

LIVELY CHASE SUNDAY NIGHT

Sunday night about 11:30 Chief Oliver and police Moore got wind of the approach of a car loaded with whiskey. They first sighted the car at the corner of Reams Ave. and Lamarr Street, and gave chase, the driver whirling and making back through Reamstown, with the officers in hot pursuit. At the corner of the street leading to the fair grounds the liquor car turned, throwing a half gallon of the liquid into Mr. Bob Oakley's garage, but kept steadily ahead. Just beyond the fair grounds Chief Oliver shot at the tires, having ordered the driver, Luther Evans, to halt, but Luther did not halt, but the shot failed to strike the tires though it did knock out a spoke. When Evans reached Mr. Linnie Lunsford's house he threw out another half gallon, but continued on his way. Just this side of Jalong he ran his car into a ditch, when it became necessary for him to desert the car. When the officers captured the car there was only one half gallon of liquor in it, the other having been thrown out and broken in the mad rush. They failed to capture the driver, but owing to the circumstances, we expect he will make himself scarce around here for some time.
