THE COURIER STARTS SALESMANSHIP CLUB FOR ALL

EVERY ONE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO DEMONSTRATE SALES ABILITY

If you have friends and acquaintances this is the campaign to get in and make big wages for the next few weeks. Commissions and prizes of great value for all.

The Courier in coming to you with this announcement does so with the same good intent as it has in all its progressive moves of the past.

In inaugurating this Salesmanship campaign we are offering to those who will compete an opportunity to share with us in the upbuilding of this city and community and at the same time be paid handsomely for every effort put forth.

On another page you will find the full announcement and rules which will govern the campaign, together with the prizes offered. Read it over carefully and come on in for you could not possibly make more in the few weeks than we offer you. If you do not understand it phone 39 or call at the office and we will gladly explain, or if you cannot do either drop us a line and we will visit you. It does not cost one cent to find out about it or enter. You do not have to be a subscriber.

These awards, aggregating a nice little sum of several hundred dollars will be given away absolutely free. All the prizes are worthy of your efforts. There is no red tape.

MR. JOE SNOW SHOT.

Last Friday morning there was a shooting scrape in the Eastern end of the County. From the best information we can gather Mr. Joe Snow went out to remonstrate with Mr. Jack Elliot, who was making a disturbance near the house. Jack had his gun and is said to have been looking for his wife, who had threatened to shoot, when Mr. Snow tried to get him to go and put up his gun. Jack became enraged at Mr. Snow and shot him. The gun was loaded with No. 6 shot, the shot taking effect in Mr. Snow's shoulder and arm.

Sheriff Long and a Dr. were phoned for, and upon their arrival they found Jack Elliot had made his get away.

ORPHANAGE SINGING CLASS

[The Oxford Orphanage Singing Class gave a concert here last Saturday night, and when we say it was equal, if not superior to any they have given here, it is praise worth while. This class makes us an annual visit and they are always enjoyed by the people. The receipts amounted to $134.75. Sunday morning the children were carried to Oxford by members of the Masonic fraternity.]

SATISFACTORY ADVANCE

Mr. A. J. Pleasant of Hurdle Mills made a delivery to the Co-op Association last week and received an advance of more than $21.00 average. The Association members are highly pleased with the advances made this season, and as a result there is less complaint than heretofore. We have not heard a single member say other points were paying better advances than Roxboro, and this being true there should be a heavy delivery here this season.

THE MARY HAMBRICK MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Mary Hambrick Missionary Society held their inspirational meeting in the Sunday School room of the Leary Memorial church. In spite of the rainy afternoon there were forty two present, twenty two of these taking part in the program.—M.

For Quick Sale

"HER HUSBAND'S WIFE" TO BE PRESENTED HERE NOV. 28.

Here With Professional Cast.

Thomas' Delightful Comedy-Drama. It might be said that the art of the drama is founded on suspense. If this is the case lovers of the drama will have an extraordinary treat on the night of Nov. 28th when A. E. Thomas' great comedy drama "Her Husband's Wife" will be presented here at the school auditorium, sponsored by the Womans' Club. This well known play is loaded with suspense, packed with thrills, and abounds in comical situations. Its long runs in New York and many other of our larger cities proves it to be a play of super-quality.

Of great interest is the fact that Mr. Edwin Stanley, who starred in Hartley Manners famous play "Happiness" last season, and who has appeared in many New York productions, and featured in several plays, will be in the cast, playing the role of Uncle John, which gives great scope to his power for displaying his eloquent use of dialect, humor and pathos. With Mr. Stanley in the cast will be Miss Pauline Wisnonger, Miss Pauline Kerns, Mr. Ralph Harvey and Mr. Roy G. Hess, all experienced and capable on the stage. To Mr. Elias Day the successful producer of Chicago, goes the credit for the fine manner in which the play is staged and directed.

SAINT MARK'S CHURCH

Thursday, Nov. 27th, is the day designated by the President of the United States as the day in which the Nation should give thanks to Almighty God. Thanksgiving Day means a day of thanksgiving—not a day of gluttony. There are many reasons why one should give thanks to God—there is not one reason why he should be a glutton. Be reasonable! and "go into His Courts with thanksgiving" next Thursday. Thanksgiving Service in St. Mark's at 10:00 A. M.

