

Dairy Industry Grows In Tarheel State

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.—The dairy industry is making a healthy, substantial growth in North Carolina. Figures compiled by John A. Arey, dairy extension specialist at State College, show a remarkable growth in the dairy industry as witnessed by the fact that nine of the principal cities pay to the farmers of the surrounding sections $4,178,520 annually for milk. This does not include the total milk bill of these nine cities but is the amount of money they are paying to dairy farmers of their immediate section.

Mr. Arey states that there are twelve milk plants now in the State. Seven have been established since 1920. There are fifteen creameries which make butter and seven of these were also established since 1920 with others now being constructed. A total of 7,500 farmers are selling cream to these establishments for the purpose of making butter and the annual production of butter by the creameries amounts to 2,000,000 pounds. The annual production of cheese by the mountain factories is 75,000 pounds. The value of this cheese is $16,500 and the amount of cash paid to creamery patrons each year for butterfat is $640,000.

This income from the cheese and butterfat is in addition to the $4,178,520 paid annually for milk by the nine cities.

Another fact substantiating Mr. Arey's claim as to the growth of the dairy industry is that a Jersey cow of Mecklenburg County holds the all-southern butterfat production of 1,003.74 pounds. The state also has the only medal of merit bull in the South and the fifth in the Nation. There are more cow-testing associations in North Carolina than in any other state in the South except Virginia.

Then, above all else, there has been an increase of 250 per cent in the consumption of milk in the larger cities of North Carolina.

Great Years In The Nation's History

Interesting things have happened in 1926. Commander Byrd in a Fokker airplane, circled the North Pole. Photographs taken in Europe were transmitted on radio waves to America, and published in newspapers a few hours later. Gertrude Ederle, daughter of a New York butcher, swam the English Channel one hour faster than any of the five men who had swum it before her.

Is anything interesting going to happen in 1927?
