WILL DISCUSS NEW IDEAS IN COOKING

Womans Club To Bring New Features for Approaching Cooking School

Home Service Expert

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

Demonstrations of electric dish-washing will be one of the features of the all-electric kitchen demonstration sponsored by the Woman's Club and being held at the High School on July 2nd and 3rd. Miss Vivian Bushong, of the Home Service Department of the Carolina Power & Light Company, will conduct the school, admission to which will be free.

MRS. VIVIAN BUSHONG

The magic of electricity for all other kitchen problems will be demonstrated by Mrs. Bushong, who is an authority on electric kitchen arrangement. She will show how, with the electric refrigerator, the homemaker can economize through quantity buying of perishables, through the use of left-overs formerly thrown away, and through the ease of preparation of inexpensive frozen desserts. She will also show how you may save time and effort through advanced preparation of meals. Delicious and tempting refrigerator desserts will be prepared. Cake batter, which can be made up in quantity and stored in the refrigerator for use when desired, will be mixed and put into the refrigerator until you are ready to bake, on the electric range. How to broil steaks and chops to an appealing golden-brown tenderness without fear of smoke or splattering grease will be featured by her.

In addition she will demonstrate the ease with which an electric range can be operated and show its supremacy to other types of cookery. In preparing vegetables she will show that practically no water is required. Unbelievable as it may seem, as much as ten pounds of potatoes can be cooked with one small measure of water. This method makes it possible to retain all the fine minerals and vitamins which are lost in the large amount of water necessary in many other types of cookery.

The all-electric kitchen demonstration will not deal simply with the preparation of foods. The correct method of setting tables for different occasions will be shown, and by no means the least attractive feature will be a Style Show to be conducted by participating merchants during the intermission.

IS SOMEWHAT EXAGGERATED

We believe in giving honor where honor is due, and would not take any deserved honor from any one but when we saw an article in the Durham Sun telling about the many things accomplished by Mr. J. L. Sally, formerly in charge of the construction program of the CWA in this County we must enter a demurrer. Mr. Sally was probably on his job, doing faithful service, but when the statement was made that he had completed all of the projects here we must object; as a matter of fact of the four large projects here, viz: Sewerage propositions, swimming pool, community house and the gym at the high school; as a matter of fact all of these projects are far from completion, all save the swimming pool being hardly more than started.

Roxboro is intensely interested in these projects, and since Mr. Sally's resignation scarcely any work has been done on any of them—and very little before Mr. Sally quit, and many of us are fearful that they will never be completed by the FERA, the alphabetical program which was created after the death of the CWA.

B. B. KNIGHT BACK

Mr. B. B. Knight returned Friday night from an extensive trip to Indianapolis and Chicago. Mr. Knight went from here to Indianapolis, visited the officials of the Indianapolis Insurance Co., and from there he went by plane to the World's Fair in Chicago. He reports an excellent trip.

Moriah Man Shoots Self

Some time during the early hours of this morning Mr. Lucius Mangum, well-known citizen of Moriah, fatally shot himself with a 22-calibre rifle in the temple. He was at his service station at the time of the suicide. It is said that a small boy was with him, and that Mr. Mangum sent him to the well for a bucket of water, and while the child was gone, he fired the fatal bullet. He is survived by several children and relatives. No motive for the act is known at this writing. Details are meagre, thereby hindering a more complete account.

All customers are asked to take note and do their Wednesday's shopping on Tuesday and buy groceries Wednesday morning or before.

PLEASANT CALLER

We enjoyed a pleasant visit from our good friend, Rev. J. H. Shore of Hamlet last Friday. As Mr. Shore stated, we who do no farming always know just exactly how it ought to be done, and we decided for the benefit of our farmer friends that if they would cut about half of the land they were not cultivating and go in for extensive farming, making one acre produce what they are now getting from two they would soon get rich—by making their land rich—and everything would be all right with the farmer and the country generally. Yes, sir, we both know exactly how it could be done.

