

HOLD-UP IN RALEIGH

A Robber in Raleigh Rifles Cash Drawer and Has Gun Battle

Raleigh, Nov. 16.—The robber who thing store here this afternoon, rifled the cash register, and then engaged in a running gun battle with officers, died here late today from wounds received in the fight. The man gave his name as Andy "Slim" Anderson, of Memphis, Tenn.

Deputy Sheriff Will Mangum, wounded in the fight, is at a local hospital, said to be in a serious condition.

The man entered the store and asked to be shown suits of clothing. At a time when there were only three people in the store, he drew an automatic, ordered "hands up!" and rifled the cash register of $108.

Despite the robber's threat that he would shoot the first man who followed him, two of the three men in the store gave chase, and the man fired at them, but the shots went wild.

Cornered in a basement of a building a few blocks from the scene of the holdup, the man is reported to have cried to the officers covering him with their guns:

"You all have got me; let me run or I'll get one of you before I go."

He is reported to have started shooting then. Immediately the deputy sheriff began shooting, as did officers Saunders, Pearce and Gattis.

The officers and robber were rushed to a local hospital immediately after the shooting.

During the chase pedestrians were sent scurrying for cover. "I'll get somebody," he is reported to have shouted, as he ducked down the street, firing.

The local state prison has no record of Anderson, nor do prison officials know anything about the man's record in any other state they said.

Anderson told a minister at the hospital that he was 30 years old. He had no relatives he wished notified, he said.

OCT. RECORD BREAKING MONTH FOR FORD'S

Exceeding all expectations for daily output, Ford production went to a new record of 9,017 cars and trucks on Friday, Oct. 30, it was announced at the general offices of the Ford Motor Company Saturday afternoon. This remarkable industrial achievement becomes more important when it is recalled that sixty days ago assembly of cars had halted while materials for the improved types were being shipped to branches. Since that time production has steadily risen from practically nothing to record breaking heights.

Every week for the last three weeks, as the company's thirty-two domestic assembly plants swing into production, new daily records have been created. October will go down as a record breaking month, for with Saturday's assembly, production for the month will run in excess of 200,000 cars and trucks, exceeding any similar period in the history of the company.

FARMER OF HALIFAX IS HELD FOR MURDER

Two Virginians, Arguing Over Co-operative Marketing, Become Angry and One Is Killed

Danville, Va., Nov. 16.—A murder attributable to a difference over co-operative marketing occurred in Halifax county, near Scottsburg, yesterday, when Walter D. McKinney shot and instantly killed R. Carter Hancock, a wealthy farmer, at McKinney's home. Hancock dropped in on a friendly visit and they began discussion of the "pool" in which conflicting opinions were held.

Hancock, it is alleged, finally charged McKinney with reporting him for selling his leaf at auction instead of delivering it to the association and angry words resulted in McKinney securing a shot gun and shooting Hancock through the heart. An inquest was held today and McKinney is remanded back to jail without bond pending a hearing Thursday.

CHATHAM FARMERS STUDY VALUE OF EXPLOSIVES

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 23.—Chatham County farmers are interested in clearing their lands with the cheap government explosive, pyrotol, as shown by more than fifty turning out to study some demonstrations recently given in the county by H. T. Holman, engineer from the agricultural extension service at State College.

"Rocks and stump blasting demonstrated clearly that pyrotol is effective as dynamite and is the cheapest and most practical method of freeing land of stumps and bouldfarm of Mr. Tom Thompson, we blasted two pine stumps, each about 15 inches in diameter, using only 3 1-2 cents worth of pyrotol. Near these stumps was a holly tree twelve inches in diameter with a thousand p-uid boulder entwined by the roots of the tree. Both the rock and the tree were blown with 5 cents worth of pyrotol, using a single charge. When the boulder lay on the ground it was too heavy to handle, so it was blown to pieces with three ounces of pyrotol costing less than two cents.

"On the farm of Mr. Zeb Johnston, a boulder was blasted and broken to pieces at a cost of about 20 cents. Mr. Johnston stated that he had estimated the cost of removal at five dollars besides what it had cost him to farm around it during the last twenty years."