Sunday, Nov. 30th: Church School at 10:00 A. M., Edwin Eberman, Supt. Evening Prayer and sermon at 7:30 P. M.

F. L. Martin, Rector.

Who Can Enter

All are eligible to compete as explained in the advertisement. It is possible for you as a member of the club to win an automobile in less than seven weeks; that is the duration of the campaign. It will not be a long drawn out campaign that will tire you, but just enough time for you to see your friends and acquaintances and get the necessary votes to win.

There will be no postponement of any description and the awards will be given away just as they are outlined. It costs nothing to enter and compete, we furnish you with all the supplies necessary.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding Dies. MARION, O., Nov. 21.—A little before the tomb in Marion cemetery next Monday evening will be the scene of the final meeting to part no more of Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Harding.

Mrs. Harding died early today at the home of Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, son of the late Dr. C. E. Sawyer, President Harding's physician. She had been critically ill for several weeks at White Oaks Farm, the Sawyer home, where she had been living.

Next Monday her body will be placed in the tomb in Marion cemetery beside that of her husband.

Roxboro Market Closes For Thanksgiving.

On account of Thanksgiving day the tobacco market here will close with the sale Wednesday and will be closed until the following Monday. First sale Monday, December 1st.

CO-OP MAKING BIG ADVANCES

Our good friend Mr. L. P. Duncan, and one of the simon-pure Co-ops, favored us with a call this morning, and showed us his bill of sale for a load of tobacco delivered to the Association. His advance averaged $25.72. [This would not have been a bad average if it had meant a full payment. We are glad to hear of these fine advances, and we hope to see the Association house taxed to its full capacity to care for its deliveries, and indeed, it should be.

LOVELY WEDDING

Miss Sallie Wilkerson Became the Bride of Mr. G. L. Allen.

A lovely wedding characterized by utmost simplicity, took place Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the Brookside Methodist church, when Miss Sallie Wilkerson became the bride of G. L. Allen, of Roxboro, the date being further emphasized as that of the bride's birthday, and wedding anniversary of her mother. The church presented a charming effect with ferns and large baskets of white chrysanthemums, with tulle bows, arranged in artistic manner. Tall cathedral candles with their soft radiance, threw a glow over the entire scene. Twined about the choir loft and chancel were garlands of white and green. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Banna Garrett played "Melody of Love," and Mrs. B. T. Hurley sang, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "O Perfect Love." McDowell's "To A Wild Rose" was played while the vows were being said. At the first strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March," Rev. B. T. Hurley entered from the vestry, and took his place, then entered Miss Irma Wilkerson, sister of the bride, who was the only attendant of her sister. She was gowned in black satin and gray fur, with large picture hat. Her corsage was Columbia roses. Mrs. Hurley wore a tan crepe satin frock, with corsage of pink Columbia roses. Her hat was a large black creation. Miss Garrett was attired in black satin and powder blue and silver, with hat to match. Her flowers were Premier roses. The bride, attired in an ensemble suit of brown suede de laine, handsomely trimmed in fur, with accessories to harmonize, entered with her brother, E. L. Wilkerson, who gave her in marriage. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She wore a corsage of butterfly roses and sweetheart buds. She was met at the altar by the groom, attended by his brother, J. Y. E. Allen, of Washington, D. C., where the ring ceremony of the Methodist church was solemnized. Immediately after the wedding the couple left by motor for South Boston, Va., where they took the train for Washington and other points in the north for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Roxboro.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, a popular member of the social set of her community, while the groom is a promising young business man of this city.

HENRY G. CONNOR, FEDERAL JURIST, DIES IN WILSON

Had Been On the Bench Most of His Active Life As State and Federal Judge. Wilson, Nov. 23.—Henry Connor, United States district judge of North Carolina, died at his home here at 4 o'clock this afternoon after an illness of several months. Judge Connor was 74 years of age.

