

CONFERENCE CLOSES WITH APPOINTMENTS

Revs. Herbert and Craven Returned Here; Rev. Nicks Sent To Cedar Grove

Durham, Nov. 27.—North Carolina Methodist conference heard the reading of pastoral appointments here today, chose Washington the 1934 convention city and memorialized the general conference in a resolution to ask Congress to grant exemption from military service to Methodists who are conscientious objectors.

Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon read the appointments and, after all business was completed, the conference adjourned.

A resolution was rejected in which the general conference would be memorialized to seek legislation in all states requiring notice of intention to wed five days before the marriage date.

Approving the appointment plan of pastoral rotating, Bishop Mouzon said that "our Methodist plan of sending preachers to churches and having our churches receive them without question is at present better than any other plan."

Most Preachers Employed.
He said the "problem of unemployed preachers is serious except in the Methodist church" and that "more than once recently I have had ministers of other denominations come to see in reference to pastorates in the Methodist church."

The bishop deplored the fact that "the salary trend for preachers has been downward."

He said some ministers have been living too extravagantly and he recommended that circuit riders scrap their automobiles and buy horses for the performance of their duties, saying members of the respective congregations will feed the horses, thereby eliminating the expenses of gasoline, oil, licenses, and car maintenance.

Bishop Mouzon announced pastoral appointments as follows:

SINGING CLASS COMING FRIDAY

year at the appearance of the class made the following comment which is typical of scores of articles of similar nature: "The Singing Class of the Oxford Orphanage will be with us on Saturday night of this week and give its concert in the High School auditorium. This is a yearly event that is always looked forward to and greatly enjoyed by our people and those of the surrounding communities. These young folks never fail to give an evening of genuine pleasure when they appear here. The local community is anxious for a record crowd to be present at the concert."

The Class is under the traveling management of Mr. L. W. Alderman who for many years has been leading this Class over the state. He has traveled thousands of miles and his thousands of friends among Masons as well as others look forward to his coming with the Singing Class. On account of transportation difficulties the Class is again using its own bus and its appearance on our streets is an object of interest. The members of the Class are entertained in the homes of Masons and other friends and the presence of these orphans in the homes of our people always gives an opportunity to see and hear something of the splendid work being done by the Masons and the State of North Carolina in taking care of children who are dependent.

"Jined The Farewell"

One day this week a certain gentleman who is operating a saw mill went to his place of business and found the operatives on a strike. When questioned as to what the trouble was one of the Negroes said, "No Sir, we can't work for you at the price you are paying; we have jined the Farewell."

Mr. Morris Honored

Mr. J. D. Morris, president of the Roxboro Telephone Company, was honored by the North Carolina Telephone association, which met in Concord last week, by being elected secretary of that association.

Wonder If The Dogs Were Helped?

One of our good subscribers was in the other day telling us about a family in his neighborhood which was being helped by the welfare department. He said there were twelve children in the family, and three dogs; the father of the family applied for relief, and nine pairs of shoes were sent to the children; we couldn't help but ask him if they sent anything for the dogs. If a man can feed three dogs, surely he can do something for his family.

Carried To Hospital

Mrs. W. W. Morrell of Jalong was carried to Duke hospital last week for treatment. Her friends are hoping she will soon be able to return home.

Twins Born

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ervin Moore are being congratulated upon the birth of twins, a boy and girl, born Friday, November 24th.

GET WINNING VOTES NOW; LAST $30 CLUB OFFER

of this last extra vote offer will more than likely have the better side of the argument at the end of the campaign.

Many Changes Taking Place
Candidates who have been slightly down on the list of standings are climbing steadily to the top. This is apparently making the ones who have had a few more votes to their credit realize that the margins of leadership are very narrow, and it's anybody's race for the automobiles and cash awards.

Saturday Last Day of Big Votes
To come out victorious in this race is the aim of every "live-wire" candidate, and from the activity the friends of the contestants are showing it appears that there is intense rivalry on every hand. Each candidate has his or her circle of friends boosting for their favorite—and their factions are "up in arms" in earnest, pitching in with enthusiasm and energy, trying to put their favorite candidate "across the wire" first.

Saturday night ends the last extra vote offer to be made for clubs of subscriptions and the biggest and best offer of the campaign is narrowing down to a matter of only a few hours. Soon—and almost before you know it—the last big extra vote offer will be over. They go way down, by all means. There is no time to be lost—every single moment is of vital importance and should be the means of pushing you that much farther to success.

Big Subscriptions Count Most

The big subscriptions count the fastest. Two 10-year subscriptions turned in by Saturday night earn 505,000 votes. Ten of these 10-year subscriptions would pile up 2,525,000 votes to any club member. Votes pile up rapidly during this extra vote offer on $30 clubs, and your chance to turn in subscriptions on this offer ends Saturday night. Keep in mind that voting power of subscriptions is now higher than it will be after Saturday night. It is to your interest to get in every possible subscription before Saturday night—because that is the end of the big votes. It is anybody's race for the automobiles and other awards. Next Saturday night is the final period of the big votes on $30 clubs.