Mr. Holman states that local bankers, the county commissioners backing County Agent N. C. Shiver and leading farmers of Chatham are in making a cooperative order for 20,000 pounds of the explosive. Those farmers attending the demonstrations stated that they were well pleased with the results and were convinced that this material offered the solution for cheap land clearing.

Lesson for November 29

PAUL BEFORE AGRIPPA

LESSON TEXT—ACTS 25:1-26:32. GOLDEN TEXT—"It was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision."—ACTS 26:19.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Tells Why He Obeyed Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Tells a King About Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Obedience to the Heavenly Vision. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Defense of His Mission.

More than two years had elapsed since Paul had been tried before Felix, during which time Jewish hatred for him had not abated. As soon as Festus, the new governor, went to Jerusalem he was besieged with accusations against Paul. His accusers desired that he be brought to Jerusalem for trial, intending to tie in with and kill him on the way. Festus refused their request, but agreed to give them an opportunity to accuse Paul if they would go down to Caesarea. They were unable to prove anything against him. Festus, willing to please the Jews, proposed to send him to Jerusalem for trial, Paul rebuked Festus for this, declaring that he knew very well that he was innocent. Seeing that it was impossible to get justice before Festus, Paul made use of his right as a Roman citizen and appealed to Caesar. This surprised Festus. His failure to release an innocent man placed him in an awkward position for he could give no explanation as to why an innocent man should go to Rome for trial.

I. Paul Before the King (25:13-27).

The occasion of his appearing before Agrippa was the visit of Agrippa and Bernice to Festus. Upon their arrival they expressed a desire to hear Paul, whereupon Festus told them of his perplexity. So, it was arranged that Paul be brought before them for examination. The gospel should be preached to all regardless of wealth or station in life.

II. Paul's Defense Before Agrippa (26:1-27).

1. The Introduction (vv. 1-3). He expressed his delight that he now could speak and tell his case to one who was able to follow his line of argument, for Agrippa was an expert in questions concerning the Jews; but most of all he was now happy in witnessing to him of the Savior, and perhaps leading him into the light of God.

2. His Manner of Life (vv. 4-12).

This he showed had been in strictest accord with the most rigid sect of Jews. He possessed the same hope, i. e., that of a coming Deliverer, and reminded them of the fact that formerly he was most bitterly opposed to Christ as his zeal would prove.

3. His Supernatural Conversion (vv. 13-17).

Jesus Christ appeared to him on the way to Damascus and revealed Himself to him.

4. Jesus Christ Commissioned Him for His Work (vv. 16-18).

He was sent unto the Gentiles:

(1) To open their eyes so awfully blinded.

(2) To perform the blessed work of turning them from darkness to light.

(3) To turn them from the power of Satan unto God.

(4) That they might receive forgiveness of sins.

(5) And that they might obtain an inheritance among the saints.

5. His Consecration (vv. 19-23).

As soon as he received his commission, he obeyed. Every man should instantly obey the call of God and devote his life to carrying forward the work entrusted to him. The vigorous prosecution of his work brought him into conflict with the Jews for which they sought to kill him.

6. The Interruption by Festus (v. 24).

Seeing how thoroughly in earnest Paul was, Festus attempted to account for it by calling him a crank, attributing it to the ravings of an unbalanced mind.

7. Paul's Appeal to Agrippa (vv. 25-27).

Still maintaining his courage, he appealed to Agrippa's knowledge of the work of Jesus and of the prophets, for they have an intimate connection.

III. Agrippa Almost Persuaded (vv. 28-32).

Whether Agrippa's answer was a contemptuous sneer or not it is quite evident that his soul was wrought upon. He saw the claim of Christ upon him but was unwilling to yield. Sad, indeed, that a man should be so near to eternal life, and yet lost! Paul took Agrippa seriously. His heart longed that Agrippa, and all concerned, might accept Christ and be saved.

For Religious Peace

It would make greatly for religious peace in this country if we all learned to rejoice when we hear of others finding God in any way, and ceased to insist that our own way is the best.

Harry Lauder's Philosophy

There Are Three Worth-while Things in Life: "To live in a place you love and believe in— To have a job that inspires you to do fine things— To have a kindly neighbor over the garden wall." Person County is the place; farming is full of inspiration every day or every year; and we have the best neighbors in the world!