Judge Connor's health began to decline after the death of his wife last February. He suffered a breakdown in August and he continued to lose ground since that time. His condition became critical several days ago and members of his family were called to his bedside. The end came peacefully shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Connor was appointed to the federal bench by President William Howard Taft in 1919 to succeed the late Judge Thomas S. Purcell.

COLORED GIRL SHOT

Last Friday, on the farm of R. A. Walker, a colored man by the name of Tom Glenn shot and killed a colored girl, his step daughter. The shooting is claimed to have been accidental. Sheriff Long made an investigation but could not get a very accurate account of the shooting.

SOCIETY

Mrs. A. M. Burns entertained in honor of Mrs. Z. V. G. Gwynn of Richmond on Monday afternoon. Bridge was the game of the afternoon and was played at three tables. The home was lovely with bright fall flowers. The hostess served a delicious salad course with coffee.

Mrs. B. B. Mangum was the charming hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained a few of her friends. The house was very attractive with bright flowers which lent an attractive glow to the rooms. The hostess served a salad course with hot tea. Bridge was the game of the afternoon and played at three tables.

The Pleasure Club had a delightful meeting with Mrs. R. B. Smith on Friday afternoon at her handsome new home on Lamar street. The lower floor was thrown en suite and beautiful roses were arranged in vases and bowls. After playing many interesting games the hostess assisted by Mesdames E. V. Boatwright and L. M. Carlton served chicken salad, sandwiches, potatoe chips, pickle, sardines, hot rolls, coffee with whipped cream and candy. Twenty eight were the number of guests present.

Characterized by her usual charm was the delightful party Saturday afternoon by Mrs. B. B. Mangum. Three tables were placed for the game of Boston Rook and many progressions were enjoyed. Mrs. Mangum served a most delicious salad course consisting of fruit salad sandwiches, pickled pears, sardines, margarine, with hot tea.

As a pretty compliment to Miss Sallie Wilkerson, whose marriage to G. L. Allen was an event of this week, Mrs. E. E. Carver and Miss Banna Garrett entertained at the home of Mrs. Carver at a prettily appointed shower, on Tuesday evening. Beautiful chrysanthemums, with a color note of green and white, decorated the rooms. The guests were asked to write recipes for the use of the bride, and at the conclusion of this enjoyable feature, little Miss Sallie Garrett, dressed as a miniature bride, entered the room drawing a wagon of white loaded with many pretty and useful gifts for the honoree. A delicious salad course with coffee and stuffed dates made a delightful menu for the guests. The favors were tiny baskets in umbrella effect filled with mints.

The Research Club met Nov. 19th at the home of Mrs. W. T. Pass. The topic was Drinkwater's Biographical Plays. The first discussion and paper was by Mrs. J. A. Beam on "Abraham Lincoln." The second paper and discussion was by Mrs. A. S. deVlaming on "Mary Stuart." The club had as a guest a former member, Mrs. W. O. Sample of Davidson, N. C.

The hostess served a delicious course consisting of marshmallow fluff, ham sandwiches, stuffed celery, Angel food cake and coffee. Cor. Sec.

Ex Markets Do Not Always Get the Best Prices—Look At These Figures

We know it is perfectly natural for one to want to go to big cities, but it does not always pay to do so, as tobacco figures last week prove. Last week Danville sold three million pounds at an average of $24.91, while Roxboro only sold two hundred thousand, but averaged $29.51, nearly five dollars a hundred more than the big market. And this is no exception, for if you will watch the prices you will find that Roxboro usually makes the best average of any market in this section.

Last Monday there was sold here fifty five thousand pounds at an average of $30.19. Don't waste time and gas by hauling your tobacco to other markets, bring it to Roxboro.

ALL DAY SERVICE AT ANTIOCH

Next Sunday there will be an all-day service at Antioch. Dr. Chas. E. Maddy and Dr. M. L. Kesler will be present, and this alone is sufficient to assure you the day will be well spent. This is the regular Fifth Sunday Meeting which the pastor, Rev. N. J. Todd, holds with his churches. The public is cordially invited.
