Six Stars Head Big Cast In New Music Spectacle, "Dames"

Warner Bros.' latest musical spectacle, "Dames," which comes to the Palace Theatre on Monday-Tuesday, Oct. 1-2nd, carries an unusually large and talented cast headed by six stars. And in addition to the principals, there are 300 of Hollywood's most beautiful chorus girls, who appear in the novel Busby Berkeley ensembles, besides hundreds of extras.

Joan Blondell heads the list of principals, playing the part of a gold digging chorine while Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler provide the romantic interest, the two screen lovers appearing opposite each other for the fourth time in pictures.

The other stars include Zasu Pitts, who has a comedy role as Ruby's mother, Guy Kibbee in the role of her husband and Hugh Herbert as an eccentric millionaire who promises to leave them his fortune on condition that they prove to be a fine moral fibre.

Others in the cast include Arthur Vinton, Phil Regan, radio's "Singing Cop," Sammy Fain, the noted song writer, Arthur Aylesworth, Johnny Arthur, Lelia Bennett, and Berton Churchill.

Willie Reid of Altamahaw, Alamance County, had extension poultryman C. J. Maupin show him how to caponize 60 cockerels last week.

Hell-Cat Battles Newshound In Film Coming To Palace

When a hell-cat and a newshound meet, there's hell to pay! That's what happens in "The Hell Cat," the Columbia picture showing for Special Shows, Friday night and Saturday morning, Sept. 28-29, at the Palace, featuring Ann Sothern and Robert Armstrong. Miss Sothern, as a spiteful society girl, toyed with men's emotions with cat-like stealth until an adventurous news-hound, in the person of Robert Armstrong, taught her the rules of the game.

But it's much more than a romantic combat. Before these two finally fall for each other's charms, their adventures involve gambling raids, smuggling of Chinese, and a series of hair-raising and humorous exploits that are veritable dreams come true for adventure lovers.

Others in the cast of this romantic thrill-drama are Minna Gombell, Benny Baker, the "Shawowski" of radio fame, Lou Holtz, stooge, J. Carrill Naish, Purnell

Ovation For Ray

That audiences do not forget old favorites was proven recently in Los Angeles when the Paramount studios held the first public preview of "Ladies Should Listen," coming Thursday, Sept 27, to the Palace Theatre.

In this picture, Charles Ray, one-time star of country boy roles, stages his comeback in a minor role.

The applause with which the audience greeted his first scene on the screen was nothing short of a rousing ovation. Since then, several offers from various producers have been received by Ray.

Joan Wheeler Wins Picture Chance By Leaving Hollywood

Joan Wheeler was born in Los Angeles and after graduating from the local schools tried to crash the movie gates and could not.

She got her first opportunity to play on the legitimate stage at the Pasadena Community Playhouse with which she was associated for two years. Then she got an opportunity to go to New York where she was an immediate success.

Now she is back in her home town playing in pictures. She has appeared in "Madame Du Barry," "Smarty," "Twenty Million Sweethearts," and "The Merry Frinks." She appears in Warner Bros. "Desirable," coming to the Palace
