very respectfully,
W. L. MOORE.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

During the World War the women of Person County did noble work, each time they were called upon they did what was requested of them, why not show our appreciation of their loyal service by electing one of them to represent us in the Next General Assembly. We have in our midst one who has held many important positions in the state, and has filled each well, she is a native of the county, and we believe would poll more votes than any person we could nominate. We are confident that she would carry the county by a large majority, that she would add strength to the entire ticket, that she would serve with Honor both her self and county. Let us all work together to nominate and elect Miss Bessie Daniel, to be the first woman to represent Person County in the House of Representatives and the second in the state to hold a seat in the General Assembly.

Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clayton spent several days last week in Salisbury visiting Mrs. Clayton's sister, Mrs. Maynard. They made the trip in their auto.

EDMONDSON'S WAREHOUSE WILL BE OPEN IN THE FUTURE AS IT HAS BEEN IN THE PAST

Owing to the fact that most of the largest markets, namely, Winston-Salem, Reidsville, Durham, Rocky Mount, Wilson, Tappero, and many other of North Carolina, Danville, Chase City, Lynchburg, Drakes Branch and many of the smaller markets of Virginia will be open for the coming season, if would be useless to close all of the Warehouses of South Boston as it would only force those desiring to sell their tobacco to leave our County and sell in other Towns and Cities. Therefore we hereby announce that Edmondson's Warehouse will be rebuilt and completed in ample time to serve those desiring to sell their tobacco on the open market.

To close our books for the past season without thanking the patrons of the South Boston market and those who so liberally gave us their support, it would be to leave one of our largest debts unpaid. So with the above in our heart we thank you for your most liberal patronage in the past and will appreciate any patronage that is entrusted to our care in the future. All of the large buyers corporations and manufacturers will be represented on our Market in the future as they have been in the past.

Again thanking you, we are
Your friends,
EDMONDSON & POWELL CO.

WHOSE ARE THE FLOWERS AT OUR CEMETERY?

Some appreciation of the cheerful brightness, wonderful creation or spicy odors of flowers is innate in each of us. The feeling they stir in some is akin to reverence; plain admiration of the beautiful they call forth in others; to others they loan an impulse to more optimistic living. Unfortunately to a few, the flowering plant or shrub, only tempts to careless, thoughtless breaking off of the head or blossom.

In a few instances, this has happened to some of the flowers in our Cemetery Sunday-strollers who thus destroy the property and work of others give little thought to the importance of their wrong-doing. A very small number of these minor aggressions will tend to discourage would-be beautifiers of the place.

Whether undirected children or careless older folks, let us cultivate real respect for growing things—especially those nurtured in memory of our dead. Every plant on individual lots or elsewhere is ours to APPRECIATE and ENJOY but also OTHERS FOR THE SAME PURPOSE.

HATTIE E. BURCH,
Cemetery Commissioner.

PROF. ZIMMERMAN ADDRESSED THE FARMERS.

On last Saturday Prof. C. C. Zimmerman of Raleigh addressed the largest crowd of farmers we have seen in Roxboro in quite awhile. He devoted the larger portion of his address in explaining the workings of the Co-operative Marketing, and he made it plain to all. Prof. Zimmerman is professor of Economics in the A. and E. College, and his explanation was all that could have been desired. He explained how the plan was expected to work, how it was to be financed and the many advantages which would accrue to the farmer under its workings. He stated that the warehouses here had been tendered the Association and that there would not be any more of the old auction days.

At the conclusion of his address he called upon all in the audience who were members to hold up their hands, and it looked as if almost every one in the house—and the court house was literally packed, held up their hands. After the address the canvas set waited on the crowd and secured the signature of those who had not previously signed.

BOOKS ARE OPEN TO PUBLIC

Roxboro, N. C., April 10, 1922.
Mr. J. W. Noell Editor,
The Courier,
Roxboro, N. C.

