

CA-VEL AND BULLS SPLIT TWIN BILL

Ca-Vel Nosed Out Bulls In First Game 8-7, But Dropper The Second Contest 11-4

Playing before more than three thousand fans at El Toro park on Sunday Ca-Vel and the Durham Bulls split a twin bill in an exhibition contest, winning in the first game but dropping the second. Ca-Vel counted twice in the first three times in the second, adding two more in the fifth and one in the sixth. The Bulls could do little until the seventh when they pushed over two tallies and added three more in the ninth. The game ended with the tying run on second. At night the Bulls took a seven-inning game to the tune of 11-4, shelling Crowder, Briggs and E. Wilburn for fourteen hits, scoring four runs in the first, six in the second, and finishing with one in the fifth. Vessey permitted Ca-Vel eight baseruns but kept them well scattered.

Durham went into undisputed possession of the leadership in the Central Loop by defeating Wilton 4-2 on Saturday. Hillsboro, heretofore tied with the Bulls for first place, was rained out along with Ca-Vel. Jalong won a 9-0 forfeit when Raleigh failed to put on its appearance. Durham now holds a half-game lead over Harry Davis' matemen from Hillsboro.

TODAY and TOMORROW

CAPITALISM—defined

People speak of capitalism as if it were some sort of an organized plan imposed upon people unable to help themselves. Capitalism is merely a name for the system which has grown naturally out of mankind's ability to produce a surplus of wealth beyond immediate needs. Capital is nothing but wealth not required for productive use at the moment. Every man who has a dollar in a savings bank and does not need it is as much a capitalist as a millionaire.

Capital is destroyed only when it is consumed by individuals. It is not lost when it is invested in permanent things, like buildings and railroads. The individuals who invested may lose, but the building remains. The outcry against capitalism is not really aimed at the system, which is the only system under which real wealth ever accumulates, but against individuals who divert too high a proportion of their temporary share of the world's capital to non-social uses.

SOCIALISM—State Owned

Stripped of all of its sophomoric entanglements, the essence of Socialism is not the abolition of capital, but the ownership of all capital by the State. The tendency in that direction has been growing stronger for more than a hundred years. Private capital used to build and operate highways and bridges, charging toll for every traveller or vehicle that used them. Long ago those enterprises became investments of public capital.

REGULATION—U. S. Aim

What we seem to be heading for in America is a compromise between uncontrolled private Capitalism and Socialism. The compromise is the continuance of private Capitalism under State regulation. We have had that in the case of railroads for fifty years. It seems to be close at hand in the matter of telegraph, telephone and radio communications.

TAXATION—It Is Distributed

Since capital is merely the surplus product of labor above what labor received, the question whether that surplus belongs to the employer or to the labor which produced it is a vexed question that, in its turn, is the subject of continuous compromises, out of each of which labor gets a proportionately larger share.

Since public capital is exactly like private capital—that is, the surplus of wealth above what is consumed in the course of its production—it follows that the larger the share of capital accruing to labor, the larger the share of taxation must be borne by labor. There is no such thing as taxing capital out of existence. Individual capitalists may be taxed into poverty, but that is merely the conversion of private capital into public capital.

The only way capital is destroyed is by wasting it. Private individuals waste it by spending it on unproductive luxuries, great estates, yachts, in other ways that serve no legitimate need but are merely ostentation. Government wastes it by giving it away in return for little or no productive labor, and by letting political grafters steal it as it passes through their hands.

KIWANIANS IN REGULAR SESSION

The Roxboro Kiwanis club met in its regular weekly session last Monday night at 8:30 in the club room of the New Jones Hotel. After the discussion of a few matters of business the program was turned over to Robert Whitfield and Dewey Bradsher. Robert Whitfield introduced Mr. Hooper, of Durham, who sang two beautiful selections, accompanied by Miss Hooper at the piano. These were so much enjoyed by the group that the musicians were asked for an encore number which they very obligingly gave. Then Dewey Bradsher took charge and instructed the members to write a ten word telegram and pass it on for someone else to write a second telegram, using the first letters of each word in the original message, but not to see the first telegram. Many ludicrous combinations were the result. The meeting adjourned with a song by the group.

