SMALL DAMAGES IS DONE BY BIG HAIL

Several Windows Were Broken During Storm Which Visited City Sunday

HEAVY RAIN FOLLOWS

Several windows were broken, and other minor damage done by hail which fell in and around Durham about 4:20 o'clock Sunday afternoon The hall stones, for the most park were almost as large as hen eggs; and according to some of the older residents were the largest ever to fall within the city limits .-

The clouds that accompanied the hall came up rapidly and while the stones fell for only about five minutes, the clouds hovered over the city for more than an hour, heavy rain fellowing the hall. As far as could be learned no personal imjuries were sustained as the result of the huil. However, one resident of the northern section of the city was struck on the head by a large stone and dazed for a few se
