NEW JERSEY ASKS FOR RIGHT TO TRY GERMAN PRISONER

Formal Extradition Request For Custody of Hauptmann Taken to Gov. Lehman

BRONX PROSECUTOR AGREES TO REMOVAL

New York, Oct. 9.—Extradition of Bruno Hauptmann into stand trial for the kidnap-killing of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., was asked today by the State of New Jersey.

Governor A. Harry Moore, just before signing at Trenton the request for the alien ex-convict's transfer from New York across the Hudson, announced his State has a new witness, identity withheld, who said he saw Hauptmann at the scene of the crime—the Lindbergh Hopewell home—the night the flier's first-born son was stolen from his crib, March 1, 1932.

Notified by Moore over telephone of the extradition request, Governor Herbert H. Lehman interrupted a luncheon rally for his reelection long enough to remark:

"I will act on the request as quickly as possible."

Speedy Extradition.

Speed was the theme on every hand. The extradition request came less than 24 hours after Hauptmann was indicted for the baby murder at Flemington—the Jersey country town where the trial will be held.

After receiving the papers tonight, Lehman planned to return to Albany and determine early tomorrow if a hearing would be held.

James M. Fawcett, defense counsel, would not comment on the extradition request, but previously he had said he would fight any such attempt.

District Attorney Samuel Foley of the Bronx, met Governor Lehman at the luncheon and discussed the extradition.

Foley went at once to Trenton, conferred with Governor Moore and Winfield, was present when the extradition papers were signed and returned to New York with the attorney general.

BIG TWO OF NEW NRA CHIEFTAINS

WASHINGTON. . . The appointment of these two men by President Roosevelt to the board of five which make up the New National Industry Recovery Board, is being acclaimed with great favor. They are: (left), Sidney Hillman, President of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and (right), S. Clay Williams, former president of the Reynolds Tobacco Co. Both rate high in intelligent and progressive business ranks. The board will take over Gen. Johnson's administrative duties, October 15.

Samuel P. Newman Fatally Injured When Struck By Car

Leasburg, Oct. 9.—Samuel P. Newman, one of Caswell county's oldest and best known citizens died at Memorial hospital, Danville, Va., this morning at 1 o'clock from a fractured skull which he received when he jumped into the path of an automobile in front of his home here.

Twenty minutes after he was admitted to the hospital, Mr. Newman, who was wearing his 74th birthday, succumbed to a bad fracture of the skull.

J. E. McFarland, who operates a filling station near the Newman home and who was an eye-witness to the accident drove the injured man to Yanceyville in the same car that struck him and there he was transferred to an ambulance and rushed to the hospital.

Guy Tripp, a prominent resident of Washington, N. C., was driving the car that struck Mr. Newman. He stopped and assisted in every way possible, but said that he was too nervous to operate the car further, and Mr. McFarland offered to assist.

Got Out of Truck.

According to an eye-witness view of the accident, Mr. Newman and a Negro boy, Walter Elliott, about 16 years of age, left the store which the former operates in Leasburg in a truck loaded with gravel. The boy was driving the truck and stopped in front of the Newman home about 100 yards from the store and was headed towards Yanceyville. Mr. Newman got out of the truck and picked up a rock with which to scotch the wheel of the truck. He walked in front of the truck starting for the driveway on the opposite side of the road when Mr. Tripp, headed towards Yanceyville, sounded his horn. This seemed to confuse the aged man and he walked directly into the right fender of the automobile and was knocked to the tar and gravel pavement.

Mr. Tripp, who is about 60 years old, was cited to appear in Yanceyville this afternoon for preliminary hearing regarding the accident.

Mr. Newman was one of Caswell county's most prominent citizens. He was born about two miles from Leasburg and for 18 years was connected with the tobacco market in Danville. He has been a merchant in Leasburg for the past 19 years and was a consistent member of the Methodist church here.

His widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Newman, was Miss Elizabeth Chandler of Leasburg before her marriage.

In addition to his widow, the deceased leaves: one son, W. J. Newman; three daughters, Miss Sallie B. Newman, of Jackson, Miss., who is supervisor of schools there; Mrs. John B. Gunn, of Yanceyville; and Mrs. John A. Pulliam, of Louisville, Ky.; one brother, C. B. Newman, of Danville, and one sister, Mrs. W. J. Pulliam, of Leasburg.

Miss Alma Zimmerman, who is a patient in Watts Hospital, is doing nicely. Alma had her appendix and a pin removed.

Prominent Caswell County Resident Dies After Being Struck By Automobile

FUNERAL AT HOME THURSDAY AT 2:30 P. M.

MISS BARNETTE BREAKS ANKLE

Miss Maude Barnette had the misfortune last Thursday while shopping in Miller & Rhoads' store in Richmond, Va., to fall and break her ankle. The fracture, while painful, is not thought to be serious. She is confined to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woody with her leg in a cast.

