HOME OF QUALITY LUMBER

A HOME OWNED STORE THAT IS WORTHY OF THE PATRONAGE OF HOME LOVERS

Sergeant & Clayton went into the grocery business in Roxboro over thirty years ago. Through all these years, before the NRA was ever thought of or ever came into the business life of this County, this concern was ever anxious to do its part. If there are any among us who fail to appreciate the activities of this very live, yet old concern, they must indeed be new comers, for no resident of five years could be so blind.

Housekeepers like not only to have their own homes look spick-and-span, but also like to buy their eats from such a place.

Sergeant & Clayton knowing this to be true years ago adopted the motto "The Sta-Kleen Store." Visit their store this week and see how well they live up to this motto. A cleaner, prettier store is seldom seen.

Yes, they are worthy of home lovers patronage.

Society Notes

Miss Pinchback Weds Mr. S. C. Wilkerson

In an impressive ceremony the marriage of Miss Blanche Allen Pinchback of Semora, N. C. and Mr. Samuel Clair Wilkerson of Ridgeville was solemnized Sunday August 26th at New Hope Church immediately following the morning services. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. John Newman of Milton, N. C. sang "I Love You Truly". Mrs. Edgar Morton of Semora, accompanist. To the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" the groom with his best man, Dr. William Wilkerson of Duke University medical staff, entered from the vestibule and passed down the right aisle, while the bride with her Matron of Honor, Mrs. James Stephens of Roxboro, N. C., came down the center aisle and met at the altar. The vows were pronounced by Rev. N. R. Claytor of the Milton Presbyterian church, using the ring ceremony. The bride wore a suit of Brown Triple Sheer Crepe with matching accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of Sweetheart roses. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a motor trip through the Carolinas and will be at home in Ridgeville, N. C. after September 1.

Mrs. Wilkerson is well known in Caswell and Orange where she has taught school for some time and has a host of friends. She is a woman of sticking personality and is held in high esteem. She was educated in Caswell schools and Greensboro College for Women. Mr. Wilkerson is a prominent business man of Caswell County, being Post Master at Ridgeville. He is also engaged in farming and the mercantile business.

NEWLYWEDS GIVEN SHOWER

Misses Odell Hamlin and Nellie Blackwell were joint hostesses at a lovely miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Hamlin last Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Forris Hamlin.

After several games which created much interest among all, the bride and bride-groom were called into the house to answer the telephone. Upon their return to the lawn, they found a table beautifully decorated with flowers and heavily laden with attractive and useful gifts from friends and relatives.

MRS. LONG ENTERTAINED AT PARTY ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Reams Long delightfully entertained a host of friends last Wednesday evening from 8 to 11:00 honoring her sister Miss Louise Cates who will be leaving in this month for E. C. T. C. Greenville.

Friends invited were: Eloise Hester, Merrilion Averitt, Florence Moore, J. A. Cates, Marion Crumpton, Thomas Monk, Wilma Long, Cooper Cates, Odell Hamlin, Hester Cates and the honoree Miss Cates.

Formal Opening

I wish to announce to the people of Roxboro and the surrounding community that I will have a formal opening of my Funeral Home on South Main Street, directly in front of the Rock Inn Service Station, on Friday, Sept. 7th, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M., at which time the public is cordially invited to inspect this home. I have spared nothing in making this the most up-to-date place of this kind that you will find in any town the size of Roxboro. I have modern equipment in every way, ample space to hold funerals. A complete stock of the very latest that can be had in funeral supplies, and am sure that I can take care of your every want.

The conveniences in this modern funeral home are too numerous to mention. Come and see for yourself. I think it will be well worth your time and I will consider it as a personal favor.
