W. I. Newton, Mayor.
Hattie E. Burch, Town Clerk.

Substituting branded wooden covers for the old burlap bags formerly used as covers for the potato barrels and better grading of the potatoes brought an increase in price of 25 to 50 cents per barrel to farmers in Pamlico County this spring reports County Agent R. W. Galphin.

CARD OF THANKS
I desire to express my thanks and gratitude to all those kind friends who successfully worked to save my home from burning last Thursday night. Their assistance is very greatly appreciated.
R. V. Dickerson
Mr. Dewey Moore of Anson County has the best cotton crop that he has ever had to date and attributes his good crop to the lespedeza which he has grown on this land for the last two years reports County Agent J. W. Cameron.

Wheat grown on limed land averaged waist high with heads about three inches in length; on unlimed land, the wheat was only about knee high and the heads only half as long as that on limed land. The owner states that he will make about three times more grain where he limed, reports County Agent H. A. Edge of Harnett County.
