

IN LOVING MEMORY

It is with a sad heart I try to write a few words in loving remembrance of my dear friend. On Sept. 28, 1925, the Death Angel visited the home of Mrs. Charlie Duke and called from us her dear husband, Mr. Charlie Duke. Mr. Duke had been in declining health for some time, but the end came quietly. He leaves behind a mother, three sisters and three brothers, besides a wife and nine children to mourn his departure. His stay on earth was 55 years, 5 months and 14 days. He had many friends in this community whose hearts go out in sympathy to the bereaved family. He joined Mt. Harmony church several years ago. The Lord saw fit to take him out of this troublesome world to a world of peace and happiness. He was buried at home in the presence of a large crowd. "We love him, yes we love him, but Jesus loved him more. His voice softly called him over yonder shining shore." May the spirit of God ever be present to guide and direct those left behind as the wishes of a friend.—Evelyn Peed.

PAUL WRITES TO THE CORINTHIANS

LESSON TEXT—1 Cor. 13:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."—1 Cor. 13:13.
PRIMARY TOPIC—What Love Does.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Working Together.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Greatest Thing in the World.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Love, the Hope of the World.

The occasion of the writing of this epistle was:

1. The existence of rival factions contending each other. Some were for Paul; some for Apollos; some for Peter, and some for Christ. This factious spirit was threatening the disruption of the church.
2. Their failure to carry out church discipline.
3. Their going to law with each other.
4. Indifference to gross immorality.
5. Letters requesting information as to:
  - a. Marriage and divorce.
  - b. Food connected with sacrifices and festivals.
  - c. The exercise of spiritual gifts.
  - d. Disorder in the public assemblies.
  - e. The presence in the church of certain ones who denied the resurrection of the dead.

I. The Pre-eminence of Love (vv. 1-3).

It transcends:
1. Speaking With Tongues (v. 1).
For men to possess the loftiest eloquence and be lacking in love is to be as booming brass or a clanking cymbal.
2. The Gift of Prophecy (v. 2).
To be able to penetrate the mystery of nature and Providence is good, but to love is better.
3. Faith of the Most Vigorous Kind (v. 2).

Even though one should have sufficient vital faith as to remove mountains it is of less value than love.
4. Philanthropy of the Most Generous Sort (v. 3).

Even though one should have such a spirit of altruism as to be moved to surrender all earthly goods for the sake of the poor, unless actuated by love, he would have no recognition before God.
II. The Attributes of Love (vv. 4-7).

1. It Is Long-Suffering and Is Kind (v. 4).

It means not only to bear long, but to be kind all the while.
2. It Is Free From Envy (v. 4).
Those who are controlled by love are entirely free from the spirit of envy because of the superior worth and success of others.
3. It Is Free From Boasting and Vanity (v. 4).

Love strives to do good to all without seeking admiration and applause.
4. It Is Decorous (v. 5).
Love is always polite and mannerly; knows how to behave at all times.
5. It Is Unselfish (v. 5).

It is always seeking the good of others while forgetful of self.
6. It Does Not Give Way to Passion (v. 5).
It is not quick tempered.
7. It Takes No Delight in Evil (vv. 5-6).

It does not impute evil motives to others and is free from suspicion. Love has no sympathy with that which is evil.
8. It Bears All Things (v. 7).
That is, it incases itself in the precious mantle of love and shuts out all evil.

9. Love Is Trustful (v. 7).
It looks into the future with confidence.
10. Love Is Hopeful (v. 7).
It seizes the future of the future, brings them into the present and appropriates them for its use.

11. Love Is Firm (v. 7).
It intelligently sets its attention to things that are right, and with unvarying strength, holds fast.
III. The Permanence of Love (vv. 8-13).

1. It Outlasts Prophecy (v. 8).

Prophecy in the Scriptures means both a foretelling of events and the teaching of the Word of God.
2. It Outlasts Speaking With Tongues (v. 8).
The race once spoke the same language, but as judgment for sin and rebellion, God brought confusion and caused the people to speak many tongues.

3. It Outlasts Knowledge (v. 8).
The knowledge we now have is only relative, but the day is coming when the relative knowledge shall be done away by the coming in of a wider and nobler intelligence.

Cast forth the seed, thy word, into the ever living, ever working universe; it is a seed grain that cannot die; un-noticed today, it will be found flour, fishing as a banyan grove after a thousand years.—Thomas Carlyle.
