GOOD MUSIC.

At the 11 o'clock service in the Baptist Church last Sunday the congregation had the pleasure of listening to some very fine music. Mr. Edward Cullom of Winston-Salem was at the pipe organ and Miss Gadda Cherry of Tarboro sang a solo. It was a rare treat and the congregation thoroughly enjoyed it.

ROXBORO IS THE PLACE.

Don't hesitate a minute, say Roxboro, and then this fall when you begin to market your tobacco you will feel just a little more like you were a real citizen of this good County and doing your mite to help build up the County.

COMMUNION SERVICE.

Communion service will be observed at the Baptist Church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. E. E. White, will preach at this service. On account of the revival at the tent there will be no services in the evening.

CLASS IN NURSING.

Miss Smigelow, the County Nurse, had a class of young girls from 16 to 14 years of age with her at the auditorium this morning. This is a great work she is doing and it is earnestly desired that the mothers of Roxboro and Person County heartily co-operate with her.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LITTLE HENRY O'BRYAN.

Death leaves a shining mark on last Thursday evening the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Bryant and claimed for its own little Henry O'Bryant age 13 months. He was a member of the Cradle Roll of the North Roxboro Baptist Church and makes our hearts feel sad to erase that little name from our roll and yet it makes us feel happy that God has taken his Pen and enrolled his little name upon its records that shall never be erased. Little Henry was a bud on earth to bloom in Heaven and God needed this little flower to fill in His vacant place around the great white Throne. He leaves a father, mother and little sister to mourn their loss. He was laid to rest in the family cemetery near Allensville Church, funeral services conducted by Rev. N. J. Todd.

Dear Parents weep not for your love one, lay your sorrows on one who is more able to bear them and who stands ready to comfort you if you will only let him. God needed one more Angel child. To Join His shining band. And so He stooped with loving smile. And clasped little Henry's hand. From one who loved him.

Mrs. W. W. Morrell,
(Supt. of the cradle roll)

RED CROSS NURSING

COMMITTEE.

The Red Cross Nursing Committee wish to thank Mesdames R. L. Wilburn, W. A. Bradsher, George Thomas, E. E. Thomas, B. E. Love, Clifton Winstead and T. E. Austin for contributing the layette for the "chase doll" to be used for demonstrating in the Little Mother's League's and classes in Home Hygiene and care of the sick. The first Little Mother's League is being organized in Roxboro this week for little girls between the ages of ten and fourteen years. Some of the lessons and demonstrations to be given are on the handling of milk, feeding the baby, milk modifications, bathing and clothing the baby, value of fresh air and cleanliness, danger signals and the first care of the sick baby, causes of sickness, etc.

Upon many little girls falls the responsibility of occasionally or regularly assuming charge of their baby brothers and sisters. We hope that many little girls will attend these classes.—Mrs. J. J. WINSTEAD, Chairman.