Dear Mr. Editor:

We have noticed recently one or two communications in your paper from parties in the county stating they would like to have some information in regard to road affairs in this county. They did not state what information they desired and we, therefore, hardly know how to give the information which they desire. However, our books are kept in a very business like manner and would be easily understood by the average man. They are open for inspection at all times and if the parties writing have ever made any effort to find out anything from us we do not know it. However, if they find it is too much trouble to look over our books if they will kindly advise us just what information is desired we will take pleasure in endeavoring to furnish same to them.

Yours very truly,
M. R. Long,
Chairman.

"A JUNE NIGHT."

"A June Night, the biggest musical revue ever staged in South Boston," so says the Halifax Gazette. Come to the auditorium in Roxboro Thursday night, April 13th, and enjoy this home talent production from South Boston. Over forty persons are in the cast, and a most attractive feature of musical program is a large Hawaiian number with twelve little Hula girls in beautiful costumes. This, combined with an orchestra and snappy play should furnish a delightful evening. Proceeds, 30 per cent, go to Womans' Club. Reserved seats, 75 cents, general admission 50 cents.

ALWAYS WELCOME

Of course we are glad to have any of our friends call, but we were doubly pleased to receive a visit from an Old Confederate soldier, on last Saturday. Mr. A. M. Stanfield and Miss Anner Stanfield favored us with a delightful visit—not just one of those pop calls, but a sure enough visit and we listened with pleasure at what he had to say.

GLEE CLUB FRIDAY NIGHT.

Trinity Glee Club gave a performance here last Friday night and we have heard nothing but praise for this splendid musical body. They were greeted by a large audience and met the satisfaction of the most critical. This is the second appearance of this Club here and they seem to grow better year by year.

SERMON TO THE MASONS.

On next Sunday evening at the Methodist Church, Rev. J. C. Whedbee will preach a special sermon to the Masons of Roxboro. While this sermon is to the Masons, the public is welcome and all are invited to attend the services.

EASTER SERVICE

There will be Easter services at the Methodist church on next Sunday morning, Rev. J. B. Hurley, the pastor will conduct the services and use as his subject "The Resurrection." The public is cordially invited to these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnett and two children of Akron, Ohio arrived last Friday evening and are visiting the parents of Mr. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barnett. They will spend about four weeks here after which they will return to their home, accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Barnett.

Dr. George W. Young will address the citizens of Roxboro and Person County in the Methodist Church on next Friday evening in the interest of the Law and Enforcement order. Dr. Young is represented as being a very able speaker, and the public is cordially invited to hear him.

Mr. W. T. Whitt, of Creedmoore, an old Person County citizen, was a Roxboro visitor last week and honored us with a call.

Among the welcome visitors at this office last week were our good friends, Mrs. J. Clayton and Oscar Chambers of Mt. Tizah section.

BOTTLED DRINKS CLASSED AS FOOD PRODUCTS.

Washington, D. C., April 10—Bottled carbonated beverages, which are classed as food product by Federal and State food officials, have come to be part of the daily diet of patients in many hospitals throughout the country, according to a recent survey of hospital dietitians.

Foremost dieticians of the country are recommending pure, wholesome bottled soft drinks as a part of the diet of patients, for the aid which the carbonic gas lends to digestion and the ease with which the inert sugar, the food property of the soft drink, can be assimilated, practically instantaneously, by the patient's system.

Dieticians at the Collis P. Huntington Hospital, Boston, Mass., which treats cancer cases, find that Ginger Ale and other beverages can be retained on the stomach of the patient longer than other articles of food. Investigations of the dietitians has proven that carbonated beverages will prove most advantageous to the patient, if served about eleven A. M. daily.

The Johns Hopkins Hospital, at Baltimore, has been serving these bottled soft drinks to patients for some time. The Parker Hill hospital, Boston, which is used exclusively for the veterans of the World War, uses hundreds of cases of these beverages weekly.

Other Boston Hospitals using soft drinks are the City, Massachusetts General, Hart, Bay State, Commonwealth, Seabury, Peter Bent Brigham, Robert Brigham, Beth Israel, Leopold Morse, Forest Faulkner, Emerson, Lying-in, Boothby and Carney, Purcell and best in this section bottled by the Roxboro Bottling Company.
