

MCLEAN'S MAJORITY MORE THAN 108,000

TOTAL VOTE IS BELOW 1920 BY 38,000

Ports Measure and Legislators' Pay Increase Amendment Beaten By Good Majorities.

RALEIGH, Nov. 20—John W. Davis, defeated democratic candidate for President, ran more than 13,000 behind the democratic state ticket in the election November 4, according to unofficial tabulations for the entire state completed here today.

More votes were cast in the balloting for United States senator than in any other race, according to the unofficial returns. A total of 481,747 were cast in this race, of which United States Senator F. M. Simmons, democrat, received 296,650, A. A. Whitener, republican, 185,650, a majority of 110,447 for Senator Simmons.

For governor, a total of 477,755 votes were cast, Angus W. McLean, democrat, receiving 292,859 and Isaac M. Meekins, republican, 184,854, a majority of 108,041 for McLean.

John W. Davis received 279,388 out of the 476,401 votes cast for President, with Calvin Coolidge receiving 190,444 and Robert M. LaFollette 6,569. Davis majority over Coolidge and LaFollette combined was 77,749.

The constitutional amendment authorizing an increase in the salaries of members of the North Carolina general assembly from $4 a day to $10 a day was defeated, according to the unofficial returns for the entire state, by a majority of 7,077. The vote in favor of the measure was 701,029, and against it 108,106.

The majority against the port terminal development bill, with 46 percents yet to be reported, stands unofficially at 52,492. The vote for the measure was 126,630 and against it 179,122.

How To Get Votes

The way to get votes to win one of the awards is by clipping the free coupons that appear in each issue of the paper and by getting your friends to subscribe with you. Either new or renewals count. See the vote schedule in the page ad.

One of the very attractive features of this campaign is the fact that every person who competes will be paid for their work. All those who do not win one of the many prizes will be paid a cash commission on the amount of business they turn in. There are six nice prizes.

Don't wait, but start out today and lay the foundation that will spell success for you in a few weeks. The main thing to do is to get started before someone gets into your territory. He who hesitates is lost. We can never run the race unless we start. It will help you to find yourself. The talents you have been hiding for years will develop and you will be surprised at the results of your efforts. Meeting the public will be a good schooling and help you in after life. You will find it an interesting and pleasant work and one that will increase as you advance.

This campaign is different than ones of the past. It is a profit-sharing campaign and worthy of your investigation. Notice the different features, the closing rules and that every one wins.

Call at the office, write or phone at once to the Campaign Manager Courier office for further particulars.

Farmers Fined For Raid On Auction House.

Fines of two dollars and a half were assessed at 2 o'clock this afternoon on eleven farmers of the Hinesville section charged with trespassing on Planters Warehouse on the occasion of the recent "raid." After the sentence had been imposed, following a hearing not without its animated moments, James H. Wilson arose and asked the court to remit the fines. Judge Carter consented to do this but counsel for the Tobacco Growers Co-Operative Marketing Association refused to accept such a disposition of the case. They will go to the Supreme court to thrash the thing out on its legal merits.

Danville Register.

Twenty-seven producers recently sold on the Watersboro curb market 170 fryers, 19 pounds of extra butter, 57 dozen eggs and vegetables, fruits, cakes and other things galore, reports Mrs. Rosalind Rodeman, home demonstration agent. The total sales amounted to $197.

Lesson for December 7

THE MAN BORN BLIND

LESSON TEXT—John 9:1-41. GOLDEN TEXT—One thing I know that whereas I was blind now I see.—John 9:25.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Opens a Blind Man's Eyes. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Heals a Man Who is Blind.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Loyalty to Our Savior. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Difficulties and Rewards of Confessing Christ.

1. Working the Works of God While It Is Day (vv. 1-5).

1. The Disciples' Problem (vv. 1, 2). In their minds all affliction, negative and positive, was God's retribution for sin. Therefore they argued that this man's blindness proved sin. They recognized, too, that the effect of sin is sometimes hereditary. This they no doubt inferred from the second commandment (Ex. 20:5). The implication is that they held the view that men have a pre-existence, and that suffering in this life may be the result of sins committed in that pre-existent state.

2. The Lord's Answer (vv. 3-5). The Lord avers that in this case there is neither sin on the man's part nor that of his parents, but that it was an occasion for the display of the works of God, and that He had come to execute this task while it is day, because the night comes when no man can work.

II. The Man's Eyes Opened (vv. 6, 7).

Observe that the means used in this miracle were little less than foolish in themselves. How illy adapted naturally would a plaster of mud be to apply to the eye, the most delicate and sensitive of all the organs of the body. What is more to be avoided than sand in touch with the eye? The object must have been to teach this man the utter inadequacy of the means to the accomplishment of the end that he might be caused to look from the means to the one who used them, that he might be convinced that the power was of God. Then, too, the washing in the pool would teach him the absolute necessity of immediate and explicit obedience in order to enjoy God's blessings.

III. The Man's Testimony (vv. 18-35).

In his testimony we have a fine example of the development of faith. The opening of this man's eyes aroused inquiry among his neighbors. When a man's spiritual eyes are opened there will be a stir among his friends.

1. He testifies to his personal identity (v. 9). This was very easy. His self-consciousness enabled him to know that he was the same man who was born blind.

2. He testifies as to how it was done (vv. 11, 15). So definite was his experience that he was able to tell just how it was done.

3. He testifies that the One who opened his eyes was a prophet (v. 17).

4. He testifies that this healer was no doubt sent of God (vv. 30-35), and is the greatest worker of miracles since the world began.

5. Finally, he worships Him as the Son of God.

IV. The Results of His Confession.

1. As to the people, they were divided in sentiment. Some believed He was from God because of His works; others that He was a sinner because He did His work on the Sabbath day.

2. As to the man, they cast him out. But being cast out by men he found himself in the arms of Jesus. He is led on to a deeper faith. He first saw Him as a miracle worker, then as a prophet, and finally as the Son of God, and when he perceived Him to be the Son of God he worshiped Him.

The whole lesson may be viewed from three angles:

1. As an acted parable of the life that issues in faith in Christ, an illustration of the spiritual sphere in terms of the physical sphere.

2. Testimony to the Deity of our Lord. This testimony is threefold: (a) The miracle itself, an unheard-of work, that a man born blind should receive his sight; (b) the unwilling admissions of the enemies themselves who made a public and official investigation; (c) the testimony of the man himself and that of his parents.

3. An illuminating example of faith's development.

True Freedom

True freedom has to do with the spiritual part of man, with that principle in him through which he is related to God. That can be free even though the body be loaded with chains. It was so with St. Paul, as with all other good and great men.

Faith

Faith is the holiness of God in the first uplifting force in religion. There is hope for the greatest sinner who can see the immaculate purity of God in contrast with his own soul. The vision of the sinner thus reveals to us the sinfulness of our sins.—Christian Standard.

In the Love of God

You must grow in the love of God by means of the root, rather than the branches.
