Weak In Back and Sides

"Before the birth of my little girl," says Mrs. Lena Stannel, of R. F. D. 2, Matthews, Mo. "I was so weak in my back and sides I could not go about. I was too weak to stand up or do any work. I felt like my back was coming in two. I lost weight. I didn't eat anything much and was so restless I couldn't sleep nights. My mother used to take

CARDUI For Female Troubles

so I sent to get it. I improved after my first bottle. Cardui is certainly a great help for nervousness and weak back. I took six bottles of Cardui and by then I was well and strong, just did fine from then on. Cardui helped me so much.

Thousands of weak, suffering women have taken Cardui, knowing that it had helped their mothers or their friends, and soon gained strength and got rid of their pains. Cardui should do you a lot of good.

Poem by Uncle John

Aint it funny that so many of our big, financial bugs was born in plebian circumstance—among the common pluggs? The Sunday paper tells us of a Railway Baron's climb from down among the alley rats that "ahmed" for half-a-dime! Another happy billionaire is—look in' back with pride to the barrel that he step in—while the other pups was tied! An still another heavy-weight has forged his way to fame—get rich by cleanin' cuspidors and stay-in' with the game! Then—view it from the other slant—we find some grenadiers that's squandered their inheritance in half a score of years! From out the lap of luxury they sputter, flash and fizz, to overcome the handicap that wealthy parents is! Their chapter of existence makes a mighty harrowin' tale, from affluence to penury—from liberty to jail. And then, the dis-illusion—it's too late to make a roas—when we learn, the son of fortune is the offspring of the poor!

The Judge's Josh

THERE'S JUST TWO PERIODS IN A WOMAN'S LIFE WHEN A MAN DOESN'T UNDERSTAND HER. THE FIRST IS BEFORE THEY ARE MARRIED. THE SECOND, AFTER THEY ARE MARRIED!

Plant a pecan tree this fall and enjoy some fine flavored nuts during the coming winters, advise horticultural workers of State College.

Why People Buy

From Stores That Advertise

You have often heard people ask this question, "Why is it I never strike a bargain like you do?" That person is not a wide-awake nor careful buyer and does not read the advertisements in this newspaper.

When a business man pays money to make a public announcement, he usually has something worth while to offer—something that is to your advantage to know. He has a money-saving sale, a new assortment of styles or extraordinary values of some kind to tell you about.

To take advantage of these opportunities you must get at the meat of the newspaper—its advertisements.
