

Looking Back Ten Years

The Following Items Were Picked At Random From An Issue Of The Courier This Week's Issue Ten Years Ago

Bradsher Again Hits Top Gun Mark at Hogan: Carl Bradsher, veteran trap shop and gunner of no mean ability, last night astounded the fans at the Westy Hogan Lodge on Absecon Boulevard by fracturing 50 clay birds of 50 thrown from the dugout in one of the neatest exhibitions ever seen here.

John W. Davis Nominated: By acclamation on the 103rd ballot. Just before going to press, 2:30 P. M., news was received here over the radio located in the Newton-Wilkerson Drug Store, that Hon. John W. Davis, of West Virginia, had received the nomination for President on the Democratic ticket.

President's son is dead after a losing battle with poison: Washington, July 7.—Calvin Coolidge, son of the President, died tonight at Walter Reed hospital of blood poisoning. The end came after the boy had battled with the utmost bravery and fortitude for five days against a disease which had racked his body with pain and sapped the reserve strength of his frail constitution.

Life Long Subscriber: Mr. H. T. Clayton, one of our old-time subscribers, renewed again last Friday. Mr. Clayton says that he has been subscribing for The Courier nearly ever since the first issue, and unless times get very much harder will continue as long as he lives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Woody and guests, Miss Annie Seviens and Clarence Seviens, of Somerset, Ky., spent a few days last week at Wrightsville Beach.

Mess. R. L. Harris and M. R. Long left last Wednesday for Providence, R. I., where they joined a yachting party and will spend ten days roaming the sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Whitted and son, Marion, Jr., have returned to Goldsboro after spending ten days with Mrs. Whitted's mother, Mrs. H. G. Clayton and other relatives in the county.

Mrs. E. W. Murphy was carried to Durham to the hospital last Monday for an operation. She stood the operation very well and is getting on very nicely.

Mrs. J. D. Cochran, of Newton, after a visit here to relatives, left for her home Thursday morning. She was accompanied by her nephew, Master Preston Satterfield, who will spend a week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hughes returned last week after an extended trip to Atlantic City, Canada and other northern cities. They will leave this week for their home in Greensboro.

Kinston Visited By Downpour Of Rain

Kinston, July 5.—Five and one-tenth inches of rain fell here Sunday afternoon, Sunday night and Monday morning. That was as much rain as should fall in 38 or 40 days in this part of the country.

HELENA BEATS CEDAR GROVE

The ball team won over Cedar Grove by the score of 5 to 4, behind the good pitching of Blalock and Clayton. Helena collected eight hits off Chandler while Blalock and Clayton gave up only four. The Helena team will meet the strong Farrington club here Saturday, July 14, at 3:30.

New Orleans had many streets paved with stones brought from Europe. In olden days the city paid a bounty to incoming ships which brought rock ballast instead of sand. For the region around New Orleans contained no suitable paving stone.

HearD about TOWN

It seems that all our folks who took off to Chicago and the World's Fair last week have come home safe and sound, so we presume they had no difficulty in phasing the "big time gangsters" that we hear so much about.

Heard a farmer say the other day that he was going to priming his crop this past Monday. Well, that's one thing the government can't keep him from doing, nor help him either when old Mother Nature wants to act a wee bit contrary.

Hurrah for the Federal Emergency Relief Administration. At last there is actually signs of work going on over at the swimming pool. But, alas, we are afraid that our acclamation was a little bit premature, because they were only putting up barricades to keep the children from getting "wet."

From where we work we can observe many things that are going on; and you know ever since they put in the Elevette over across the street we have been seeing more of George Cushman than ever before. Wonder why?

We hear that two of our most prominent citizens, Messrs. Melvin O'Brian and L. K. Walker, had a little auto smashup over here at the swimming pool last week. Looks like the swimming pool is getting a lot of folks into trouble.

If you want to find where everybody is these hot days just go out to Miss Katie Sue Russell's lake and there you will find all who can get in the water; they are there trying to cool off. (Should we say Miss Katie Sue Russell's lake or Katie Sue's and Charlie's lake, or Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson's lake). We don't know but we keep hearing it rumored around that Miss Katie Sue Russell and Charles Nelson tied the knot of matrimony last week; if it is true, then we wish to extend congratulations and wish them many years of happiness.

