ROXBORO UNDERTAKING COMPANY

Dear Friends: We have torn down our undertaking shop on Depot Street and moved it way for the purpose of building us a new undertaking shop in the same place. The contractor hopes to have our new building ready for us inside of four or five months. But listen, in the meantime we are not out of business. We have moved our stock on the same street the Roxboro Laundry is on, in an old factory. But listen, we are prepared to put you and any member of your family away that the good Lord sees fit to take home with Him. Our phone No. is the same, No. 183. We will serve you day or night.

Yours very truly,
W. T. HAYSEL, Sec., for Roxboro Undertaking Co., Roxboro, N. C.

"Home of Quality Lumber"

It is a pleasure to us to have boys and girls come into our bank.

To encourage young people to practice thrift we will accept their deposits, however small they may be.

The sooner a boy earns, saves and banks his FIRST DOLLAR, the sooner he begins his life's success.

Success is impossible without saving. We trust that every parent in our community will see that every one of their children will have a bank account next Christmas day.

We will welcome your account.
