START REGISTRATION FOR GENERAL ELECTION

Books Will Be Open Through Saturday, October 23; Challenge Day 30th.

ELECTION NOVEMBER 2

Registration for the general election started Saturday and the books will be open through Saturday, October 23.

Registration was not pressing because it was the beginning and people delay in such things. Also a new registration is not required; that is, people whose names are on the books do not have to register anew.

All persons who have arrived at the age of 21 since the past primary or general election and whose names are not on the books must register if they expect to vote. Also, those who have moved into the city or county since the last primary or general election must register.

The election will be held on Tuesday, November 2.

ROXBORO AND PERSON COUNTY RETURN THANKS

Fifteen Hundred People Return Thanks Unto God For His Bountiful Blessings

A DAY OF REAL REJOICING

The good people of Person County and Roxboro let it be known last Friday that they believed in the power of Almighty God to render assistance in the time of need.

An interesting program had been prepared and Rev. W. F. West, Pastor of Roxboro First Baptist Church, was in charge of the meeting.

The Roxboro public schools attended in a body, every business house in town closed for the occasion, and things on the streets from 11 to 12 o'clock like a deserted town.