CONGREGATIONS HEARING GOSPEL

Dr. F. S. Love Preaching Twice Daily At Long Memorial Church

Dr. F. S. Love of Raleigh is preaching twice daily to ever growing congregations at the Methodist Church here. He is bringing a sound practical gospel to his hearers, a message taken directly from the Scriptures and applied to the individual and to the churches of God. On Tuesday night he compared the church at Antioch to the modern church, and in the course of his sermon brought out many interesting things that he had observed in his duties as Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District of the North Carolina Conference. His studies with the congregation are simple, to the point, and couched in such language that the smallest child, or the most illiterate of his hearers can understand what he is driving at.

Rev. J. F. Herbert, the pastor, is leading the song service, which is an enjoyable feature of each service. The choir is composed of the members of the Long Memorial choir, assisted by members of the choirs of the other churches here. The hours of service are 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily.

BOLD THIEVES SACK A. S. HASSAN'S STORE

Theft Discovered On Monday Morning At Opening Time; Loss About $400

On Monday morning when Mr. A. S. Hassan's store on Depot Street was opened for business, the glass in the front door was shattered, sensing that something was amiss an investigation was started and it was soon learned that during the night someone or a party of people had broken into the store and made off with a quantity of goods consisting mostly of wearing apparel. Mr. Hassan estimated his loss at around $400, although a quantity of goods was found at the back door, which, apparently, it had been the intention of the thieves to take, but something either scared them off before it was taken out or they couldn't carry it. At any rate it represents that much saving to Mr. Hassan. No clues as to the identity of the thieves have been uncovered.

ROXBORO-SOUTH BOSTON BATTLE TO A 0 TO 0 TIE

The Roxboro High Football Team met the South Boston High aggregation on the local field Monday and they battled to a 0-0 tie. The local team, composed mostly of inexperienced players, had suffered defeat at the hands of Reidsville by the overwhelming majority of 41-0, the week before. The players showed marked improvement to hold the South Boston boys to a scoreless tie, since it was the first time that South Boston had failed to come out on the long end of the score in several years of playing with Roxboro. Coach Heffner and his boys will, no doubt, give the fans something worthwhile this year. Following is the remaining schedule as completed to date: Oct. 19, Roxboro vs. Norlina, place pending; Oct. 26, Roxboro-Chapel Hill, there; Nov. 2, Roxboro-Hillsboro, here; Nov. 9, Roxboro-Henderson, place pending; Nov. 16, open; Nov. 23, Roxboro-Bethel Hill, here.

Person U. N. C. Alumni Meeting

The annual meeting of the Person County Chapter of the Alumni of the University of North Carolina will be held on Friday night, at 7:30 P. M., in the Womans' Club building in Roxboro. Dr. Francis P. Bradshaw, Dean of Students at the University, will be the guest speaker of the evening. He will be accompanied by Mr. Jack Poole of Raleigh, who is the president of the Senior Class at the University, who is expected to make a short talk also. All interested alumni are urged to get in touch with Mr. W. D. Merritt, president of the chapter, or members of the program committee, which is composed of Messrs. Gene Thompson, Sam B. Winstead and F. O. Carver, Jr.

OWNS HOME AND HAS 14 CHILDREN

Any man who can own his own home and at the same time provide for 14 children is bound to be a good farmer and manager; and that is what George Lee, colored, of Semora, has done. His neighbors say there are none better than George, as he attends to his own business and is an asset to the community. And George reads The Courier every week.

IS IMPROVING

We enjoyed a most pleasant call from our friend, Mrs. Newton Adcock of the Mt. Harmony section Saturday. Mrs. Adcock was accompanied by her little daughter, who has been suffering with infantile paralysis, but we are glad to know she is very much improved and well on the way to complete recovery.

ANOTHER GOOD SALE REPORTED

Mr. J. L. Stanfield of Roxboro, R. 1, sold two curings here last Friday and averaged for both curings more than $51.00 a hundred. Mr. Stanfield is one of the best farmers in the county, and he knows where to sell tobacco.

LOOK AT YOUR LABEL

We rejoice with our good farmers and friends at the price they are getting for their tobacco, they deserve all and more. And while you are getting such good prices we ask you to look at the label on your paper, The Courier, and if you find you are behind please call and show. No better time than when you have the money.

If you are not a subscriber, we will be glad to place your name on our list. We think we are publishing the best paper we have ever printed and you will enjoy reading it every week. Come in today and let us give you a receipt.

MACHINE WASH BOARD

We have a limited number of wash boards for sale. We guarantee this friction reamer roller board to remove the dirt from the fabric in one-fourth to one-half of the time usually required on the laborous boards now in use. A board substantial in every detail and part. Saves clothes from that hard fabric scrubbing. Saves time and labor. We give full directions for the board when sold. These boards manufactured by Joseph P. Whitfield and J. H. Rimmer, at Hurdle Mills, N. C.

