

Do It Now

Take a tip from us and do your building NOW—

Today's lumber and material prices will look like bargains sixty days from now. Our prices of today are real bargains and we think are lower than you will find the lumber market for many months. We have anticipated the advances and bought right and we are going to pass this saving to our customers. From the brick in the foundation to the shingles on the roof we are prepared to furnish you and remember: "Buying building material of quality means banking the cost of repairs".

SEND US YOUR ORDERS AND NOTE THE DIFFERENCE.

EVERY-BODY
DRESSES UP

For

EASTER

We all welcome the time to change from that old suit or Dress that has done us such venerable service, and caused us to wonder whether we could bridge the season.

Easter is the day for the change to brighter shades and the seasons fancies.

We are prepared to take care of those who have waited to the last minute.

See those $15.00 Dresses that came in this week.

The calls have been so numerous that we have decided to send out all silk dresses on approval in the future. They keep coming and we keep selling. It will pay you to trade with us. Try it.

BUSTER WANTS A MOTHER.

Dear Mr. Editor:
I am a little boy two months old and they call me "Buster". A kind providence sent me to the Children's Home Society and I am growing every day and will soon be a big, bouncing boy.

I want some good woman to write to the superintendent of the Children's Home Society of North Carolina, Greensboro, N. C., and ask him to give me to her. I am sure he will do so, as he has so many motherless babies and more want to come to the Home. Write him today and I will bring joy and happiness to some childless home.

With love,
A Homeless Baby Boy.
