AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion Auxiliary will have the regular monthly meeting at Jones Hotel Monday night, Sept. 1st, at 7:45. The members are urged to be present as there is some very important business to be discussed.

SCHOOL NOTES.

It seems that the most of the schools desire to open September 15th or later, instead of on that date or earlier. As I said I wish that the High Schools could open on different dates in order that they may not close at the same time.

Please remember the date of the first Teachers' Meeting, Saturday, September 13 for white teachers and Saturday September 20 for colored teachers. Also the High School Principals' Meeting on September 6th. Dr. J. Henry Highsmith will meet with the High School Principals on September 9th unless a change is made. Please keep all these dates in mind. Cut this out and preserve it.

Each High School is requested to have an exhibit at the Person County Fair.

We have selected for Reading Circle Work for 1924-1925 the following books: For the Elementary Teachers—The Heart of the Curriculum—Price $1.25 for ten or more. For High School Teachers—Your Problems and Mine—Price $1.00 for ten or more. Every teacher who teaches in the county will take the course and purchase a copy. Also each teacher is expected to become a member of the North Carolina Education Association and pay the membership fee of $2.00 which will include the subscription to our Teachers Magazine which publishes the outlines of the Reading Circle Work each month. Please bear this in mind.

On next Monday, September 1st, the principals will present to the Board of Education for their approval a Truck Route for each trip of their trucks. In case a Principal cannot submit his route the committeemen shall present them to the Board. The Board will carefully consider these routes before giving their approval, and no routes shall be established unless by them.

Also they shall present the names of capable and trustworthy boys as drivers of these trucks. Each truck will be numbered and we will keep the exact cost per mile, per year, per child.

Every member of the Board has the interest of every child in Person County at heart as his first and foremost duty, and with the help of Divine Providence expects to give every child as near a square deal as is possible under existing circumstances. The hope of our county is its citizens, and the children must be given their opportunity. The Board desires to do as much for every child as it would for its own.

Mrs. J. A. Beam.

HIGH TAXES.

A Roxboro lawyer was asked, "How much is your tobacco bill a year?" He answered, "I do not know exactly, but approximately $115.00. A Roxboro barber was asked the same question, he replied, "About $125.00 a year."

These gentlemen were not asked how much they spend for chewing-gum, soft drinks, movies, ice cream, candy, joy riding, and other luxuries. Friendly reader, how much do you spend each day, or month, or year, for the above named extras? Rather high taxes these luxuries are collecting from us daily, do you not think?

Put your brain to work for a little while and you will find just one, only one, of the above named items cost us more than all the taxes we pay for county, schools, roads, etc.

Tax Payer.

HIS FRIENDS GLAD TO SEE HIM.

Lr. O. P. Schaub and son, Carter, spent the week end here visiting friends. Dr. Schaub was a Roxboro citizen for many years, and no man of our acquaintance ever enjoyed the confidence and respect of the people to a fuller degree. He is one man that every one enjoys shaking his hand when he comes this way.

TRUTHFUL MAN.

Col. W. L. Lewis, who has been fishing for the past ten days, says he is a truthful man and will not attempt to tell any "fish tale," hence can not compete with the other crowds which have been telling their fairy tales. The best catch he had while away was one 200 pounder, besides numerous 2 to 5 pound trout and rock, but that was so much below his average he is making no brag.

LISTEN, BEULAH W. M. U!

A Glimpse of the Eastern

It was recently my good fortune to be in the Eastern Association at the time of the annual meeting of their W. M. U.

Miss Macy Cox, who for some time has been vice-president of the Wilmington division, has just closed her fifteenth year as superintendent of Woman's Work in the Eastern. Miss Macy is a marvel of resourcefulness and efficiency; the impulse she has given to missions in her association and the state can hardly be estimated.

