Trustee's Sale

Under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon me in that deed of trust executed by W. F. Long and wife and W. H. Long on June 15th, 1925, duly recorded in Register's Office of Person County, in Book 36, page 59-65, I will by request of parties as Trustee, on Saturday, Dec. 10th, 1927, at 12 o'clock Noon, at the Court house door in Roxboro, N. C., sell to the highest bidder at public auction the following described real estate as follows:

3. A one-eighth undivided interest in the following described lots or parcels of land formerly owned by Mrs. Rachel E. Long:

(a) That lot on the West side of Main Street in the Town of Roxboro, adjoining the lot of J. A. Long, W. F. Long and others, and known as the Home Place of the late Mrs. Rachel Long. See deed of E. G. Reade to Rachel Long, dated December 20th, 1883, recorded in Book Z, page 459, Register's Office.

(b) That lot on the East side of Lamar Street adjoining the lot of J. A. Long and W. F. Long on which is located a cottage house, it being the lot and house in which A. B. Stalvey formerly resided.

(c) That lot or parcel of land lying on the West side of Lamar Street in Roxboro bounded on the North by the Presbyterian Church lot, on the East by Lamar Street; on the South by lot of J. D. K. Richmond and on the West by other lands of the estate of Mrs. Rachel Long, upon which lot is located three cottage dwellings.

(d) That lot lying West of and back of the lot just above described adjoining the lands of J. A. Long es-late and others and containing four acres more or less.

(e) That tract of land in Roxboro Township bounded on the North by the public road from Brookdale to Allensville; on the East by J. L. Garrett; on the South by C. B. Brooks and the old J. A. Noell Place and on the West by the Roxboro Cotton Mill, containing 73 acres more or less and known as the Mountain Tract. See deed from W. F. Reade and others to Mrs. Rachel E. Long in Book QQ, page 148, Register's Office for fuller description.

(f) That tract of land bounded on the North by lands formerly owned by George Thomas; on the East by J. R. Perkins and John Walker; on the South by S. P. Williams and on the West by J. L. Clayton, containing 183 acres, more or less, and known as the "Terry Tract". See deed of Eliza A. Terry to Rachel E. Long, recorded in Book RR, page 394, Register's Office.

(g) That tract of land in Roxboro Township bounded on the North by S. P. Williams; on the East by the lands of Sam Pointer estate; on the South by the land of J. M. Blacklock estate and on the West by the lands of Josephus Younger estate, containing 140 acres, more or less and known as the "Dunn Tract". See deed in Book PP, page 523, Register's Office.

(h) That tract in Roxboro Township bounded on the North by J. H. Carver; on the East by F. O. Carver and others; on the South by the public road; on the West by J. A. Carver estate, containing 150 acres, more or less and known as the "Turtle Pond Tract", save and except about sixteen acres recently cut off and sold to the Town of Roxboro for High School purposes. See deed of W. F. Reade and others to Rachel E. Long, recorded in Book QQ, page 148, Register's Office, it being Tract No. 1 described in said deed.

(i) That tract in the Town of Roxboro bounded on the North by the lands of E. G. Long; on the East by lot of H. T. Connally estate; on the South by Reams Avenue and on the West by J. C. Pass and George Thomas containing two acres more or less and known as the "Meadow Tract". See deed of W. F. Reade and others to Rachel Long, recorded in Book QQ, page 148, Register's Office.

Peggy: I know. Don't rub it in.

Camel

One of life's great pleasures is smoking

Camels give you all of the enjoyment of choice tobaccos. Is enjoyment good for you? You just bet it is.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.

Let Us All Be Thankful

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day, and how much all of us have to be thankful for. The Lord has abundantly blessed us all, and especially the farmer. He has given you good crops, and what is equally to be thankful for, you are receiving good prices for your tobacco.

While it is wise and thoughtful to save all you can out of this crop, still, it is unwise to forget that you owe a duty to your fellowman; if you know of any one in need, it is your duty to help that one, and if you fail here you have failed in the one vital point in religion.

We are thankful to you for the encouragement you have given us in trying to help Person County and Roxboro, and we want to show our gratitude by helping you wherever and whenever we can; call on us.

HELLO BUDDY!

Who do you reckon I am?