RURAL LETTER CARRIERS MEET HERE MAY 30TH

Meet In Annual County Convention At Hotel Jones Where Fine Dinner Is Served

The Person County rural letter carriers met at Hotel Jones May 30 at 12 o'clock for dinner, furnished by the three Roxboro carriers. There were thirty present including the Roxboro clerks, their wives, and some visiting carriers, retired carriers and substitutes. Rev. N. J. Todd made a very interesting and enjoyable speech. The welcome address was by C. C. Garrett pro tem for Postmaster A. P. Clayton, who was present but still suffering from a recent illness. Response was by T. J. Montague of Woodsdale.

The entertainment for the occasion was furnished by a trio, Miss Katherine Hatchett at the piano, little Miss Peggy Whitten with songs and tap dance, and little Miss Anita Kirby with acrobatic stunts and songs. This was much enjoyed by those present.

All old officers were re-elected as follows: N. H. Street, president; R. B. Woody, vice president; N. H. Fox, secretary and treasurer.

The secretary was instructed to wire Senator Bailey in regard to a bill now before Congress concerning the body, urging its passage, also to thank E. G. Long for the fine dinner and courteous service rendered the carrier body.

O. T. Kirby, manager of Palace Theatre, very generously donated tickets to matinee which practically all present gladly accepted.

We are grateful to all who helped in any way to make this the best meeting ever held in the county, according to several statements. The motion and second that Postmaster A. P. Clayton be complimentary all time member of the association was unanimously carried for his fine cooperative service and fine spirit in all things.

The annual meeting will be with the Woodsdale carrier next year. We hope all will be present. Let's look forward to the annual event. All carriers were made delegates to the state convention at Elizabeth City July 3rd and 4th. Let's go 100%.

N. H. Fox, Sec.-Treas.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

By NANCY HART

Cellars, basements and dank places about the home are breeding places for "thousand-legged" worms. Clear all places of damp rubbish and dust frequently with pyrethrum powder.

Furniture that has been polished often and has become "sloppy" should be wiped thoroughly with turpentine cloth which will take off the accumulation of oil from the old polish. Then repolish with any good furniture polish.

When cleaning any wood-work with water for refinishing be sure that the wood has had sufficient time to dry. Shellac or varnish on damp wood will turn white in spots after drying.

One of the best fabric bleaches is a chlorine bleach which can be had at almost any grocery store. Its technical name is Javelle water, but more often is sold under some trade name.

An alcohol stain on finished furniture can be removed by cleaning the stain with turpentine, down to the bare wood, then with finger-tip or small cotton pad apply stain in very thin coats until the correct tone has been attained. Finish with white shellac.

Scratched varnish on furniture should be wiped down well with turpentine cloth and then repolished. If scratches go through varnish, take off varnish to the wood and refinish entire piece.

Moth flakes or powdered cloves scattered at spots where ants frequent will drive them away, because they do not like the odor of either. There is also a thalate ant trap, now on general sale, which should be used for bad infestations.

To soften hard water in small lots add a little borax, or trisodium phosphate, which will cut the hardening salts.

Helium, famed for its use as a non-inflammable gas for dirigibles, may be used both to heat and to cool the home.

Without Impurities... DEATH!

"A Pure Food and Drug Act for plants would be a death warrant to all living creatures."
—SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

READ the above statement again. It seems strange. Yet no truer words have ever been written. If all impurities were eliminated from the soil, no man, no beast, no living thing, could stay alive.

Chilean Natural Nitrate, for many years, has stressed the importance of its Nature-given impurities. This magic plant food is the only nitrogen that comes from the ground. It is the only nitrate that contains Nature's blend of rare elements... Nature's own balance of vital impurities.

So you see the importance of protecting yourself by specifying Chilean when you buy nitrate. There are two kinds, Champion Brand (granulated) and Old Style. Both are genuine Chilean. Both are natural. Both have the vital impurities. You are safe with either one.