The Eastern is composed of thirty churches, half as many again as the Beulah. It is wonderfully missionary-minded. The little country church I attended on Sunday has recently given four missionaries to the foreign field. As I sat in the W. M. U. Meeting I was surrounded by people whom the Great Commission "Go ye" has intimately touched, people who have not only given their means and their prayers all their lives, but have given themselves and their best beloved. By my side sat the sister of Gordon Middleton, now serving at Kaifeng, China; Mrs. Anderson herself has served for years in China, and her work there, interrupted by sickness and death, will be taken up again as soon as possible. In front of me were a sister of Carlyle Powell, one of our missionaries to Africa, and two volunteers, one now in training and the other teaching in a mountain school till conditions allow her going to the foreign field. From over the pulpit a beautiful portrait of Katie Murray, who went out two years ago, smiled a sweet benediction upon the gathering. All these are Eastern Association people. Their fathers and mothers were present at the meeting, and their sisters and brothers; and one could not keep feeling the very atmosphere about them turning with wholesome joy in service.

I thought of Beulah, dear old Beulah, and our people there; and I longed for the day when their light, too, should be set on a hill, and shine thus gloriously to the uttermost parts of the earth.

For years the Eastern has supported a Missionary in China, and several scholarships at the Training School. I was struck with the number of tithers, 223, and the number of young people enlisted, and present at the meeting. The definite activities of the union impressed me. Three showers to mountain schools were presented that day, curtains, table cloths, scarfs, cooking utensils, all kinds of useful things a boarding school has to have. These articles made a brave array hanging on clothes lines on each side of the church. The women's societies showered one school, the sunbeams another, and the R. A.'s, G. A.'s, and Y. W. A.'s the other. Such a pervading spirit of happiness was everywhere, for almost everybody present had done something to make the gifts complete.

This W. M. U. every year makes a collective gift to some institution—the Orphanage, the Hospital, the Training School, or some other enterprise dear to Baptist hearts. To people who so constantly DO and GO and GIVE, these institutions seem vitally their own, and greatly beloved.

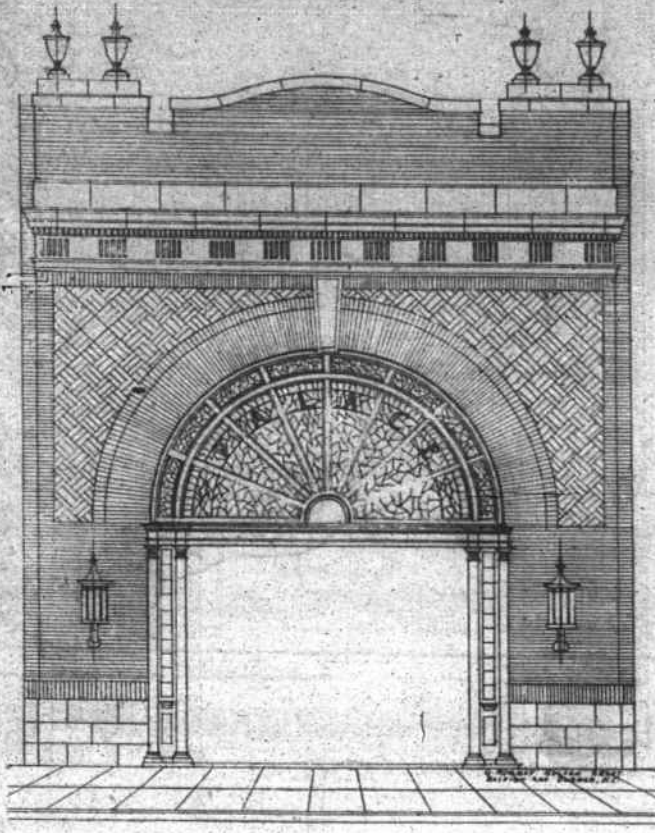

The Eastern is the one association in North Carolina that has outgrown depending on volunteer labor to carry on its missionary work. For years Miss Cox has been employed on the salary of a half-time worker. The work has gone forward with such leaps and bounds the Association is beginning to feel that a specially trained whole time worker would more than justify a living wage; efforts are now on foot to materialize this vision for the Eastern.