FACTS

If you are stitching seams of any heavy material such as cotton or canvas, rub the seams with any good hard soap and the needle will go through the goods very easily without breaking.

Onion On Hands After peeling onions rub a little dry mustard on the hands, rinse in cold water and all onion odor will be gone.

When Coffee Spills To remove fresh coffee stains from the table linen, dampen a cloth with cold water and rub gently. One or two applications will usually be sufficient.

Burned Vegetables When vegetables burn in cooking, take the kettle off of the stove and put in a basin of cold water until cool. Remove the vegetables into another kettle and they will not taste burned.

Hurdle Mills P. T. A. To Meet On Friday

On next Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock, a meeting will be held at the Hurdle Mills high school building by the local P. T. A. This meeting will be held principally for the purpose of getting a canning project started that all surplus vegetables may be taken care of so that they may be used in soup next winter.

Every former and present member of the P. T. A. is urged to be present, and anyone else who is interested, whether married or single, is requested to come. The social committee, Mr. H. B. Gentry and Messdames N. D. Harris and Earle Long, will have something interesting for the group after all business is disposed of.

Zero Up 5 Times In Casino Roulette

Monte Carlo, July 5.—"Zero" turned up five times in succession in the roulette salons early today—a 1,500,000 to 1 chance. An Englishman in blue beach pajamas, name unknown, played the 1,000 franc ($65) limit each time and won 175,000 francs ($11,543). Had she been permitted to double she would have won 35,486,875 francs at 85 to 1, or $3,527,944.275.

Drought Hits Germany

Berlin, July 7.—Germany, like many other countries, is suffering greatly from lack of rain. In many places crops are being ruined by the early heat and dryness. Navigation on the upper Elbe is in danger.

Lea's Chapel Celebrates Homecoming Day Sunday

Mr. Willie Rogers, Steward For Fifty Years, Receives Honors

On last Sunday Lea's Chapel Church celebrated their annual homecoming day. On this day it is always the custom for old members and friends to come back and visit with the members of the church. A large crowd gathered there on this past Sunday to hear Rev. E. B. Craven in a most interesting and inspiring sermon at the eleven o'clock hour.

This Golden Anniversary of yours affords us an opportunity to express our appreciation of the splendid service you have rendered the church in the office of steward for fifty years. Anything we may say or do will be inadequate and unworthy. However we want you to know that we love you and that we appreciate with all our heart sacrifices you have made for us and for the Kingdom of God.

As a true soldier of the Cross you have engaged successfully in many hard fought battles. Through all these years you have been pressing forward toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus and today you stand upon the holy mount of spiritual triumph a workman that need not be ashamed. You have fought a good fight. Soon you will have finished your course, but you have kept the faith. Surely there is laid up for you and for all who are faithful unto death a crown of life.

Did you ever stop to think that people read newspapers because they want them? The newspaper is not forced on anyone. People pay for it and pay for it regularly. Whole families await it eagerly and quarrel good-naturedly over their individual turns to read it.

We rejoice with you in your achievement, and therefore take great pleasure in awarding you this little token of our love. It symbolizes what words cannot express. May it ever be a reminder to you of work well done. With it we give you the assurance of our continued prayers and ever abiding affections.

Following the reading of the above letter Mr. Craven presented Mr. Rogers with a beautiful gold ring with the initial R cut upon it. Mr. Rogers thanked him in a few well chosen words. Then Mr. W. R. Wilkerson, on behalf of the Board of Stewards of the church presented Mr. Rogers with a Bible, saying that the board could think of no more appropriate gift for one who had served so long and so faithfully.

HUNTING STAMP TO RESTORE WATERFOWL

When hunters plank down a dollar for the new Federal hunting stamp at their nearest post office, they will receive no ordinary carrier of musilage. Nearly twice the size of a special delivery stamp, the hunting stamp shows a waterfowl scene which is the work of J. N. ("Ding" Darling, who was a nationally known cartoonist long before he became chief, a few months ago, of the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"No, one, however," says Mr. Darling, "is under any obligation to kill a duck just because he owns a Federal hunting stamp, nor is there any rule to prevent a man who wants to help restore the migratory waterfowl from purchasing several of these duck-saving stamps. Every dollar will be devoted to the cause of conservation."

