GOOD NEWS FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS

We have some good news for the boys and girls of this County. The past spring we decided to form a Boys Corn Club, and offered a prize of fifty dollars to the boy who would produce the most corn on an acre of land.

Well now, the good news. As we gave the prize this year to a boy we felt it was our duty to remember the girls with our next prize offer, and we are going to give fifty dollars to some girl in a Canning Club contest.

But the boys are not going to be left out, for the Peoples Bank has authorized us to offer another prize of fifty dollars to the boy who raises the most corn on an acre in 1927.

Now, boys and girls, begin to think about these prizes, and while it is a long time to you, but not to the older ones, before you will actually begin work to win these prizes, it is none too soon to begin laying plans for the work.

We have not mentioned it to any of our merchants, or business men, but we hope to interest some of them to the extent that some one will offer a second and third prize in each of these contests, so that if you do not win the first you still may be a winner.

SAVE—SAVE—SAVE

We all remember back in 1919 how plentiful money was, and how lavishly we spent it. We spent as though there never could be another lean year, and for the past several years we have all wished we had been more thoughtful and saved some of those dollars which we literally threw away.

clover and timothy, still, it was too good to let go to waste, and was far better than paying thirty or forty dollars a ton for hay next spring, much of which was no better than the crab grass or rag weed.

BE NEIGHBORLY

If you want to have friends, you must be friendly, and if you want to have good neighbors, you must be neighborly. Now, Roxboro wants every man, woman and child in this County to know that Roxboro is neighborly and wants to be neighborly to every family in the County.

Just what plans will be used to entertain the farmers have not been worked out, but it is hoped to make a gala day of it, and every farmer is expected to come, and you may rest assured that you will receive the glad hand. We will tell you more about it in our next issue, when plans will be more fully matured.

Lady Astor suggests to the Democratic party that it might be a good idea to nominate a woman for President, and thus kill off forever Al Smith and McAdoo. It is better to suffer defeat with a good candidate than to win with one in whom we might be disappointed.

It takes tobacco of color to make cigarettes, and the farmers tell us that they have never seen a crop where the color was better or more uniform. Another reason why we may expect good prices for our crop this season.

Prices on the Eastern markets get better and better every day. Monday the market at Wilson averaged better than twenty eight dollars, and the sales ran into the million pounds.

Indifference To Civic Duties

One of the crying sins of the American people, for a sin it is, is their disregard of their responsibility as citizens to vote. Men and women alike shirk this responsibility with an utter indifference to the fact that in doing so they are betraying their country.

The citizen who fails to accept jury duty unless there are providential reasons against it, or who fails to vote, is recreant to his responsibility to his family, to his city, to his state and to the country.

Small Town Newspaper Has Airplane Delivery

Temple, Texas, Sept. 13. —This small city of Temple, Texas boasts of the only small town newspaper in the country that has a regular airplane delivery route.

E. K. Williams, publisher of the Temple Telegram, was reading an article in a scientific magazine some time ago in which the author predicted that eventually all small town newspapers would be compelled to cease publication because large town dailies would have their newspapers delivered by airplane.

Mr. Williams has been interested in aeronautics since the early days of aviation and has owned planes for ten years. When he read the article he determined to find out if any attempt of large dailies to invade his circulation field. So he purchased two airplanes and employed an aviator as his route carrier.

His route of more than fifty miles was established. With the airplane service, the Telegram was able to increase its circulation in the nearby country.

M. Ingram pointed out that the newspapers served by airplane delivery reached newspapers within an hour after the papers come from the press, whereas previously the subscribers on the same route were fortunate to receive their Telegram the day following.

Condemns The Movies

Dear Editor: May I add a few words to the piece printed in your paper last week concerning the evil of Motion Pictures?

Facing the facts as they are I can't understand why it is that the church people, especially in the towns and cities where there is so much harm done, do not fight the evil pictures and not allow any except good pictures to be shown. Are they Christian or just asleep? Seems to me that anybody could see that the pictures, and other things that are allowed are carrying the young people to the devil and many times immorally. How people can sit still and see this happen even to their own children is more than I can understand.

I recall a case now of a fourteen year old room-mate I once had whose mother was dead, she lived in a North Carolina town and had attended picture shows from a small child. She, like the boys and girls spoken of in the article last week, was influenced by what she saw on the screen. So one day after having seen a picture in which someone was hanged, and after receiving some ill treatment from her step-mother, she decided to end it all by hanging her-self. And if she had not been hindered she would have taken her life, all because the picture suggested it to her as a way out of her troubles.

These extreme cases, however, are few, compared to the number of lives ruined by the evil influences of the vile pictures and other amusements that lead people into paths of sin. Knowing all this and seeing so many going to destruction and to hell how can christian people sit still and never make any effort to get the evil amusements out and replace them with good things? In the day of judgment who will have to answer for the many ruined lives? Can some one tell me? Lets get busy and not let it be us. A reader.

Allensville School Clasification Day Great Success

On Sept. 10th Allensville School was called together for classification. Students came in great crowds, trucks were loaded, more than two hundred enrolled, class room in some grades were filled. It seems quite likely that we will have to have more teachers. By two o'clock work was well organized, students and teachers were all well pleased at our bright prospects for this year.

The crowd was directed to the grove where the faithful folk had prepared five pots of the finest stew we have ever tasted. The community spirit is fine. Everything looks fair for a good school year. Send students at opening, it is important. Let us work together. N. J. TODD, Principal.