There is much that our Association might learn from each other. It is wisdom to attend meetings other than our own; it ought to be done more if we are really to take our place in the work of the Kingdom. "So many worlds; so much to do!" Beulah must be up and doing!—T.

ELECTRICAL STORM.

Roxboro was visited by the most severe electrical storm last Wednesday evening we have experienced this year. We had just closed our forms and put them on the press when the power house was put out of business, hence we were a day late with that issue. Fortunately, no serious damage was done here, but it was a "skeery" time for awhile.

INTERESTING DOCUMENTS.

The speeches of acceptance by the nominees for President are very interesting documents. Mr. Coolidge is a pungent writer and has the rare gift of saying what he wants to say in the fewest words. However he is well known to the country and the chief interest centers around the utterance of Mr. John W. Davis who is a new man at the bat. His address was one of the noblest that has ever been delivered by a candidate. His argument is orderly, logical, convincing. The address is as luminous as a sunbeam. His English reminds us of Woodrow Wilson and his charming personality adds force to his words. The impression made by that address was the best possible stroke Mr. Davis could have made for himself. If he is President the country will be in safe and capable hands.—Charity and Children.

SOCIETY.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. W. E. Woody delightfully entertained the Bridge Club and also her house guests, Miss Alma Owen of Lexington, N. C., and Miss Lessie Barnett of the County. Three tables were arranged on the porch for the game. After playing for more than an hour the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. J. Winstead served a delicious sala course with ice tea. Those present were: Mesdames W. S. Clary, Jr., E. M. Lavis, W. G. Miller and Misses Alma Owen, Lessie Barnett, Mary and Clara Harris, Louise Thompson, Isabel deVlaming, Elizabeth Harvey, May Wilson and Elizabeth Noell.

One of the most delightful parties of this season was on Friday morning when Mrs. A. S. deVlaming and Miss Isabel deVlaming entertained at a Bridge Luncheon. Five tables were placed on the porch which was lovely with summer flowers arranged in baskets and bowls. Misses Louise Wilburn and Marion deVlaming served a most appetizing luncheon to the following: Mesdames Baxter Mangum, J. W. Noell, W. S. Clary, Jr., J. A. Long, E. M. Davis, E. Eberman, W. G. Miller, W. T. Long, E. G. Long, Booth of Danville and Misses Mary Hester, Louise Thompson, Eglantine Merritt, Mary and Clara Harris, Elizabeth Harvey, Mary Knight of Durham, May Wilson and Elizabeth Noell.

LONG-THOMAS.

A fresh, dewey, fragrant summer morn, emblematic of two young lives blended into one. Such was the stage nature set for the wedding morn of Miss Wilma Thomas and Mr. Fred A. Long, both of Roxboro. The marriage, beautiful in its simplicity, took place Tuesday morning August 26th, at the home of the bride on South Main Street in the presence of the immediate members of both families, Rev. R. E. White, pastor of the bride and of Roxboro Baptist Church, officiating. Mrs. J. L. Kirby, sister of the bride, played softly as a prelude, "To a Wild Rose," then to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party entered the spacious living room where the ceremony was performed. The bride, leaning upon the arm of her brother, Dr. W. N. Thomas of Oxford, was met at the altar by the groom accompanied by his brother, Robert Long of Roxboro. The impressive double ring ceremony was used. Decorations consisting of many bright summer flowers and potted plants were used throughout the rooms.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a motor trip to Washington, New York, Niagara and other points of interest and will be at home to their friends the first of September.

Mrs. Long is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas of Roxboro. She is a graduate of Oxford College and an accomplished musician. Possessed of an engaging personality and high Christian character she has many friends. She is superintendent of the Primary department of Roxboro Baptist Sunday School and is doing expert work among the little ones.

Mr. Long is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas W. Long of Roxboro. He is a former student of Trinity College and a graduate of State College and is an unusually talented young man in his chosen profession of electrical engineering and especially successful in the new field of radio. As both families are prominent this wedding is of special interest to many friends throughout the County and State.—W.