TO PLAY DECISIVE GAME TOMORROW

Ca-Vel and Hillsboro will meet on the Bull field in Durham Thursday afternoon to play the deciding game for second place in the Central State Loop. This game was to have been played last Saturday, but was rained out. Each team has won six and lost three games, with Durham holding the top form with seven wins and three losses. The winner Thursday will meet Durham for the first-half banner.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS COMMUNITY FISH FRY AT HURDLE MILLS

Widows Give Notice That They Read List Of Eligibles In Our Last Issue

The good people of Hurdle Mills community gave a fish fry last Friday afternoon at the old mill, and were kind enough to invite us to participate. The editor, and the junior editor, Mr. F. O. Carver, were there and did full duty in every way required, which consisted in this instance of seeing which could eat the most fish. Well, F. O. Jr., has the advantage of us by about seventy-five pounds, and of course you know who won in this contest.

The grounds where these picnics are held are ideal, located between two streams, with a fine sandy soil and an abundance of shade. And best of all, there are no better people on the globe than you find at Hurdle Mills, they are progressive, up-to-date, and if you are not looking for trouble you had best not say anything derogatory concerning their splendid high school. About 75 of these good people had gathered for this community fish fry, and everything was as near perfect as you will find; the fish were done to a turn, and that corn bread; honestly, we have never tasted better. It was cooked by the recipe of the old black mammy—corn meal, salt, and water. We had thought this mode of cooking had just about been forgotten but they still know how in this community. And by the way, when we were complimenting the cooks they informed us they had read the advertisement in our last issue about those three eligibles, and we were instructed to tell them that corn bread was prepared by some widows. Well, all we have to say is, they know how to cook, and these eligibles are tipped off to the fact.

We thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon and hope it may be our good pleasure to have another invitation to this fine community.

ROOSEVELT GIVES ORDER FOR FUNDS TO DROUGHT AREA

President Directs Allocation Of $150,000 For Drought Relief Projects

HAS FAMILY REUNION AT HYDE PARK HOME

Hyde Park, N. Y., June 24.—President Roosevelt ordered immediate allocation of $150,000,000, of drought-relief funds today as he scanned national affairs in the quiet of the study in the family home here overlooking the Hudson River. The day was devoted principally to a family reunion with Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt and their baby, but the presence of Governor Lehman and Edward J. Flynn, Bronx Democratic leader, at dinner offered opportunity for a significant, state political discussion.

Flynn is New York Secretary of State. Postmaster General Farley, national and state Democratic chairman, is in New York City and may come here before the President leaves tomorrow night for Washington. It has been assumed Governor Lehman will run for re-election this year.

Direct Grants. The principal item of the drought relief allocation is $56,250,000 for direct grants to states under the Federal Relief Administration. The other amounts in the drought fund executive order include: $43,750,000 for purchase, sale, gift or (Continued on page five)

ROOSEVELT WILL TALK TO PEOPLE OF NATION AND GIVE ACCOUNTING

Progress Made Under New Deal Will Be Main Topic

ANNNOYED AT STORIES

Washington, June 26.—The People of North Carolina will have an opportunity Thursday night to hear President Roosevelt give an accounting of the progress thus far made under the new deal program, a speech which will probably be of 20 minutes duration. The President is to leave Washington Saturday for his vacation, which will include a visit to Hawaii, returning via the northwest in five or six weeks.

In the talk Thursday night, which is to be one of the famous fireside chats, the President is expected to present a digest of the work of the administration since the beginning of the year, and the hope is entertained that the President's utterances will afford an intimation of what his fellow countryman may expect during the remainder of the year, and from the next session of Congress.

More than likely Mr. Roosevelt would have delayed this accounting until after his vacation, and until he had "spoken" his way back to Washington, had it not been for the very great annoyance he has experienced over newspaper stories which have attributed to him an intention of making a political and oratorical effort to "sell" the new deal to the people. In the first place, it was made very clear in White House circles this afternoon that Mr. Roosevelt does not believe that "selling" the new deal is necessary; he believes that it has already been sold by what has been accomplished, the improvement that has taken place in the social and industrial life of the nation.

It was said for the President today that the speeches, that are to punctuate his return from the northwest to Washington, are to be non-political, in the sense that they will not deal with political parties, for the President is said to be convinced that his approach to correction of evils that have beset the people goes far deeper than mere political alignments. In other words, spokesmen of the administration insist that the new deal is to be regarded as a peoples' movement.

HAIL INSURANCE

"Knee Action" in an automobile absorbs the bumps and permits the car to glide forward smoothly without so many ups and downs. Hail insurance will help you avoid the "downs" in crop production. Hail is something that you can neither prevent or avoid—if it comes—it comes, and wipes out a year's labor.

