Smilin' Charlie Says

The superstitious bachelor might do well to remember that the extra day comes on Friday this Leap Year.

Mr. Ned Leper spent the week end in Raleigh.

Dr. B. E. Long of Greensboro was a Roxboro visitor Monday.

Mrs. A. W. Clayton is visiting relatives and friends in Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Y. Blanks spent Friday in Durham.

Misses Louise Stalvey and Eva Harris of Raleigh spent the week end here.

Dr. R. H. Noell of Rocky Mount spent the week end here with his parents.

Mr. Robert Featherston, who has been attending A. & E. College in Raleigh is at home this week.

Misses Minnie Gentry and Helen Turner of the country spent the week end with Mrs. W. T. Kirby.

Hon. J. E. Tucker of Milton spent last Wednesday night here visiting his brother, Dr. E. J. Tucker.

Mrs. A. B. Scoggins left Saturday for Greensboro to visit her sister, Mrs. B. H. Brooks, who is seriously ill.

Misses Bull Peef and Delia Dodson spent the week end in Greensboro.

Miss Helen Poindexter of South Boston spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. W. L. Guthrie.

Mr. Bell was called to his home in Norfolk Monday on account of the illness of his sister.

Mr. Hugh Woods returned home Saturday after a visit to friends in Winston-Salem.

Revs. J. A. Beam and R. E. White attended the funeral of Dr. Hobgood in Oxford Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Lloyd of Tar River, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pugham, last Friday.

Miss Eva Harris, a teacher in the Wakelon Farm Life school spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris.
