I hereby announce myself as candidate for the nomination for Register of Deeds subject to the democratic primary. My record as a worker for the party for the past thirty years is well known and I will appreciate the support of my friends.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Person County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. The people of the County have honored me heretofore, and they are familiar with my record. I take this occasion to express my appreciation of what the people have done for me in the past, and to assure every one that I shall appreciate any support that I may receive in the present campaign.

N. S. Thompson.

TO THE VOTERS OF PERSON COUNTY:

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the nomination for the Legislature on the Democratic ticket. The people of this County have honored me with this high honor in the past. My record is before you and you know how well I served you.

I am a farmer and I think the farmers are entitled to a farmer representative this time as the representative for the past 8 years has come from Roxboro. Being a farmer, depending on my living from my farm, it will be impossible for me to leave my work to call on you personally, hence I am depending on my friends to look after my interests in the primary.

Your friend,
W. A. WARREN.

April 11, 1922.

TO THE VOTERS:

I desire to announce myself a candidate for the nomination for Clerk of the Superior Court for Person County on the Democratic ticket. I am a native of the county, was born and raised on the farm, and have lived and labored among you all my life. I have never held, or asked for, any office at your hands, but I feel that I can serve you satisfactorily in this office, and will highly appreciate your vote in the Primary.

C. Lester Brooks.

NEWS FROM LAMBERTH MEMORIAL.

Rev. L. V. Coggins of Semora filled his regular appointment at Lamberth Memorial Saturday and Sunday, spending the night with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tillman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hudkins of Allepsville returned from Danville Monday morning where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Hudkins' father, Mr. J. C. Bradsher. He died suddenly at his home near Danville Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, from an attack of the heart. He was 63 years of age, and leaves a wife, two sons and one daughter, Mrs. J. P. Hudkins of Allepsville. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church, and was loved by all who knew him. The funeral was held at Kegan Street Church by his pastor, Rev. J. C. Holland, who has been his pastor for the past twenty five years.

SUPERIOR COURT IN SESSION

Person County Superior Court met Monday morning. Judge Kerr is presiding, and we have rarely heard a charge so highly complimented as the one he delivered at the opening of Court. As is known by the people of Roxboro, the Baptist Church has been without a pastor since the new year, and one good brother suggested to us that we would make no mistake in calling Judge Kerr. Of course, Solicitor Guttis is on hand looking after the State's end of the business. The docket is unusually large this time and it will take the full week to try the many cases—and then it will not be cleared. We will give a full report of convictions, sentences, etc., in our next issue.

The well drillers tell us that the town well is down beyond the 400 foot mark. They contemplate making a test as to amount of water it will furnish when they reach the 500 foot mark.

By reason of a 5 per cent increased bid having been placed on the former sale of the lands hereinafter described sold on April 17, 1922, and by direction of the Court, as Trustee in that deed of trust executed by John Blackwell on November 10th, 1915, recorded in Book 2, page 118, Register's Office of Person County, I will on
