THE RIGHT MEDICINE

We do not advocate extreme harshness in dealing with criminals, but it has been clearly demonstrated that fines are no more than license to bootleggers and blockaders. We believe Judge Greene of Anderson County, S. C., has hit the nail on the head and if more of our judges were to adopt the same method you would soon see a wonderful difference in the number of such cases coming before our courts. From the Anderson County Tribune we clip the following:

"Anderson County bootleggers will not find Judge W. P. Greene in a sympathetic frame of mind. Following the example of other circuit judges who gave no alternative sentences, Judge Greene is sentencing violators of the prohibition law from three to six months straight time on the chain-gang. So far, he has failed to impose a money fine or suspend a part of sentence for trafficking in liquor. Since the judges in this State have about settled upon some definite plan of dealing with violators of the prohibition law, making chain-gang punishment a certainty for those who plead guilty or are convicted, the respect for law has climbed a notch or two higher."

Well, there was a little fight on Mr. July C. Warren's side. He was elected a member of the Teachers' Association. He is an old newspaper man and he knows how to write. He says that he thinks that the teachers' union is a good thing and that it is worth the while to join it.
