

SOCIETY NEWS.

Mrs. I. O. Wilkerson delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of the teachers. A pretty arrangement of choice flowers added to the attractiveness of the home. Progressive croquet was the game which was enjoyed, at close of the game delightful block ice cream and cake were served by Misses Catherine Hatchett, Vertie Moore and Bertha Paylor. Those enjoying Mrs. Wilkerson's party were the following:

Mesdames W. C. Bullock, M. A. Stewart, E. V. Boatwright, Joe Blanks, J. D. K. Richmond, F. O. Carver, B. G. Clayton, E. E. Thomas, T. B. Woody, H. W. Newell, Bruce Newell, Bryant Barnett, J. J. Winstead and Misses Kate Newton, Edna Bradsher, Elizabeth Noell, Ethel Newton, Sykes, Allen, Bertie Clayton, Clara Edwards, Katie Lee Mathews, Delia Bryant and Maie Hardy.

The Research Club held its first meeting of the year on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. S. G. Winstead. The club will study this year "Wonder spots of the Americas". The lesson hour was in charge of Mrs. L. M. Carlton, the subject being "Natural wonders of America". Mrs. A. M. Burns read very interestingly, "Facts about North Carolina". In conclusion the hostess served ice cream and cake to the following: Mesdames B. G. Clayton, H. S. Morton, W. C. Bullock, W. O. Sample, J. B. Hurley, L. M. Carlton, A. M. Burns, R. L. Wilburn, A. S. deVlaming, W. T. Pass and J. J. Winstead.

Mrs. M. R. Long delightfully entertained the Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at her attractive home on Lamar Street. Autumn flowers were used which lent an attractive glow to the rooms. After playing bridge a business meeting was held and at the conclusion Mrs. Long served a salad course with iced tea. Those present were Mesdames E. V. Boatwright, H. S. Morton, L. M. Carlton, P. B. Henley, R. M. Stephens, J. W. Noell and Miss Elizabeth Noell.

The Woman's Club has opened its year with a vim. The first meeting after an adjournment last June took place Friday evening in the Club rooms in the Kaplon building. A reception was given to the teachers of the town. After the members passed down the receiving line the President, Mrs. S. G. Winstead, took charge of the meeting. The executive board consists of Mrs. S. G. Winstead, presi-ent; Mrs. H. W. Winstead, secretary; Mrs. Bob Oakley, Mrs. J. M. Pass and Mrs. Mamie Merritt. Plans were made for the year. At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Carl Bradsher sang very beautifully.

Delightful refreshments were served by the following young ladies: Misses Edna Bradsher, Sue Merritt, Mary Lee Crowell, Sue Bradsher, Elizabeth Noell, Annie Laurie Barnett and Mrs. G. W. Thomas.

In conjunction with the Woman's Club Mrs. Ida Kaplon had her initial opening of The Quality Shop. This is a new enterprise for Roxboro and with the large and varied assortment of ready to wear for ladies and children will evidently make a hit. She has displayed a most beautiful line and with the attractive and spacious store rooms in the new Kaplon building the ladies will find here a place where they can spend their money to advantage. On the night of the opening it would be hard to describe the beauty of the store, it was brilliantly lighted, which with the artistic blending of potted plants and the display of merchandise no more handsome showing has been made here. The opening was a decided success and Mrs. Kaplon was more than pleased with the interest shown by the ladies of the town and country.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. B. E. Love was hostess to the first meeting of the season for the pleasure club. As the guests arrived they were greeted by Mrs. Love and directed to the punch bowl where Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Merritt served delightful punch. Six tables were placed for game of rook and after playing for a while the cards were put away and the hostess assisted by Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Austin served block cream cake and salted nuts to the following ladies: Mesdames W. T. Pass, H. W. Winstead, J. J. Winstead, T. E. Austin, A. M. Burns, R. W. Stephens, L. M. Carlton, E. P. Dunlap, T. W. Henderson, J. A. Long, M. R. Long, W. F. Long, W. D. Merritt, J. W. Noell, G. W. Thomas, Conner Merritt, Frank Willson, John Richmond, E. V. Boatwright, W. T. Long, G. W. Kane, W. C. Bullock, T. B. Woody, H. W. Newell, H. S. Morton and Bruce Newell.

Lowell Farmer Says It Helped Friends, Too

The experience of J. G. Bigger, a well-known farmer, living at Lowell, S. C., R. F. D. No 1, furnishes another very striking illustration of the value of Tanlac to persons suffering from a run down condition. While in Gastonia the other day, Mr. Bigger made the following statement:

"When I started taking Tanlac I had been laid up with typhoid and malaria fever, which left me in mighty bad shape. My stomach was so out of gear that nothing agreed with me. My nerves were all unstrung and I was so run down that I simply wasn't worth a nickel so far as work was concerned. I was troubled with gas on my stomach and had such bad dizzy spells that I could hardly stand up.

"I took six bottles of Tanlac in all, but I commenced to feel like a new man before the second bottle was gone. My stomach misery, dizziness and nervousness has left me entirely. I sleep like a log at night and feel as strong and well as I ever did. I've put a number of my friends onto Tanlac and it has helped them just like it did me. I don't believe it has an equal in the world."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