KIWANIS CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Rev. J. Furman Herbert Chosen As President For Next Year

The regular weekly meeting of the Roxboro Kiwanis Club was held Monday night in the Womans' Club with the ladies of the club serving a delightful steak supper to about thirty-five members and guests. In the absence of the president, Baxter Mangum, the meeting was presided over by the vice-president, J. S. Merritt. After the supper was disposed of the meeting was turned over to Robert Burns, who was the chairman of the nominating committee, to present the names of the nominees for the officers of the coming year. The chairman presented two names for every office except that of treasurer. For this office he offered the name of J. Brodie Riggsbee, who had recently been elected to fill the unexpired term of H. R. Simmons, who moved away from town some time ago. The rules were suspended and Brodie was elected by a unanimous vote. The list of officers elected is as follows: President, J. Furman Herbert; vice-president, B. B. Knight; treasurer, J. Brodie Riggsbee; The board of directors: L. M. Carlton, D. R. Taylor, C. A. Bowen, H. M. Beam, and O. T. Kirby.

One guest was present for the meeting. This was Dr. Franklin S. Love, who is conducting a series of services at Long Memorial Church this week.

CHARGE E. E. BRIDGES WITH SLAYING APPLE

Arrest Follows Fatal Shooting Of Jim Apple On Highway Near Gibsonville

E. E. Bridges, who said he is a sawmill operator, was lodged in county jail Sunday on a warrant charging him with the slaying of Jim Apple, of Glen Raven, who was fatally shot on the highway near Gibsonville Saturday night.

Bridges was arrested by Deputy Sheriff C. C. Shepherd, of Gibsonville, who found the two men in a car near there. Apple was critically injured and was rushed to Rainey hospital, Burlington, by Deputy Sheriff Shepherd, but died before arriving there, it was reported.

Officers said that so far as they could learn, Bridges had picked Apple up and that the shooting followed a drinking party during which an argument developed. Bridges is alleged to have used a German Luger automatic in doing the shooting.

The deputy said he understood Bridges to be from the western part of this state, but was until his arrest engaged in operating a sawmill east of Greensboro.—Greensboro News.

(Mr. Bridges has made his home here for several years where he is engaged in the sawmill business.—Ed)

ROXBORO MARKET IS STRONGER EACH DAY AND PRICES GO HIGHER

Average For Everything On The Floors Monday Was Above $35.00 Mark

SEASON'S AVERAGE TO DATE IS $30.14

Notwithstanding the heavy break here Monday the market averaged above $35.00 for everything on all of the floors, and the farmers were jubilant over their sales. The total sales Monday were over 150,000 pounds and, as stated above, passed the $35.00 high average.

Take the market as a whole and the average for the season has been $30.14—and we have seen no market which has done better for the season's sale. For many years this market led the entire belt, but since the 1932 crop, when it was almost a complete failure, we have been sliding and others have been leading, but unless all signs fall the Roxboro market is coming into its own and this year will be right up at the front.

One reason for the market's low average in recent years has been, the fact that the farmers of this county, many of them, have hauled off their better grades and sold the common on their home market, but we are glad to say this year they are bringing their best grades here, for they are receiving the best price on all grades.

You will find no better warehousemen, no more active buyers, all pulling together for your interest, than you will find right here on your home market, and there is no better place to sell than on the Roxboro market. Bring your next load here and see for yourself—one load will convince.

COMMUNITY HOUSE ON ACTIVE LIST AGAIN

Plans Are To Rush The Building To Completion

The Community House, started some months since, and then, for various reasons, apparently abandoned, is once more the scene of feverish activity, thus adorning the caps of the FERA and of the Womans' Club's efficient leader, Mrs. S. B. Davis, with another feather. For there has been no more interested party in the finishing of a community center than Mrs. Davis has been, and it has largely been her efforts in behalf of the community house with the cooperation of the FERA and other organizations that have brought the plans thus far on their way to completion. The whole town will look forward to the day of dedicatory ceremonies in honor of the completion of this center.

MANY RARE AND BEAUTIFUL DAHLIAS

Mesdames Morgan And Barnwell Have Beautiful Flower Gardens

One of the most prosperous, yes, and intelligent communities, to be found anywhere is that section in and around the Prospect Hill high school in Caswell county. It was our pleasure to visit this community recently and we were amazed at the wonderful progress made the past few years; many beautiful new bungalows line the road on Route 14, and we have never seen such a profusion of beautiful flowers. If you want to see something beyond description make a visit to Mrs. W. R. Morgan and also to Mrs. C. V. Barnwell, and if you have any love for the beautiful you will be more than repaid for your trouble. Mrs. Morgan has about 100 of the most beautiful dahlias we have ever seen; in fact, we did not think it could be equaled anywhere, but she told us to be sure and see the flower garden of her niece. We drove over to the home of Mrs. C. V. Barnwell, and she has in her garden 65 varieties—and she can name every one of them, which beggared description. We were glad we were not called upon to say which of these gardens would be entitled to rank as first.

Any community which takes such an interest in flowers is just naturally bound to be cultured and refined, for the love of the beautiful is a sign which can not be disputed.