Authorized by the recent Congress and to be issued shortly by the Post Office Department, the new stamp will be on sale at post offices in all county seats, in all towns with populations of 250 or more, and in certain waterfowl centers. The sale of stamps will provide funds to help conserve ducks and geese and other migratory waterfowl by the establishment of sanctuaries. Everyone over 16 years of age who hunts migratory waterfowl is required to have a Federal hunting stamp in his possession, affixed to the regular State hunting license or to a special certificate furnished by the postmaster if a hunting license is not required.

Over-shooting and the effects of the prolonged drought, the Biological Survey explains, have seriously decreased the supply of waterfowl. Drainage operations in past years

GUESTS

Did you ever stop to think that people read newspapers because they want them? The newspaper is not forced on anyone. People pay for it and pay for it regularly. Whole families await it eagerly and quarrel good-naturedly over their individual turns to read it. Each praises and criticizes it as one is prone to criticize the other members of the family. The newspaper is a definite part of the family. That is why its sales force is immeasurable. Door to door salesmen use all kinds of ingenious devices to get inside the home. But the newspaper is a welcome guest. One type of selling is forced, the other type is received cordially. Door to door handbills are an intrusion upon the privacy of the home, but the newspaper is invited in. Its messages are read avidly and its advertisements are considered a part of these messages.

"Full Feeling" After Meals

Here is how Theford's Black-Draught proved helpful to Mr. Archie W. Brown, of Port Green, Fla.: "I have taken Black-Draught when I have felt dull from over-eating or eating too hurriedly," he writes. "Small doses right after meals rid me of gases and heavy feeling. I am a great believer in Black-Draught."

have destroyed millions of acres of marsh and water-areas formerly inhabited by waterfowl, fishes, and fur-bearing animals. Much of the land so drained has turned out to be practically useless for farming or for any other purpose. The money received from the sale of the new hunting stamp will be used to remedy these mistakes of the past by restoring some of this wasted land to the country's wild life and to purchase other marsh lands not yet destroyed.

Not all the money for this restoration program, the Bureau points out, will come from the pockets of the sportsmen, however, for the President, recognizing that wildlife, like the forests, is a valuable national resource, is planning to devote additional sums, to extending the sanctuary system. The stamp sale will probably provide funds ranging between $600,000 and $1,000,000 annually, according to estimates by the Biological Survey.

The surgeons found a ruptured abscess of the appendix, with peritonitis already set in. The giving of an irritating physic was a most dangerous thing to do, under the circumstances. They saved his life, but it was a close call. It took four times as much hospital attention, including several transfusions of blood, to keep the pulses going. I have written several letters on this subject, and I hope this further warning is not superfluous; NEVER give a harsh purgative in case of an abdominal pain.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Drop a few lumps of sugar in the rinse water for dainty lingerie. It will take the place of the usual starching, making it beautiful after ironing.

To be sure that net curtains will hang straight after laundering, put them on the poles at the window while they are still wet. When they dry they'll fall in graceful folds.

Another method for removing the scorch is to boil the cloth in milk and turpentine to which soap has been added. When dried in the sun, the scorch will disappear.

Rather than rub silk on a board when washing, sponge the silk with a piece of flannel in lukewarm water.

Flannels should be washed in tepid water with a pure white soap. Wash flannels by squeezing rather than rubbing them in soapy water.

A good cleansing mixture for removing spots is made of 1 1/2 drams ether, 2 drams alcohol, 1 1/2 drams of chloroform and 1 pint of naphtha. Fabrics may be soaked in this mixture without injury, and there'll be no rings left when it is used to remove spots.

If chewing gum has been accidentally dropped on clothes, simply hold a piece of ice over the spot tightly for a few minutes. This hardens the gum and it can then be scraped or brushed off readily.

Velvet, held over a gallon of boiling water to which a half cup of ammonia has been added will be restored to its original, fresh appearance. The pile of the velvet should be held inwards.