It costs no more to have this protection now than later and if you get it now you will not be worrying when hail comes—no matter how soon. Call, telephone or write to find out how to get this protection for your crops. It is cheaper than ever before.

Craven, and the address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. F. Herbert. The choir was composed of members of the various churches, and a beautiful duet was rendered by Mrs. H. W. Newell and Mr. Rufus Woodard. After these welcoming ceremonies Rev. Mr. Hamilton delivered the sermon, which was enjoyed by every one present.

MR. AND MRS. J. ALEX PAINTER

LIVED TOGETHER ALMOST 60 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Alex Painter Died Within Week, After Long Married Life

MARRIED JUNE 14, 1874

Mr. and Mrs. J. Alex Painter were married on June 14, 1874. Mr. Painter was born on March 20, 1852, and died on April 29, 1934. Mrs. Sarah Mitchell Painter was born on December 21, 1856, and died on May 5, 1934, only five days after her husband's death. Had they lived until the fourteenth of this month they would have rounded out sixty years of married life.

In 1924 Mr. and Mrs. Painter celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. To this happy couple there were born fifteen children who will have with them forever the picture of their parents in their long life together. Mr. and Mrs. Painter confined their activities to the divine calling of rearing fifteen honest, up-right citizens, and providing for them until such a time as they could provide for themselves. They made their home in the Olive Hill section of the county, and from that home they have sent out these children into the world, living in the reflected joy of seeing their children attain success, and going down that long road, from which there is no return, almost simultaneously, there being only seven days between the times of their deaths, Mr. Painter passing on April 29, and Mrs. Painter on May 5.

WHAT ABOUT A PUBLIC BUILD'NG FOR ROXBORO?

We see by the paper where a neighboring town has succeeded in getting an appropriation from the Federal Government to buy a site and build a Government building to be used as a post office. This town is very little more than half the size of Roxboro in population or in a business way.

What have we done, towards getting something of this kind for ourselves?

I'm telling you, the reason we do not get our part of the many Federal aid monies, is that we are not alive to the better interests of our community. We seem to be in a passive mood. I beg you, let's awaken and move forward with a campaign of aggressiveness and never say quit until we have won. Where is Vox Populi.

R. A. Burgh.

FISHING PARTY

The following gentlemen left Saturday night for Lake Cahoon on a fishing trip: Messrs. M. A. Stewart, N. V. Brooks, Lawrence Woods and Aubrey Long. They returned Monday night, reporting a good trip with plenty of fish.

GENERAL JOHNSON SAYS MILLS MUST MAKE CONCESSION

Convinced That Harriman Company Violated Provisions Of Hosiery Code

TELLS OF ATTEMPTS TO SETTLE DISPUTE

Washington, June 26.—A determined assertion by Hugh S. Johnson that the shut-down Harriman Hosiery Mills must make labor concessions to regain a Blue Eagle today put the question of the government's next step—legal prosecution—up to Attorney General Cummings.

"The prosecution part of the case is in the hands of the Department of Justice," Johnson said. "I don't know what the Justice Department is going to do. It's a little bit embarrassing."

For himself, answering Harriman charges of "persecution," Johnson said flatly.

"I have no doubt of the violation of the code. I have less doubt now than ever before."

First Hearing.

On June 18, the Justice Department replied that a complete file of evidence had not been submitted, but that on the basis of a transcript of hearings before the Atlanta regional labor board, it did "not consider the evidence sufficient to warrant legal prosecution."

Johnson said Cummings had been given a complete file in the case, including all records of the National Labor Board's and NRA's efforts to adjust the controversy. Cummings has not yet indicated a new decision in the case.

PUTS UP OLD WEATHER VANE

The poets say that the wind bloweth where it listeth, but we think that the folks to the courthouse are determined to keep up with it, in so much as they have put back the old weather-vane that used to be on the old courthouse building. This we commend because it relieves the flatness of the top of this building and will also serve a useful purpose. First the benches and now the weather-vane. Surely the courthouse custodian is a thoughtful man.

SUFFERING FROM SPRAINED ANKLE

Little Betty Gay Masten while playing in the front yard fell last Wednesday afternoon and sprained her ankle. An X-ray was taken and it was found that the ligaments were torn loose and after bandaging it she was informed that she must not put any weight on that foot for ten-days. Mrs. Masten can tell you how easy it is to keep a child from walking for ten days; but Betty Gay is getting along fine, and is suffering no pain from the accident.
