GET IT FROM FIRST HANDS

When the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Marketing Association was first inaugurated this County was considered, and doubtless was, one of the strongest Co-op counties in the State but, judging by the many cases which were on the docket last week, there is great dissatisfaction within the ranks of the members. Of course, many things have been said by both the loyal and non-loyal members which would have been better unsaid, and doubtless many things which were not true. For instance, it is reported in the County that the Association is on its last legs, and is destined to failure. We know nothing about the financial condition of the Association, but we do know that it is paying larger and more satisfactory advances this year than ever before, and word comes from other sections that the Association was never in better condition than today.

But be that as it may, you will have an opportunity on next Saturday to hear from first hands just how the Association is doing and if you really want to know the inside facts you will come out and hear Mr. Oliver J. Sands at the court house Saturday. If any man in the County knows the real condition of the Association, it is Mr. Sands. He is recognized as a man of rare judgement, a sound business man, and we do not believe he would willfully deceive you.

In the case of State vs H. C. O'Brian, salesman for Durham Seed Co., which went up on appeal from Person Superior Court, in which said Durham Seed Co. was held for peddling, the Supreme Court handed down a decision reversing the decision of the Superior Court. The case will now come back for judgement. This was a State wide case, in which it was claimed that houses which loaded up their trucks and sent them out to solicit business and deliver from said trucks were nothing more or less than peddlers, and the Supreme Court took the same view. This case was stubbornly contested by Mr. C. A. Hall, who represented the County in the case.

MISS HATCH MARRIED IN PRETTY CEREMONY.

Burlington Young Lady Becomes the Bride of Dr. Ralph Brooks.

Burlington, Nov. 2—Of interest throughout the state and particularly in western North Carolina where both Miss Hatch and Dr. Brooks are well known was the marriage of Miss Lucy E. Hatch, daughter of Mrs. George W. Hatch of Piedmont Estates and Dr. Ralph E. Brooks, son of C. B. Brooks, of Roxboro, which took place at the home of the bride Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Dr. William E. Potter performed the ceremony which marked one of the most lovely social events of the fall season.

There were no attendants, the ceremony was accentuated with simplicity throughout, only members of the immediate families were present.

Following the wedding a reception was given at the home. A delicious three course buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. J. Rainey Parker, Mrs. Rufus Williamson, Mrs. Robert Barnwell and Miss Fannie Hatch. Immediately following Dr. and Mrs. Brooks left for a wedding trip to points of interest in the north. On their return they will be at home in Piedmont heights after November 15.

Mrs. Brooks is a beautiful type of brunette an depresses an attractive and striking personality. She is a graduate of N. C. C. W., Greensboro, and for some time has held a responsible position with the National Eye Works, this city.

Dr. Brooks received his education at Trinity college later taking special work at the University of North Carolina for two years, after which he graduated from the Jefferson Medical college. He is now prominently connected with the Rainey hospital as resident physician.

Cunningham News.

Mr. Alexander L. Bass attended the automobile races at Charlotte. He reports a very exciting and pleasant trip.

Miss Vida Lea Stephens, our popular teacher at Cunningham school, spent the week end with friends at Bailey and Raleigh.

Mrs. C. H. Richmond, who has spent the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. L. Cunningham, left Tuesday for Richmond to visit her daughter, Miss Ellen Rausser Richmond.

A large gathering of the best men and women of Person, Caswell and Halifax counties attended the speaking at the Cunningham school house Friday night. This was our fifth speaking at Cunningham and it is growing in interest and members at each meeting.

Friday night Nov. 7th the Hon. Jas. S. Easley, Commonwealth Attorney of Halifax county, one of Va's best orators and gifted speakers will be with us, and a packed house is assured. So come early and get a good seat—7:30 P. M. is the hour.

Mess. Jas. H. Lockhart, Robert C. Scott, Ellis M. and E. E. Wells, Walter P. Phelps and Napoleon Turner are busily engaged in having their fine crops of cotton picked. These gentlemen are some of Person counties best farmers, and they do not believe in carrying all their "eggs in one basket"—a wise move to raise other crops than tobacco.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT.

This special term of Court last week was devoted entirely to hearing cases brought by the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association against contract breakers. Judge B. F. Long, who presided, was unbiased in his judgements but it was plainly shown that his heart was with the Association. In one of the most important cases Judge Long held that only a legal impossibility, such as an act of God, would excuse non-delivery. There were only two contested cases, as we recall, and in both of those the Co-op won out, most of the others being submitted to Court and adjourned Thursday evening.
